Beginning in the 1920s Upper Manhattan became the center of an explosion of art writing and ideas that has since become legendary But what we now know as the Harlem Renaissance the first movement of international modern art led by African Americans extended far beyond New York City This volume reexamines the Harlem Renaissance as part of a global flowering of Black creativity with roots in the New Negro theories and aesthetics of Alain Locke its founding philosopher as well as the writings of W E B Du Bois Langston Hughes and Zora Neale Hurston Featuring artists such as Aaron Douglas Charles Henry Alston Augusta Savage and William H Johnson who synthesized the expressive figuration of the European avant garde with the aesthetics of African sculpture and folk art to render all aspects of African American city life this publication also includes works by lesser known contributors including Laura Wheeler Waring and Samuel Joseph Brown Jr who took a more classical approach to depicting Black subjects with dignity interiority and gravitas The works of New Negro artists active abroad are also examined in juxtaposition with those of their European and international African diasporan peers from Germaine Casse and Ronald Moody to Henri Matisse Edvard Munch and Pablo Picasso This reframing of a celebrated cultural phenomenon shows how the flow of ideas through Black artistic communities on both sides of the Atlantic contributed to international conversations around art race and identity while helping to define our notion of modernism Illuminating Luke: The Image in El Greco's Italy Andrew R. Casper,2015-06-13 Art and the Religious Image in El Greco's Italy is the first book length examination of the early career of one of the early modern period's most notoriously misunderstood figures Born around 1541 Domenikos Theotokopoulos began his career as an icon painter on the island of Crete He is best known under the name El Greco for the works he created while in Spain paintings that have provoked both rapt admiration and scornful disapproval since his death in 1614 But the nearly ten years he spent in Venice and Rome from 1567 to 1576 have remained underexplored until now Andrew Casper's examination of this period allows us to gain a proper understanding of El Greco's entire career and reveals much about the tumultuous environment for religious painting after the Council of Trent Art and the Religious Image in El Greco's Italy is a new book in the Art History Publication Initiative AHPI a collaborative grant from the Andrew W Mellon Foundation Thanks to the AHPI grant this book will be available in popular e book formats Reform before the Reformation: Vincenzo Querini and the Religious Renaissance in Italy Stephen David Bowd, 2021-10-11 An important aspect of the Italian Renaissance was church reform This book examines the nature of that reform especially in Venice Florence and Rome as viewed through the unpublished manuscripts of a Venetian nobleman who became a Camaldolese hermit Vincenzo Querini 1478 1514 This book sets Querini s personal journey to reform in the context of Venetian society as well as against the backdrop of political crisis cultural revival and monastic renaissance in Italy generally Querini s attempt to reform himself the Roman Catholic Church and the whole of Christendom are of interest to historians seeking to revise the chronology of early modern church reform since he employed a range of scriptural humanist conciliar monastic and mystical methods that had medieval antecedents but were also imitated by reformers after the Reformation

The Perfect Genre Kristin Phillips-Court, 2011 Through a combination of interpretive literary criticism art historical analysis and cultural and intellectual historiography Kristin Phillips Court offers detailed readings of individual plays juxtaposed with specific developments and achievements in the realm of painting Revealing more than historical connections between artists and poets such as Giorgione and Tasso Mantegna and Trissino or Michelangelo and Caro the author locates the history of Renaissance art and drama securely within the history of ideas The Development of the Italian Schools of Painting Raimond van Marle, 1928
