

Longmans English Larousse

Biography, French, the study of a person's life, from birth to death, usually written by a biographer. The word is derived from the Greek bios (life) and grapho (to write). The first biographies were written by ancient Greek and Roman writers. The modern biography is a more detailed and systematic account of a person's life, often based on research and the use of primary sources. It can cover a wide range of subjects, from the lives of kings and queens to those of ordinary people. The biography is a popular form of literature, and many famous biographies have been written in recent years.
