part of customary international law and even ius cogens. The main instrument to combat torture within the framework of the United Nations is the Convention Against Torture and other Cruel Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (CAT). This Commentary explores the problematic definition of torture in the Convention, the substantive obligations of States parties, the principle of non refoulement, provisions for international monitoring and also the concept of preventative visits to all places of detention as contained in the Optional Protocol to the CAT. It also covers issues including the distinction between torture and cruel inhuman or degrading treatment and the principle of non admissibility of evidence extracted under torture. Full article by article commentary on the Convention also provides historical context and thorough analysis of case law and practice from international and regional courts and monitoring bodies. Relevant case law from domestic courts are also discussed. Despite the broad ratification and the universal recognition of the prohibition of torture and other forms of ill treatment, we witness a global crisis affecting the majority of countries worldwide. In recent years, the protection of human rights is experiencing a particularly serious crisis also affecting the phenomenon of torture, in which official narratives and public belief often trivialise and even endorse such practices in the name of security and the fight against terrorism, ignoring the suffering and damages it causes. On the other hand, the positive experiences in some States illustrate that torture can be eradicated if the provisions of CAT and OPCAT are taken seriously and are being fully implemented. The Cat's Out of the Bag Max Cryer, 2015-02-01 We cannot get enough of cats from ancient times; they have occupied a special place in many different cultures around the world. They have also generated a fascinating array of words, expressions and observations, as well as poems, books, movies, cartoons and artworks. In this witty and entertaining book, Max Cryer celebrates cats and all they have given to us. He describes the many words and expressions they have inspired, from catnip and catwalk to the cat's whiskers and raining cats and dogs, as well as famous cat characters like Garfield, Felix the Cat, The Cat in the Hat and Puss in Boots, songs as varied as What's New Pussycat and The Cats' Duet, and poems like The Owl and the Pussycat and Hey Diddle Diddle. The cats owned by famous celebrities are described, from Elizabeth Taylor's Jeepers Creepers to Dr Johnson's Hodge. In other chapters, he explores cats' attributes: the strength of their night vision and sense of smell, their sleep requirements, life expectancy and much more. Surprising facts and spurious fictions can be found on almost every page. Everything you ever wanted to know about cats can be enjoyed in this magnificent compendium of a book. It is a delight from beginning to end to be read with one on your lap.
