Commonwealth Office FCO from its efforts to promote a stronger bilateral relationship between the UK and Brazil The rise of Brazil as a world power represents an opportunity for the UK not a threat and the FCO is correct to identify Brazil's potential to be a good news story for the UK The UK has taken the correct preliminary steps to strengthen the bilateral relationship The UK's support for permanent Brazilian membership of the UN Security Council as part of a wider UN reform is to be particularly welcomed Brazil as a developing democratic country can play a vital role in representing the global South The Government must maintain its efforts in this area As Brazil increasingly accepts the global leadership role that its growing economy will bring it will play a key role in the promotion of UK national interests such as energy security the trade in narcotics and the maintenance of the environment while the commercial opportunity that Brazil represents is a vital plank of the Government's ambition to increase trade overseas The turning away of a Royal Navy vessel is a serious matter The committee regrets that Brazil felt the need to refuse docking permission to HMS Clyde in January this year and further regrets a general hardening of Brazil's position towards the Falklands The committee is pressing for answers from the FCO as to how this situation was allowed to develop
