

OPEN DISTANCE LEARNING POLICY

1. PREAMBLE

- 1.1 The 2015 Strategic Plan of the University of South Africa (UNISA) dedicates itself to becoming the African university in service of humanity.
- 1.2 UNISA commits itself to advancing social justice with an emphasis on redress, equity and empowerment of the previously disadvantaged groups in South Africa such as blacks, women, people with disabilities, the rural and urban poor and adults generally who have missed out on opportunities to access higher education.
- 1.3 UNISA is South Africa's only comprehensive dedicated distance education university. The conceptualization of distance education and open learning is central to achieving its vision.

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1 To position UNISA as a leading provider of higher education opportunities through open distance learning (ODL) nationally, on the African continent and internationally.
- 2.2 To commit UNISA to the guidelines for cross-border provision developed by the national Department of Education.
- 2.3 To commit UNISA to an ongoing, responsive interaction with current and emerging national and international imperatives and developments with relevance to quality ODL provision.

3. DEFINITIONS

Blended learning	is accomplished by using multiple teaching and learning strategies, a range of technologies in combination with face-to-face interaction and the deployment of both physical and virtual resources;
Distance education	is a set of methods or processes for teaching a diverse range of students <sup>1</sup> located at different places and physically separated from the learning institution, their tutors/teachers as well as other students;
Learning	is an active process of construction of knowledge, attitudes and values as well as developing skills using a variety of resources including people, printed material, electronic media, experiential and work-integrated learning, practical training, reflection, research, etc. Learning is also associated
