Policy Disasters in Europe Paul 't Hart,Pat Gray,2005-06-27 This book considers some recent and spectacular failures in policy making and asks what is meant by policy disaster the different forms that they can take and why they have occurred These issues are explored in nine contrasting cases drawn from both the European Union and its member states These include the devastating crisis in the Belgium political system following the exposure of a paedophile ring the crisis in the Dutch fight against drugs Mad Cows the Arms to Iraq affair in the UK monetary union between West and East Germany the Swedish monetary crisis of 1992 and the EU s common fisheries policy and policies towards civil war in Yugoslavia This book is an excellent study of how and why policies can go wrong and highlights the limits of what governments can achieve in Western Europe      Town and Country Planning in the UK J. B. Cullingworth,Vincent Nadin,2002 Town and Country

Planning in the UK has become the bible of British planning It provides an explanation of the nature of planning the institutions and organisations involved the plans and other tools used by planners planning policies and more      Town and Country Planning in the UK Barry Cullingworth,Vincent Nadin,2003-09-02 Town and Country Planning in the UK has become the Bible of British planning In this new edition detailed consideration is given to the nature of planning and its historical evolution central and local government the EU and other agencies the framework of plans and other instruments development control land policy and planning gain environmental and countryside planning sustainable development waste and pollution heritage and transport planning urban policies and regeneration This twelfth edition has been completely revised and expanded to cover the whole of the UK The new edition explains more fully the planning policies and actions of the European Union and takes into account the implications of local government reorganization the plan led system and the growing interest in promoting sustainable development      A Multidisciplinary Actology Malcolm Torry, 2025-07-15 An actology introduced by the first book in this series Actology Action Change and Diversity in the Western Philosophical Tradition understands reality as action in changing patterns Actological Readings in Continental Philosophy read a number of continental philosophers through this lens An Actology of the Given explored the concepts of the gift givenness and giving in the light of reality understood as action in changing patterns An Actological Metaphysic treated a variety of metaphysical and cosmological concepts in the light of reality understood as action in changing patterns An Actological Theology asked what Christian theology looks like when understood actologically Mark s Gospel An Actological Reading was what it says it is This seventh book in the series A Multidisciplinary Actology fills some important gaps by understanding language the humanities ethics mathematics the natural sciences the social sciences psychology politics and organizational behavior actologically that is with reality understood as action in changing patterns      Comparative Government Introduction J. Blondel, 2014-01-27 First published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Advances in Policy Studies Since 1950 William N. Dunn, Rita Mae Kelly, This latest volume of the Policy Studies Review Annual series brings together leading policy scientists in a comprehensive review of the field s achievements since its professionalization some forty years ago If an advance is defined as an improvement in theory methodology information or practice how does the field measure up And what should its next goals be This unusual compendium of entirely new essays and articles helps to answer such questions On balance the contributors show the record is mixed Policy sciences draw on the theoretical foundations of many disciplines but have not themselves contributed theoretical advances We have more information but information in itself does not constitute an advance Despite improved interaction between academia and government it is difficult to identify new or better policies that have resulted On the other hand there have been impressive advances in methodology procedures for conducting inquiry that yield reliable and relevant policy knowledge In its candid assessment of trends controversies and unsolved problems this volume charts new directions for the policy sciences      Television Regulation and Media Policy in China Yik-Chan Chin, 2016-08-12 Since the late 1990s there has been a crucial and substantial transformation in China s television system involving institutional structural and regulatory changes Unravelling the implications of these changes is vital for understanding the politics of Chinese media policy making and regulation and thus a comprehensive study of this history has never been more essential This book studies the transformation of the policy and regulation of the Chinese television sector within a national political and economic context from 1996 to the present day Taking a historical and sociological approach it engages in the theoretical debates over the nature of the transformation of media in the authoritarian Chinese state the implications of the ruling party s political legitimacy and China s central local conflicts upon television policy making and market structure and the nature of the media modernisation process in a developing country Its case studies include broadcasting systems in Shanghai and Guangdong which demonstrate that varied policies and development strategies have been adopted by television stations reflecting different local circumstances and needs Arguing that rather than being a homogenous entity China has demonstrated substantial local diversity and complex interactions between local national and global media this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Chinese media politics and policy and international communications      Community Forestry Ryan C. L. Bullock, Kevin S. Hanna, 2012-06-28 An incisive examination of community forestry in a pan national context highlighting both the possibilities and challenges associated with its implementation      Geographies of Care Christine Milligan, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2001 As care services in Britain have moved from institutional to community based environments there has been a simultaneous shift in those agencies concerned with the provision of such care and support this new environment of care is a complex one involving numerous different actors and agencies that operate across various different spatial and organizational levels of the policy process The implementation and success of care policies depend in part on the inter relationships between these various players This book examines these inter relationships illustrated by an in depth empirical study of policy makers and informal care providers concerned with the frail elderly in Scotland Taking the voluntary sector as a lens through which these inter relationships are explored it analyzes how voluntary support is affected by differing local contexts of care and what this means in terms of locally based care outcomes      The SAGE Handbook of Sport Management Russell Hoyer, Milena M. Parent, 2016-11-15 The SAGE Handbook of Sport Management draws together the best current research on the major topics relevant to the field of sports management including leadership gender diversity development policy tourism and media Edited by two of the most respected figures in the field the handbook includes contributions from leading sport management academics from Australia Canada New Zealand USA the UK and Europe      Planning Your Qualitative Research Project Tom O'Donoghue, 2006-10-30 This is a key text for any student embarking on a qualitative research project it provides worked examples and valuable models which can be used as guides for plans and proposals answering key questions and providing a comprehensive guide to a student's project It shows that when planning a qualitative research proposal researchers should adopt an approach where they ask themselves the following four questions What research paradigm informs my approach to my research area What theoretical perspective do I choose within the paradigm What methodology do I choose What methods are most appropriate Including examples of the write up of two central types of research projects studies on participants perspectives on phenomena and studies on how participants manage or cope with phenomena the book outlines five research proposals to illustrate ways in which these two central types can be varied and applied when engaging in five other types of studies namely policy studies life history studies retrospective interactionist longitudinal studies and interactionist historical studies and problem focused studies
