

Forest Walk

It was early upon a Saturday morning
In the beginnings of spring
An early April walk undertaken
The journey made to the local woods
A forest walk with the dogs
Set in the calm and splendor
The sun slowly burnt it's way
Through the late evenings mist
Every picture a perfect postcard

The serenity and beauty found
And a walk undertaken with pleasure
Ode to the joy of mother nature

Long Walks In The Afternoon Poems:

Long Walks in the Afternoon Margaret Gibson, 1982-11-01 With a quiet eloquence the poems in Long Walks in the Afternoon follow the deep imagination's long tap into the dark inward toward the still and radiant center of the self But Margaret Gibson's poetry is not self-serving or isolationist She writes out of the firm conviction that our personal griefs held energies that can move is to reach beyond ourselves and join with others in common struggle Beginning with poems that struggle against illusion egotism and emptiness the collection progresses to poems that challenge violence social violence against women political violence in east Asia and Chile and in Radiation the violence that still reverberates from the bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki We made the scars and the radiant air We made people invisible as numbers We did this In a final section the desire to know and claim the self is transformed in a sequence of elegies into the passion to lose myself in work and in love and in the world to be no one The meditative mood of Gibson's poems becomes a movement against isolation a wrestle with our roots and common bonds and a way of challenging the self to be more openly aligned with creative forces and to speak out against dishonesty injustice chaos and war I Love the Beach, Poetry, Long Walks, Night Runs, Riding My Bike, Sunsets and Smelling My Own Feet... Edwin Estuya, 2011-03-30 this is a summary of his daily thoughts which he wrote every night He loves the beach poetry long walks night runs riding his bike sunsets and smelling his own feet though this is not a perfect commercial grade book this is a story of a person's life a true story of his wanderings his convictions his passions his dreams his frustrations his love yes these thoughts come from his heart this is his story of his road to greatness if there's ever one for him a true story to tell the whole world and the ones left behind Made Thing: an Anthology of Contemporary Southern Poetry, 2nd Ed (p) Leon Stokesbury, 1999 The second edition features twelve new poets as well as new work by Donald Justice T R Hummer Dave Smith Pattiann Rogers Andrew Hudgins Henry Taylor Gerald Barrax Rodney Jones and others Among the new additions are Mark Jarman Cathy Smith Bowers and Charlie Smith Many teachers realize that the best way to get their students to relate to poetry is to show them poems that contain landscapes and subjects they understand and can identify with Leon Stokesbury has put together a richly varied collection used in classrooms not only in the South but all over the country as a means of studying the important influence of southern poetry on American literature With the publication of the second edition of The Made Thing Stokesbury has marked the end of the twentieth century and the rise to prominence of southern writers This collection serves as a substantial sampling of poets whose works span more than five decades and who explore the rich personal and cultural history that extends beyond the boundaries of the South Southern Writers Joseph M.
