In Looking Back One Learns to See: Marcel Proust and Photography Mary Bergstein, 2014-03-01 Marcel Proust offered the twentieth century a new psychology of memory and seeing His novel In Search of Lost Time was written in the modern age of photography and art history In Looking Back One Learns to See Marcel Proust and Photography is an intellectual adventure that brings to light Proust's visual imagination his visual metaphors and his photographic resources and imaginings The book features over 90 illustrations Mary Bergstein highlights various kinds of photography daguerreotypes stereoscopic cards cartes de visite postcards book illustrations and other photographic mediums Portraiture medical photography spirit photography architectural photography Orientalism ethnographic photography and fin de siècle studies of Botticelli Leonardo and Vermeer are considered in terms of Proust's life and work The net is cast wide and each image under discussion has been researched with subtle attention to art literature and cultural history This scholarly study in literature and visual culture will be a delight too for general readers who love photography or Proust Mary Bergstein is professor of History of Art and Visual Culture at the Rhode Island School of Design She won the 2012 Courage to Dream book prize from the American Psychoanalytic Association for Mirrors of Memory Freud Photography and the History of Art Cornell 2010 She has published numerous books and articles on art and visual culture from Italian Renaissance sculpture to contemporary photography

Why Cities Look the Way They Do Richard J. Williams, 2019-08-08 We tend to think cities look the way they do because of the conscious work of architects planners and builders But what if the look of cities had less to do with design and more to do with social cultural financial and political processes and the way ordinary citizens interact with them What if the city is a process as much as a design Richard J Williams takes the moment construction is finished as a beginning tracing the myriad processes that produce the look of the contemporary global city This book is the story of dramatic but unforeseen urban sights how financial capital spawns empty towering skyscrapers and hollowed out ghettos how the zoning of once illicit sexual practices in marginal areas of the city results in the reinvention of culturally vibrant gay villages how abandoned factories have been repurposed as creative hubs in a precarious postindustrial economy It is also the story of how popular urban clichés and the fictional portrayal of cities powerfully shape the way we read and see the bricks concrete and glass that surround us Thought provoking and original Why Cities Look the Way They Do will appeal to anyone who wants to understand the contemporary city shedding new light on humanity's greatest collective invention

Urban Discourses of Crisis, Resilience, and Resistance Eric Prieto, Liam Langan, Anni Lappela, 2025-07-11 This volume seeks to address questions of urban crisis from an interdisciplinary perspective that foregrounds the particular roles that literature and the creative arts play in both conceptualizing and addressing the multiple challenges facing cities Noting that the successive crises of recent years from the 2008 recession to COVID 19 seem to have put an end to the triumphalist tone of much urban writing in the 1990s this book argues that the current historical moment calls for a different kind of urban discourse focused on reassessment and regrouping This edited collection features a variety of different approaches including close readings of literary works interviews essays in cultural and architectural history and sociological ethnographic and urban planning studies These chapters explore a range of challenges currently faced by cities and foreground the search for solutions
