Finding Answers History! Religion! Science! Pauline Schiappa,2018-04-28 A mysterious and tremendous thing comes to reveal itself in the course of the lifetime of an earthly human So mysteriously confronted by it the earthly human becomes awed by this compelling human attribute The earthly human becomes so enraptured by it that he begins to consider it as a quality that defines and explains his human nature The earthly human desires to know the earthly human desires to understand that which his physical body sense experiences of earthly reality The earthly human holds so much psychological and intellectual desire toward knowing it that he gives it a nametruth How does the earthly human discover truth Global Challenges of Climate Change, Vol.2 Tessaleno Campos Devezas,João Carlos Correia Leitão,Yuri Yegorov,Dmitry Chistilin,2022-11-16 This two volume book offers a broad range of discussions on the immense challenge of climate change one confronting every country on the planet and forcing them to find a path towards a sustainable future that will not have disastrous consequences in relation to our chances of survival It also presents a snapshot of the status quo which reflects all the decisions and measures taken to date Analyzing the consequences of the steps that will shape our future the two volumes also reflect on important decisions at a global level that have already been taken This second volume on risks assessment and the political and social dimension of the green energy transition is structured into 14 chapters International renowned scholars discuss the inherent risks that arise in consequence of the transition to the intensive use of low carbon energy sources and global warming risks related to food and water security as well as risks of social and political conflicts They further examine the dependence on individual countries industrial structures and on their socio economic development level as challenges to climate change solutions and to the global energy policy agenda This book is a must read for scholars researchers and students as well as policymakers interested in a better understanding of climate change present scenarios and alternative solutions and measures Dilemmas of Energy Transitions in the Global South Ankit Kumar,Johanna Höffken,Auke Pols,2021-06-16 This book explores how in the wake of the Anthropocene the growing call for urgent decarbonisation and accelerated energy transitions might have unintended consequences for energy poverty justice and democracy especially in the global South Dilemmas of Energy Transitions in the Global South brings together theoretical and empirical contributions focused on rethinking energy transitions conceptually from and for the global South and highlights issues of justice and inclusivity It argues that while urgency is critical for energy transitions in a climate changed world we must be wary of conflating goals and processes and enquire what urgency means for due process Drawing from a range of authors with expertise spanning environmental justice design theory ethics of technology conflict and gender it examines case studies from countries including Bolivia Sri Lanka India The Gambia and Lebanon in order to expand our understanding of what energy transitions are and how just energy transitions can be done in different parts of the world Overall driven by a postcolonial and decolonial sensibility this book brings to the fore new concepts and ideas to help balance the demands of justice and urgency to flag relevant but often overlooked issues and to provide new pathways forward This volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of energy transitions environmental justice climate change and developing countries The Open Access version of this book available at <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/oa-edit/10.4324/9781003052821> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Aging and Human Nature Mark Schweda, Michael Coors, Claudia Bozzaro, 2020-01-11 This book focuses on ageing as a topic of philosophical theological and historical anthropology It provides a systematic inventory of fundamental theoretical questions and assumptions involved in the discussion of ageing and old age What does it mean for human beings to grow old and become more vulnerable and dependent How can we understand the manifestations of ageing and old age in the human body How should we interpret the processes of change in the temporal course of a human life What impact does old age have on the social dimensions of human existence In order to tackle these questions the volume brings together internationally distinguished scholars from the fields of philosophy theology cultural studies social gerontology and ageing studies The collection of their original articles makes a twofold contribution to contemporary academic discourse On one hand it helps to clarify and deepen our understanding of ageing and old age by examining it from the fundamental point of view of philosophical theological and historical anthropology At the same time it also enhances and expands the discourses of philosophical theological and historical anthropology by systematically taking into account that human beings are essentially ageing creatures
