Representations of Collective Memory in Georgia, Armenia, Abkhazia and Nagorno Karabakh Bartłomiej Krzysztan, 2024-11-29 The book is a unique proposal for an integral description of memory regimes in the South Caucasus region covering both the independent states of Armenia and Georgia but also the separatist entities created as a result of the turbulent changes of the early 1990s Abkhazia and Nagorno Karabakh Being a transdisciplinary proposal encompassing the perspectives of political science history and social anthropology the book may be of interest to researchers from different academic disciplines At the same time due to its narrative form it can also be an interesting proposal for students of eastern studies allowing for a fuller understanding of the dynamics of political change in the post Soviet space The comprehensive and integral approach to the issue of analysing and interpreting collective memory through the prism of its representation presented in the form of an anthropological story based on case studies may also be of interest to those not associated with institutional Academia

Dialectic of Enlightenment Max Horkheimer, Theodor W Adorno, 2002-03-27 This new translation of the Frankfurt School's seminal text includes textual variants and discussion of the work's influence on Critical Theory Dialectic of Enlightenment is undoubtedly the most influential publication of the Frankfurt School of Critical Theory Written during the Second World War and circulated privately it appeared in a printed edition in Amsterdam in 1947 What we had set out to do the authors write in the Preface was nothing less than to explain why humanity instead of entering a truly human state is sinking into a new kind of barbarism Yet the work goes far beyond a mere critique of contemporary events Theodor Adorno and Max Horkheimer trace a wide arch that connects the birth of Western history and of subjectivity itself to the most threatening experiences of the present The various analyses concern such phenomena as the detachment of science from practical life formalized morality the manipulative nature of entertainment culture and a paranoid behavioral structure expressed in aggressive anti-Semitism that marks the limits of enlightenment Adorno and Horkheimer see the self destruction of Western reason as grounded in a historical and fateful dialectic between the domination of external nature and society They show why the National Socialist terror was not an aberration of modern history but was rooted deeply in the fundamental characteristics of Western civilization The Cultural Politics of Austerity R. Bramall, 2013-10-31 This timely book examines austerity's conflicted meanings from austerity chic and anti-austerity protest to economic and eco-austerity Bramall's compelling text explores the presence and persuasiveness of the past developing a new approach to the historical in contemporary cultural politics The Reagan Range James E. Combs, 1993 Combs political science Valparaiso U tries to make sense of the Reagan presidency by linking it to the American popular culture that spawned and trained him and that he used so adeptly to his advantage No index Paper edition unseen 11 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Contested Memories and the Demands of the Past Catharina Raudvere, 2016-12-19 This book brings together new perspectives on collective memory in the modern Muslim world It discusses how memory cultures are established and used at national levels in official history writing through the erection of monuments the fashioning of educational curricula and through media strategies as well as in the interface with both artistic expressions and popular culture in the Muslim world at large The representations of collective memory have been one of the foremost tools in national identity politics grass root mobilization theological debates over Islam and general discussions on what constitutes the modern in the Middle East as well as in Muslim diaspora environments Few if any contemporary conflicts in the region can be understood in depth without a certain focus on various uses of history memory cultures and religious meta-narratives at all societal levels and in art and literature This book will be of use to students and scholars in the fields of Identity Politics Islamic Studies Media and Cultural Anthropology Law and the Politics of Memory Stina Loytomaki, 2014-06-05 Law and the Politics of Memory Confronting the Past examines law's role as a tool of memory politics in the efforts of contemporary societies to work through the traumas of their past Using the examples of French colonialism and Vichy as well as addressing the politics of memory surrounding the Holocaust communism and colonialism this book provides a critical exploration of law's role in belated transitional justice contexts The book examines how and why law has become so central in processes in which the past is constituted as a series of injustices that need to be rectified and can allegedly be repaired As such it explores different legal modalities in processes of working through the past addressing the implications of regulating history and memory through legal categories and legislative acts whilst exploring how trials restitution cases and memory laws manage to fulfil such varied expectations as

clarifying truth rendering homage to memory and reconciling societies Legal scholars historians and political scientists especially those working with transitional justice history and memory politics in particular will find this book a stimulating exploration of the specificity of law as an instrument and forum of the politics of memory Remembering Transitions Ksenia Robbe,2023-10-04 This volume offers critical perspectives on memories of political and socioeconomic transitions that took place between the 1970s and 1990s across the globe and that inaugurated the end of the Cold War The essays respond to a wealth of recent works of literature film theatre and other media in different languages that rethink the transformations of those decades in light of present day crises The authors scrutinize the enduring silences produced by established frameworks of memory and time and explore the mnemonic practices that challenge these frameworks by positing radical ambivalence or by articulating new perspectives and subjectivities As a whole the volume contributes to current debates and theory making in critical memory studies by reflecting on how the changing recollection of transitions constitutes a response to the crisis of memory and time regimes and how remembering these times as crises renders visible continuities between this past and the present It is a valuable resource for academics students practitioners and general readers interested in exploring the dynamics of memory in post authoritarian societies Imprints John N. Low,2016-02-01 The Pokagon Band of Potawatomi Indians has been a part of Chicago since its founding In very public expressions of indigeneity they have refused to hide in plain sight or assimilate Instead throughout the city s history the Pokagon Potawatomi Indians have openly and aggressively expressed their refusal to be marginalized or forgotten and in doing so they have contributed to the fabric and history of the city Imprints The Pokagon Band of Potawatomi Indians and the City of Chicago examines the ways some Pokagon Potawatomi tribal members have maintained a distinct Native identity their rejection of assimilation into the mainstream and their desire for inclusion in the larger contemporary society without forfeiting their Indianness Mindful that contact is never a one way street Low also examines the ways in which experiences in Chicago have influenced the Pokagon Potawatomi Imprints continues the recent scholarship on the urban Indian experience before as well as after World War II

British Cultural Memory and the Second World War Lucy Noakes,Juliette Pattinson,2013-11-21 Few historical events have resonated as much in modern British culture as the Second World War It has left a rich legacy in a range of media that continue to attract a wide audience film TV and radio photography and the visual arts journalism and propaganda architecture museums music and literature The enduring presence of the war in the public world is echoed in its ongoing centrality in many personal and family memories with stories of the Second World War being recounted through the generations This collection brings together recent historical work on the cultural memory of the war examining its presence in family stories in popular and material culture and in acts of commemoration in Britain between 1945 and the present

Memory, Fluid Identity, and the Politics of Remembering Li Li,2016-06-21 The Chinese Cultural Revolution is the single most important internal social event in contemporary Chinese history The plethora of history literary and artistic representations inspired by this event are critical to our understanding of the diversified often contested interpretations of contemporary China Li Li's critical examination of autobiographic filmic and fictional presentations in Memory Fluid Identity and the Politics of Remembering The Representations of the Chinese Cultural Revolution in English speaking Countries demonstrates that memory works not only reflect memories of those who lived through that period but memories about their past and more importantly about their identity remapping and artistic negotiation in a cross cultural environment

Critical Perspectives on Cultural Memory and Heritage Veysel Apaydin i,2020-02-18 Critical Perspectives on Cultural Memory and Heritage focuses on the importance of memory and heritage for individual and group identity and for their sense of belonging It aims to expose the motives and discourses related to the destruction of memory and heritage during times of war terror sectarian conflict and through capitalist policies It is within these affected spheres of cultural heritage where groups and communities ascribe values develop memories and shape their collective identity A Reader in Themed and Immersive Spaces Scott A. Lukas,2016 Themed spaces have at their foundation an overarching narrative symbolic complex or story that drives the overall context of their spaces Theming in some very unique ways has expanded beyond previous stereotypes and oversimplifications of culture and place to now consider new and often controversial topics themes and storylines Publisher's website Cultural Memories of Nonviolent Struggles A. Reading,T. Katriel,2015-06-09 If societies have only memories of war of cruelty of violence then why are we called humankind This book marks a new trajectory in Memory Studies by examining cultural memories of nonviolent struggles from ten countries The book reminds us of the enduring cultural scripts for human agency solidarity resilience and human kindness Streaming Media and Cultural Memory in a Postdigital Society Renira Rampazzo Gambarato,Johannes Heuman,2024-12-31 This book offers a relevant contribution to the studies of streaming media and transmediality with an original approach of cultural sustainability perfectly intertwined with cultural memory beyond borders By critically reflecting on popular streaming media series the book identifies their impact on the global circulation of cultural memory their learning potential for educational purposes and the societal challenges and opportunities that emerge from the ubiquitous streaming media penetration and potential for participatory practices It also investigates how series available worldwide on commercial platforms such as Netflix and Max contribute to the global circulation of cultural memories in addition to illuminating the ethical unsustainable and educational concerns involved in the fictionalization of the past Drawing on the authors expertise in media studies and history this transdisciplinary book will interest scholars in the fields of media studies cultural studies memory studies history transmedia studies education postdigital studies television studies social communication sociology and philosophy Medievalism in Finland and Russia Reima Välimäki,2022-11-03 Since the end of the Cold War the Middle Ages has returned to debates about history culture and politics in Northern and Eastern Europe This volume explores political medievalism in two language areas that are crucial to understanding global medievalism but are due to language barriers often inaccessible to the majority of

Western scholars and students The importance of Russian medievalism has been acknowledged but little analysed until now Medievalism in Finland and Russia offers a selection of chapters by Russian Finnish and American scholars covering historiography presidential speeches participatory online discussions and the neo pagan revival in Russia Finland is currently even more poorly understood than Russia in the discussions about global medievalism It is usually mentioned only as of the birthplace of the Soldiers of Odin The street patrol is however a marginal phenomenon in Finnish medievalism as this volume demonstrates Instead of merely adopting the medievalist interpretation of the international alt right even the right wing populists in Finland refer more to the nationalistic medievalist tradition where crusades do not mark a Western Christian victory over the Muslim East but a Swedish occupation of Finnish lands In addition to presenting particular cases of medievalism the chapters here on Finland challenge and diversify today s prevailing interpretation of shared online medievalism of European and American right wing populists This book reveals that while medievalisms in Finland and Russia share many features with the contemporary Anglo American medievalist imaginations they also display many original characteristics due to particular political situations and indigenous medievalist traditions They have their own meta medievalisms cumulative core ideas and interpretations about the medieval past that are thoroughly examined here in English for the very first time Literary Culture in Early Modern England, 1630-1700 Ingo Berensmeyer, 2020-06-22 This book explores literary culture in England between 1630 and 1700 focusing on connections between material epistemic and political conditions of literary writing and reading In a number of case studies and close readings it presents the seventeenth century as a period of change that saw a fundamental shift towards a new cultural configuration neoclassicism This shift affected a wide array of social practices and institutions from poetry to politics and from epistemology to civility Affective Heritage and the Politics of Memory after 9/11 Jacque Micieli-Voutsinas, 2021-03-30 This book critically examines the institutional curation of traumatic memory at the 9 11 Memorial Museum and its evocative power as a cultural storyteller Memorial Museums are evocative spaces Drawing on aesthetic practices deeply rooted in representing the unrepresentability of cultural trauma most notably the Holocaust Memorial Museums are powerful popular mediums for establishing cultural values asking the visitor to contemplate Who am I in relation to the difficult histories on display Using primary data this book poses important questions about the emotionally charged site what moral lessons are visitors imparted with at the 9 11 Memorial Museum Who is the cultural institution s primary audience the imagined community it reconstructs this traumatic history and safeguards its memories for What does the National September 11 Memorial Museum ultimately teach visitors about history ourselves and others This work will be of interest to students and scholars in the areas of Human Geography American Studies Museum Studies and Public History Cultural and Heritage Studies and Trauma and Memory Studies

Social Bonds and Historical Time Torbjörn Gustafsson Chorell, 2025-08-07 This book analyses the social dimension of historical time and explores how we emotionally and intellectually bind ourselves to the past and project these ties onto our present and future Gustafsson Chorell argues that historical time is inherently social and that the nexus of past present and future is constructed through social mechanisms Beginning with the concept of the historical imaginary this book examines the theoretical shift from future oriented to present oriented models of time and integrates insights from intellectual history philosophy and social theory This book demonstrates how a variety of social bonds such as emotion generation and authority can affect how historical time is demarcated Analysing key concepts such as desire for the past the impact of grief and nostalgia and the role of history in shaping expectations for the future the volume highlights the enduring significance of sociality even under new regimes of historicity such as the Anthropocene Ultimately Gustafsson Chorell offers a comprehensive view of how past present and future are interconnected and highlights the continued importance of thinking carefully about the relationship between time and history

Scribal Representations and Social Landscapes of the Iron Age Shephelah Mahri Leonard-Fleckman, 2025 The Shephelah borderlands in the southwestern region of Iron Age Israel ca 1200-586 BCE are one of the most intensely excavated areas in the world a complex social political place standing between the central highlands and the coastal home of the so called biblical Philistines Yet the lives of these people on the margins of ancient Israel are lost to us today left only in the fragments of archaeological remains and in the Bible's entangled representations of the proximate Other In Scribal Representations and Social Landscapes of the Iron Age Shephelah Mahri Leonard Fleckman delves into how the Other is created and fashioned in ancient witnesses to these regions by analyzing identity in the Iron Age Shephelah Focusing on two contemporary archaeological sites with plausible ancient connections Tel Batash ancient Timnah and Tell es Safi ancient Gath she journeys through texts and archaeology that bear witness to the social and political complexities of the region Significantly she presents irresolution as a practice for scholars of the Hebrew Bible and the ancient Levant and illustrates how resisting conclusions can be an asset to investigating the distant past Along the way she advances new hypotheses that illuminate biblical passages describing individuals and communities from the region such as the stereotypical Philistines Samson Tamar Delilah and others The book draws together a range of critical perspectives to spark compelling conversations about identity and history between anthropologists archaeologists biblical scholars literary theorists and historians
