Monstrous Face Of ISI Real Story Behind The Interservices Intelligence Agency Of Pakistan:

The Monstrous Face of ISI Bhure Lal, 2000 Intelligence Elsewhere Philip H. J. Davies, Kristian C.

Gustafson, 2013-03-12 Spying the world's second oldest profession is hardly limited to the traditional great power countries. Intelligence Elsewhere nevertheless is the first scholarly volume to deal exclusively with the comparative study of national intelligence outside of the anglosphere and European mainstream. Past studies of intelligence and counterintelligence have tended to focus on countries such as the United States, Great Britain and Russia as well as to a lesser extent Canada, Australia, France and Germany. This volume examines the deep historical and cultural origins of intelligence in several countries of critical importance today: India, China, the Arab world and indeed Russia, the latter examined from a fresh perspective. The authors then delve into modern intelligence practice in countries with organizations significantly different from the mainstream: Iran, Pakistan, Japan, Finland, Sweden, Indonesia, Argentina and Ghana. With contributions by leading intelligence experts for each country, the chapters give the reader important insights into intelligence culture, current practice and security sector reform. As the world morphs into an increasingly multi-polar system, it is more important than ever to understand the national intelligence systems of rising powers and regional powers that differ significantly from those of the US, its NATO allies and its traditional opponents. This fascinating book shines new light into intelligence practices in regions that until now have eluded our understanding. Afghanistan C. Heather Bleaney, María Ángeles Gallego, 2006. Presents a thematically indexed bibliography devoted to Afghanistan. Following the pattern established by one of its major data sources, viz the acclaimed Index Islamicus, both journal articles and book publications are included and indexed. Afghanistan Heather Bleaney, 2006-02-01.
