Religions East And West:

A History of Religion East and West Trevor Ling, 1969-01-15 The religious traditions of Asia and Europe the East and West of the title are sometimes regarded as being in sharp contrast with each other the one mystical the other prophetic Whenever their religions are not so contrasted they are usually treated in isolation from each other the religion of Israel Zoroastrianism Judaism Christianity Hinduism Jainism and Buddhism Dr Ling however stresses that there is considerable overlap and interpenetration between the two types and areas and that it is important to see the historical inter relation between these religions and to observe how during given periods of history there are parallel developments or significant divergences He covers the period 1500 B C to the present time providing an outline of the development of Asian and European religious traditions and institutions and discussing the social and economic factors involved in the development of religious traditions although he shows that such factors alone do not account for the religious life of man Dr Ling goes on to interpret the contemporary significance of these religions and their potential for the future life of humanity He suggests that the present stage of religious advance is characterised by open endedness towards the future not all religions exhibit this character but none has yet exhausted the possibilities of development This book is intended for use as an introduction to the study of religion Although reference is made in the text to sources of further information the book can be used without reference to them

Anthony C. Yu, 2005 This book pays critical homage to the eminent comparatist of Chinese and Western literature and religion Anthony C Yu of The University of Chicago Broadly comparative cross cultural and interdisciplinary in scope the volume consists of an introductory essay on Yu's scholarly career and thirteen additional essays on topics such as literary texts and traditions of varying provenance and periods ranging from ancient Greece medieval Europe and nineteenth and twentieth century England and America to China from the classical to modern periods The disciplines and areas of research that the essays draw into constructive engagement with one another include comparative literature religion and literature history of religions or comparative religion religion and social thought and the study of myth Eric Ziolkowski is Professor and Head of the Department of Religious Studies at Lafayette College Eastspirit: Transnational Spirituality and Religious Circulation in East and West

Jørn Borup, Marianne Qvortrup Fibiger, 2017-08-28 Mindfulness yoga Tantra Zen martial arts karma feng shui Ayurveda Eastern ideas and practices associated with Asian religions and spirituality have been accommodated to a global setting as both a spiritual religious and a broader cultural phenomenon Eastern spirituality is present in organized religions the spiritual New Age market arts literature media therapy and health care but also in public institutions such as schools and prisons Eastspirit Transnational Spirituality and Religious Circulation in East and West describes and analyses such concepts practices and traditions in their new Western and global contexts as well as in their transformed expressions and reappropriations in religious traditions and individualized spiritualities back in the East within the framework of mutual interaction and circulation regionally and globally Radhakrishnan, 1949 Five lectures four delivered in England and one in India

 Demmrich, Ulrich Riegel, 2020-11-06 The book discusses the theoretical and methodological challenges of an interculturally valid sociology of religion and provides insights into the autochthonous socio religious research in Muslim societies and Asian countries In this way it links discourses that have so far taken place primarily independently of one another The book goes back to a conference in Münster that questioned the Western foundation of empirical religiosity research which reaches its limits in the non American and non European context but also with regard to orthodox forms of faith in the Western context

Philosophy of Education in Dialogue between East and West Masamichi Ueno, 2023-07-31 This edited book opens a dialogue on theories and philosophies of education between the East and the West in the era of globalisation A great deal of research has been devoted to discussion of the ideas of Western theorists such as Plato Aristotle Locke Rousseau Kant Fichte Hegel Herbert Dewey Piaget and so on and their thoughts have had a tremendous impact on Japanese educational practices In addition the 21st century society has promoted international academic standardisation of knowledge skills and competencies for a knowledge based economy making great strides in educational development for globalisation On the other hand East Asia has retained its own unique insights and perspectives that cannot entirely be understood by Western philosophies of education alone The contributors to this volume offer the reader insights into how Japanese and East Asian theories and philosophies of education encounter those from the West by taking up heated and controversial issues such as education of caring morality nature catastrophe body and cultivation art language politics democracy and modernity The book will appeal to researchers teachers students policymakers and anyone interested in the theory and philosophy of education in the East or those who would like to reconsider education in a multicultural society This book won the Philosophy of Education Society of Australasia PESA Book Award for 2024
Eastern Influences on Western Philosophy A. L. Macfie, 2019-08-05 This Reader explores the extent of Oriental influence on European thought primarily in the period of the Enlightenment and the nineteenth century period of doubt and scepticism that followed it It is the first Reader to bring together in one place a series of specific historical and textual studies of Oriental influence upon European thinkers World Cultures and World Religions Hendrik Kraemer, 2003-06 The meeting of Christianity and the non Christian religions the impact of East on West and West on East the clash of cultures and the movement of divine and human forces that are changing the pattern of man's life form the basis of Kraemer's magisterial book He deals historically with the world situation as he sees it because history determines the mood in which East and West approach this coming dialogue In a series of masterly chapters Kraemer surveys the position of the world's religions deeply enmeshed in socio cultural systems that create both barriers to change but impetus towards evolution The dialogue with the grand elusive Eastern systems of humanist thinking demands searching thought fundamental re adjustment of methods and readiness to find fresh points of contact It will however vindicate the personal conception of the living God as manifest in Jesus Christ The key word of Oriental philosophies is Harmony glossing over the glaring disharmonies of man s life This is the heart of the dialogue that Kraemer discusses backed by his vast experience and learning Kraemer provides a formative and fundamental tool for Christians and all who are aspire to an intelligent and penetrative understanding of the religious and cultural life of the world Rudolf Otto and the Foundation of the History of Religions Yoshitsugu Sawai,2022-02-10 This book provides an up to date treatment of Rudolf Otto and his work placing him in the context of comparative religion theology and the philosophy of religion Yoshitsugu Sawai shows how Otto has three faces the Lutheran Theologian the Philosopher of Religion and the Comparative Religionist The book also shows how of these Otto saw himself primarily as a Lutheran Theologian and provides an account of Otto s engagement with India and the centrality that Hindu theology had on his thinking In Otto s theory of religion his well known concepts including wholly other and numinous constitute a multiple structure of meaning For example his concept of the wholly other das ganz Andere no doubt has the meaning of God in his Christian theological studies At the same time however from the perspective of comparative religion or the phenomenology of religion this same term semantically implies the ultimate reality of other religious traditions Brahman and God Isvara in Hindu religious tradition as well as God in Christianity Religious Voting in Western Democracies José Ramón Montero,Paolo Segatti,Kerman Calvo,2023-06-14 This book offers a systematic exploration of the role of religion and religiosity in electoral politics in Catholic Protestant and religiously mixed countries across Western Europe and in the United States The chapters approach the relationship between religion religiosity and electoral behaviour from a variety of different angles They include analyses of secularization trends comparative studies of the links between vote choice and religiosity longitudinal single country studies and a novel discussion of the theoretical underpinnings of the politicization of religion that provides a radically new framework for the analysis of the role of religiosity in election studies The volume shows that despite the expectations of secularization theory religiosity remains relevant when casting votes It also argues that the traditional notion of religious cleavage should be replaced with the more accurate idea of religious voting Chapters draw on National Election Studies data and comparative datasets such as European Values Studies EVS European Social Surveys ESS and European Election Studies EES to empirically test expectations regarding religious voting The results show that variations in religious voting are conditional on both the agency of political and ecclesiastical leaders when politicizing religious issues and the legacies of previous societal and political religious conflicts regardless of whether the original party system had a predominant religious cleavage Tillich and World Religions Robison B. James,2003 The importance of Paul Tillich for understanding not only Christian faith but all religious systems is still being realized Tillich is widely recognized as the theologian of the modern age or as many would have it the postmodern age For a new age of preoccupation with interreligious encounters wherein tolerance may be the watchword but the quest for truth and faith maintains Robison James reintroduces Tillich as an effective pedagogue for dealing with such encounters and for discovering in the clamor of so many noisy insistent religious systems a voice of truth James has reread Tillich with the specific purpose of discovering how we may deal with the many kinds of interreligious encounters that have been growing in frequency and importance Such encounters James points out range from reading about another religion to visiting the other's observances to dialogue with its members to simply puzzling over how my faith or nonfaith relates to this or that religion Tillich's lifelong existential encounter with religious systems and his perceptive appraisal of those systems James concludes can lead us to the best attitude for our own quest for a way of faith and life among so many ways clamoring for our attention Tillich's theology James suggests may best be understood as a synthesis of dialectics and paradox Further James contends the attitude most characteristic of Tillich's thought reciprocal inclusivism is to be recommended as the best attitude for our own quest for the word of truth among so many noisy voices Challenging Identities Peter Madsen, 2016-08-12 Identity is a keyword in a number of academic fields as well as in public debate and in politics During the last decades references to identity have proliferated yet there is no simple definition available that corresponds to the use of the notion in all contexts The significance of the notion depends on the conceptual or ideological constellation in which it takes part This volume on one hand demonstrates the role of notions of identity in a variety of European contexts and on the other hand highlights how there may be reasons to challenge the use of the term and corresponding social cultural and political practices Notions of national identity and national politics are challenged by European integration as well as by the increasing demographic heterogeneity due to migration and migrants experience conflicts of identification stemming from clashes between cultural heritage and the cultures of the new habitat European horizons frames of mind historical memories and expectations at the level of groups or communities at the national level and at the general European level are at odds Analyzing a series of issues in European countries from Turkey to Spain and from Scandinavia to the Balkans the contributions demonstrate uses and abuses of the notion of identity What is this thing called Philosophy of Religion? Elizabeth Burns, 2017-10-02 What is this thing called Philosophy of Religion grapples with the core topics studied on philosophy of religion undergraduate courses including the meaning of religious language including 20th century developments the nature of the Divine including divine power wisdom and action arguments for the existence of the Divine challenges to belief in the Divine including the problems of evil divine hiddenness and religious diversity believing without arguments arguments for life after death including reincarnation In addition to the in depth coverage of the key themes within the subject area Elizabeth Burns explores the topics from the perspectives of the five main world religions introducing students to the work of scholars from a variety of religious traditions and interpretations of belief What is this thing called Philosophy of Religion is the ideal introduction for those approaching the philosophy of religion for
