Park, 2013-05-17 Widely regarded as the definitive reference this volume comprehensively examines the psychological processes associated with religion and spirituality Leading scholars from multiple psychological subdisciplines present developmental cognitive social psychological cultural and clinical perspectives on this core aspect of human experience The forms and functions of religious practices and rituals conversion experiences and spiritual struggles are explored Other key topics include religion as a meaning system religious influences on prosocial and antisocial behavior and connections to health coping and psychotherapy New to This Edition Two chapters on cross cultural issues Chapters on spiritual goals emotional values and mindfulness Reflects significant theoretical and empirical developments in the field Many new authors and extensively revised chapters Robust index amplifies the volume s usefulness as a reference tool A Choice Outstanding Academic Title New Religions As Global Cultures Irving Hexham, Karla Poewe, 2018-02-12 Although the Great Anti Cult Crusade links new religious movements to dangerous cults brainwashing and the need for deprogramming Karla Poewe and Irving Hexham argue that many cults are the product of a dynamic interaction between folk religions and the teachings of traditional world religions Drawing on examples from Africa the United States Asia and Europe they suggest that few new religions are really new Most draw on rich if localized cultural traditions that are shaped anew by the influence of technological change and international linkages With the widespread loss of belief in biblical mythology in the nineteenth century new mythologies based on science and elements derived from various non Western religious traditions emerged leading to the growth and popularity of new religions and cults

Essays on Culture, Religion and Rights Peter Jones, 2020-10-09 Culture and religion are overlapping phenomena cultures are normally understood to subsume religions and religions are very often central to cultures The two are particularly closely associated when we focus on the kinds of difference that generate issues for public policy The world has always been culturally and religiously diverse but recent movements of population have intensified the internal diversity of societies That increased diversity has presented societies with a number of pressing questions How much should cultural differences matter Can they and should they be treated impartially Should they receive equal recognition and what sort of recognition might that be Are cultural and religious differences at odds with human rights thinking or do universal human rights demand respect for those differences When the demands of a religious faith clash with those of a society's rules which should take precedence Should the religious have to endure whatever burdens their beliefs bring their way or should they be accommodated so that their religious faith does not become a source of social disadvantage Should they have to put up with unwelcome treatments of their beliefs or should they be protected from the offensive and the disrespectful These are some of the many issues examined in Culture Religion and Rights

Religion Malory Nye, 2003 Is religion the same as culture How does it fit with life in the modern world Do you have to believe to be part of one From televangelism in the American South to the wearing of hijab in Britain and Egypt from the rise of paganism to the aftermath of September 11th this accessible guide looks at the ways in which religion interacts with the everyday world in which we live A comprehensive introduction to the world of religion it includes religion and culture how power operates in religion gender issues the role of belief rituals and religious texts religion in the contemporary world Religion The Basics offers an invaluable and up to date overview for anyone wanting to find out more about this fascinating subject

Counseling Across Cultures Paul B. Pedersen, Walter J. Lonner, Juris G. Draguns, Joseph E. Trimble, Maria R. Scharron-del Rio, 2015-01-14 Offering a primary focus on North American cultural and ethnic diversity while addressing global questions and issues Counseling Across Cultures Seventh Edition draws on the expertise of 48 invited contributors to examine the cultural context of accurate assessment and appropriate interventions in counseling diverse clients The book's chapters highlight work with African Americans Asian Americans Latinos as American Indians refugees individuals in marginalized situations international students those with widely varying religious beliefs and many others Edited by pioneers in multicultural counseling this volume articulates the positive contributions that can be achieved when multicultural awareness is incorporated into the training of counselors A Trinitarian Theology of Religions

Gerald Robert McDermott, Harold A. Netland, 2014 How are Christians to think of non Christian religions How are they to relate to people who do not share their faith Two senior scholars survey the field of theology of religions from an evangelical perspective and propose fresh approaches to long debated questions such as salvation revelation the relationship between culture and religion conversion and social action Religion, Media and Culture: A Reader Gordon Lynch, Jolyon

Mitchell, Anna Strhan, 2012-02-13 This Reader brings together a selection of key writings to explore the relationship between religion media and cultures of everyday life It provides an overview of the main debates and developments in this growing field focusing on four major themes Religion spirituality and consumer culture Media and the transformation of religion The sacred senses visual material and audio culture Religion and the ethics of media and culture This collection is an invaluable resource for students academics and researchers wanting a deeper understanding of religion and contemporary culture

Faith, Reason, and Philosophy George F. McLean, 2000 Religions and Dialogue Wolfram Weiße, Katajun Amirpur, Anna Körs, Dörthe Vieregge, 2014 Responding to plurality is a demanding task Nonetheless it is one of the challenges that European countries are facing today Over the past decades the social and religious make up of Central Europe has changed and this has led to resentment and fears of mass immigration social disintegration and the emergence of parallel societies However we also find empirical proof that prejudice is lowest where there is direct contact Therefore there appears to be an increasing need for more dialogue in order to make the stranger less strange the unknown known the other no longer entirely other This is equally true in academic research There is a definite need yet research on questions of interreligious dialogue remains in its infancy throughout the various disciplines engaged in it The project Religion and Dialogue in Modern Societies ReDi that started at the Academy of World Religions at the Hamburg University in 2011 seeks to contribute to remedying this deficit Like the ReDi Project this book looks at dialogue from different perspectives It includes both theoretical and empirical approaches as well as a variety of theological viewpoints on a theology of plurality and dialogue from the perspective of different religions
