Gérard, 1986-01-01 The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages European language Writing in Sub Saharan Africa edited by Albert S Gérard falls into four wide ranging sections an overview of early contacts and colonial developments Under Western Eyes chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Panaficanism and Negritude a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles and finally Comparative Vistas sketching directions that future comparative study might explore An introductory essay stresses the millennia of writing in Africa side by side with a richly eloquent and artistic set of vernacular oral traditions written and oral traditions have become interwoven in adaptations of imported forms and linguistic innovations that challenge traditional high literary norms Gérard uses the mathematical concept of fuzzy sets to explain why the focus on Black Africa has led him to set aside for future analysis the literatures produced in North Africa which fall under the influence of Muslim civilization as well as the diasporic literatures of the New World Over sixty scholars from twenty two countries contribute specialized studies of creative writing by leading authors in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries such as Achebe Mphahlele Ngugi Senghor Soyinka and Tutuola Critical analyses are organized primarily around regions reflecting different colonial languages imposed through schools and other social institutions Some authors trace the adaptation of western genres others identify syncretism with folktales or myths The volumes are attentive to the heterogeneity of national literatures addressed to polyethnic and multilingual populations and they note the instrumental politics of language in newly independent states A closing chapter Tasks Ahead identifies areas for future scholars to explore African Film Josef Gugler,2003 In African Film Re imagining a Continent Josef Gugler provides an introduction to African cinema through an analysis of 15 films made by African filmmakers These directors set out to re image Africa their films offer Western viewers the opportunity to re imagine the continent and its people As a point of comparison two additional films on Africa one from Hollywood the other from apartheid South Africa serve to highlight African directors altogether different perspectives Gugler s interpretation considers the financial and technical difficulties of African film production the intended audiences in Africa and the West the constraints on distribution and the critical reception of the films African Rhythms Chin Ce,Charles Smith,2014-04-02 With new integrative and indigenous approaches to literary affairs the focus of this volume is on the influence of tradition in African writing Using the work of Chinua Achebe two scholars from outside Africa offer insight on oratorical devices in modern African fiction two chapters follow which by fusing traditional elements in transitional societies illustrate the cultural awareness that touch on the exalted role of the artist in their communities The post colonial rhetoric also continues with echoes of political commitment on modern poetry town issues in the discourse of Africas literary progress in the last decade The growing concern for African youth development is at the heart of a dialogue with childrens fiction writer Anezi Okoro Two scholars of Africa orature have written on the birth songs of Cameroonian women performers and the riddle contents of youth artists from Nigerian in a manner which recognises the immediate relevance of this cherished but neglected part of African literary aesthetics Mennonites and Post-Colonial African Studies John M.
