Rendezvous With The Wild The Boreal Forest:

Rendezvous with the Wild James Raffan, 2004 An inspiring tribute to a magnificent ecosystem The Boreal Forest is the largest single ecosystem on the North American continent and occupies one third of the total landmass of Canada It is as important to the planet as is the Amazon rain forest The Boreal Forest is a living breathing pollutant filtering six million square mile forest covering almost 11 percent of the planet s surface stretching from Newfoundland to Alaska The forest absorbs and filters a quarter billion gallons of water each day and contains a large portion of Earth s non frozen fresh water After sixty five million years of evolution this ecosystem is now threatened by development and pollution Rendezvous with the Wild is an impassioned celebration of the Boreal Forest and the rivers that run through it Fifty four noteworthy contributors from diverse walks of life provide Art and photography Essays stories and anecdotes Songs and poems Journal entries and memoirs Some contributors express their longtime love of the land Others tell of their first truly wild encounter with the vast northern woods The insight of paddlers and philosophers artists and firefighters conservationists and forest industry workers playwrights and scientists will entertain inform and persuade readers that this vital wilderness needs our attention and protection now Published in conjunction with the Canadian Parks and Wilderness Society s Boreal Rendezvous project

Northern British Columbia Canoe Trips Laurel Archer, 2011-06-01 This first volume of the guidebook series Northern British Columbia Canoe Trips describes in detail eight northern BC paddling routes over eleven rivers and is designed to provide canoeists with all the information they require to plan a river trip appropriate to their skill level and special interests Each route includes a summary of the main attractions of the trip where to start and where to finish along the river trip length in days and kilometres required maps suggestions about when to go star ratings for difficulty and for historical and recreational value Northern British Columbia Canoe Trips Volume One covers numerous routes never documented in any publication before including the Taku Jennings Omineca and Gataga rivers among others as well as more well known favourites such as Fort Nelson and the Dease The book provides paddlers of all types with a variety of river trips to choose from based on comprehensive and comparative information as well as detailed and specific navigational notes to aid them along their chosen route

Canoe Nation Bruce Erickson, 2013-06-15 More than an ancient means of transportation and trade the canoe has come to be a symbol of Canada itself In Canoe Nation Bruce Erickson argues that the canoe s sentimental power has come about through a set of narratives that attempt to legitimize a particular vision of Canada that overvalues the nation s connection to nature From Alexander Mackenzie to Grey Owl to Pierre Elliott Trudeau the canoe authenticates Canada s reputation as a tolerant environmentalist nation even when there is abundant evidence to the contrary Ultimately the stories we tell about the canoe need to be understood as moments in the ever contested field of cultural politics

Temperate Forest Habitats Barbara Taylor, 2006-12-15 Introduces the plants and animals that live in temperate forests around the world showing how their physical characteristics and behaviors help form an ecosystem

Paper Trails Mandy Haggith, 2008-09-04 From the medical sheets in maternity wards to our death certificates paper charts the course of our lives Paradoxically it spreads ideas and learning as well as thousands of tons of junk mail yet our dependence on this material is damaging our planet and creating mountains of unnecessary waste Mandy Haggith explores our society's obsession with paper from its invention in China 2000 years ago to the millions of tonnes we now use every year Following the paper trail around the world Mandy discovers the human stories of those affected by the industry from a Russian ecologist a Finnish logger and Indonesian tribal leaders to a Canadian publisher and a Vietnamese paper technologist In the process she uncovers the paper industry's dirtiest secrets and sets out simple practical steps we can take to minimise our own personal use of 20 tonnes of paper over our lifetime

Mountain Tourism Harold Richins, John Hull, 2016-02-19 Mountains have long held an appeal for people around the world This book focusses on the diversity of perspectives interaction and role of tourism within these areas Providing a vital update to the current literature it considers the interdisciplinary context of communities the creation of mountain tourism experiences and the impacts tourism has on these environments Including authors from Europe Asia Pacific and North America the development planning and governance issues are also covered
