Long Way Home The Real People:

The Long Way Home Alexander Grant, 2025-11-08 When Ethan Harper's marriage ends he retreats to a quiet seaside town hoping to rediscover the version of himself he's long forgotten. The ocean is meant to be his refuge until he meets Leo, a young barista whose warmth and easy charm make the world start to feel alive again. What begins as simple conversation turns into something deeper, a connection that both soothes and unsettles him. With every lingering glance and late afternoon walk along the pier, Ethan finds himself pulled toward a truth he's spent a lifetime avoiding. Set against the golden light of a coastal town where time seems to stand still, The Long Way Home is a slow burn, age gap love story about rediscovery, second chances, and the kind of attraction that feels like coming up for air after years underwater. Seven years earlier, sensing the rising tide against her people, Gisela Wolff and her family flee Germany aboard the passenger ship St. Louis, bound for Havana, Cuba. Gisela meets Sam Shapiro, the love of her life on board, but the ship is eventually denied safe harbor and sent back to Europe. This begins Gisela's perilous journey of exile and survival, made possible only by the kindness and courage of a series of strangers she meets along the way, including one man who will change the course of her life. The Long Way Home Madison

At forty-eight, she finds that the art of dating isn't like it used to be. With the encouragement of her mother and her children, Ellen tests out the waters of internet dating and in the process learns to laugh again.
