A Symposium was held on February 25 2006 in honor of the 80th birthday of Saul I Gass and his major contributions to the field of operations research over 50 years This volume includes articles from each of the Symposium speakers plus 16 other articles from friends colleagues and former students Each contributor offers a forward looking perspective on the future development of the field     Operation Research Dr. Akabarsaheb Babulal Nadaf,Dr. B.N. Operations Research that mathematical and analytical techniques for decision making and problem solving in complex systems Covering topics such as linear programming queuing theory game theory inventory management and simulation the provides a structured approach to optimizing resources minimizing costs and improving efficiency It integrates theoretical foundations with real world applications in business engineering and logistics Designed for students researchers and professionals this offers in depth explanations case studies and problem solving strategies making it an essential guide for mastering the principles and methodologies of operations research     Operations Research H. A. Eiselt,Carl-Louis Sandblom,2010-05-17

Since the 1960s operations research or alternatively management science has become an indispensable tool in scientific management In simple words its goal on the strategic and tactical levels is to aid in decision making and on the operational level automate decision making Its tools are algorithms procedures that create and improve solutions to a point at which optimal or at least satisfactory solutions have been found While many texts on the subject emphasize methods the special focus of this book is on the applications of operations research in practice Typically a topic is introduced by means of a description of its applications a model is formulated and its solution is presented Then the solution is discussed and its implications for decision making are outlined We have attempted to maximize the understanding of the topics by using intuitive reasoning while keeping mathematical notation and the description of techniques to a minimum The exercises are designed to fully explore the material covered in the chapters without resorting to mind numbing repetitions and trivialization     Operational Research for Emergency Planning in Healthcare: Volume 2 Navonil Mustafee,2016-01-26

This book presents a selection of studies that have applied Operational Research methods to improve emergency planning in healthcare to include both A E and public health emergencies like epidemic and natural disasters The studies have delved into qualitative Operational Research like Problem Structuring Critical Systems Thinking Soft Systems Methodology and Qualitative System Dynamics and also quantitative techniques such as Monte Carlo Simulation Discrete event Simulation and System Dynamics These techniques have been applied for review and assessment of emergency services for policy formulation and for facilitating broader public engagement in emergency preparedness and response Furthermore this book presents rigorous reviews on the applications of Operational Research in the wider healthcare context This volume focuses mainly on emergency planning at the strategic level whereas volume 1 focuses on planning at the operational level The OR Essentials series presents a unique cross section of high quality research work fundamental to understanding contemporary issues and research across a range of Operational Research OR topics It brings together some of the best research papers from the highly respected journals of the Operational Research Society also published by Palgrave Macmillan Introduction to Operations Research Faure,1968 Introduction to Operations Research Monte Carlo George Fishman,2013-03-09 This book provides an introduction to the Monte Carlo method suitable for a one or two semester course for graduate and advanced undergraduate students in the mathematical and engineering sciences It also can serve as a reference for the professional analyst In the past my inability to provide students with a single source book on this topic for class and for later professional reference had left me repeatedly frustrated and eventually motivated me to write this book In addition to focused accounts of major topics the book has two unifying themes One concerns the effective use of information and the other concerns error control and reduction The book describes how to incorporate information about a problem into a sampling plan in a way that reduces the cost of estimating its solution to within a specified error bound Although exploiting special structures to reduce cost long has been a hallmark of the Monte Carlo method the propensity of users of the method to discard useful information because it does not fit traditional textbook models repeatedly has impressed me The present account aims at reducing the impediments to integrating this information Errors both statistical and computational abound in every Monte Carlo sampling experiment and a considerable methodology exists for controlling them XIII Balkan Conference on Operational Research Proceedings Dragana Makajić-Nikolić,2018-06-10
