The Global Revolution Silvio Pons, 2014-08-28 The Global Revolution A History of International Communism 1917 1991 establishes a relationship between the history of communism and the main processes of globalization in the past century Drawing on a wealth of archival sources Silvio Pons analyses the multifaceted and contradictory relationship between the Soviet Union and the international communist movement to show how communism played a major part in the formation of our modern world The volume presents the argument that during the age of wars from 1914 to 1945 the establishment of the Soviet state in Russia and the birth of the communist movement had an enormous impact because of their promise of world revolution and international civil war. Such perspective appeared even more plausible in the aftermath of the Second World War and of revolution in China which paved the way for the expansion of communism in the post colonial world. Communism challenged the West in the Cold War by means of anti capitalist modernization and anti imperialist mobilization showing itself to be a powerful factor in the politicization of global trends. However the international legitimacy of communism declined rapidly in the post war era. Soviet power exposed its inability to exercise hegemony as distinct from domination. The consequences of Sovietization in Europe and the break between the Soviet Union and China were the primary reasons for the decline of communist influence and appeal. Since communism lost its political credibility and cultural cohesion its global project had failed. The ground was prepared for the devastating impact of Western globalization on communist regimes in Europe and the Soviet Union.

In addition this volume addresses national experiences with the enforcement of certain international crimes. It is divided into 4 chapters which are titled as Chapter 1 History of International Investigations and Prosecutions International Criminal Accountability International Criminal Justice in Historical Perspective Chapter 2 International Criminal Tribunals and Mixed Model Tribunals The International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia The International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda The Making of the International Criminal Court Mixed Models of International Criminal Justice Special Court for Sierra Leone Special Tribunal for Cambodia East Timor Chapter 3 National Prosecutions for International Crimes National Prosecutions for International Crimes National Prosecutions of International Crimes A Historical Overview The French Experience The Belgian Experience The Dutch Experience Indonesia The U S War Crimes Act of 1996 Enforcing ICL Violations with Civil Remedies The Case of the U S Alien Tort Claims Act Chapter 4 Contemporary Issues in International Criminal Law Doctrine and Practice Command Responsibility Joint Criminal Enterprise The Responsibility of Peacekeepers The General Part Judicial Developments Ne bis in idem Plea Bargains Issues Pertaining to the Evidentiary Part of International Criminal Law Penalties and Sentencing Penalties From Leipzig to Arusha Victims Rights in International Law

The Red Flag David Priestland, 2016-05-03. The best and the most accessible one volume history of communism now available. A far reaching vividly written account. Foreign Affairs In The Red Flag Oxford professor David Priestland tells the epic story of a movement that has taken root in dozens of countries across two hundred years from its birth after the French Revolution to its ideological maturity in nineteenth century Germany to its rise to dominance and subsequent fall in the twentieth century Beginning with the first modern Communists in the age of Robespierre Priestland examines the motives of thinkers and leaders including Marx Engels Lenin Stalin Castro Che Guevara Mao Ho Chi Minh Gorbachev and many others Priestland also shows how Communism in all its varieties appealed to different societies for different reasons in some as a response to inequalities and in others more out of a desire to catch up with the West But paradoxically while destroying one web of inequality Communist leaders were simultaneously weaving another It was this dynamic together with widespread economic failure and an escalating loss of faith in the system that ultimately destroyed Soviet Communism itself At a time when global capitalism is in crisis and powerful new political forces have arisen to confront Western democracy The Red Flag is essential reading if we are to apply the lessons of the past to navigating the future Detailed and scholarly but written in lively prose this is a rich satisfying account of the most successful utopian political movement in history Publishers Weekly starred review

Revolution and Genocide in Ethiopia and Cambodia Edward Kissi, 2006-03-20 Revolution and Genocide in Ethiopia and Cambodia is the first comparative study of the Ethiopian and Cambodian revolutions of the early 1970s One of the few comparative studies of genocide in the developing world this book presents some of the key arguments in traditional genocide scholarship but the book's author Edward Kissi takes a different position arguing that the Cambodian genocide and the atrocious crimes in Ethiopia had very different motives Kissi's findings reveal that genocide was a tactic specifically chosen by Cambodia's Khmer Rouge to intentionally and systematically annihilate certain ethnic and religious groups whereas Ethiopia's Dergue resorted to terror and political killing in the effort to retain power Revolution and Genocide in Ethiopia and Cambodia demonstrates that the extent to which revolutionary states turn to policies of genocide depends greatly on how they acquire their power and what domestic and international opposition they face This is an important and intriguing book for students of African and Asian history and those interested in the study of genocide
