conducted in and around Glasgow Poetry Class and Symbolic Violence explores how working class readers engaged with made sense of and contested a sense of exclusion from contemporary poetry In doing so it sheds light on the symbolic enclosure of poetry on how that enclosure takes shape in the encounter between readers and poems but also on why poetry continues to matter Through these conversations and in further interviews with unpublished poets it reflects on the creative and expressive affordances of poetry on what can be done with poetry and what it can make possible Sociologists have had little to say about poetry as a distinctive esthetic practice Poetry Class and Symbolic Violence tries to break that silence and to make a start on constructing a critical sociology of poetry for today Memories Gathered from the Garden Delfina Silva-Cardillo, 2009-01-01 This book is a collection of gardening memories some humorous some poignant and some philosophical They are recollections by a columnist who appreciates that gardening is not only about cultivating plants but about the connection of the earth and insects and animals and people and the memories nurtured from those relationships
