Looking The Other Way The Indonesian Bond Partne:

Intellectual Citizenship and the Problem of Incarnation Peter Eglin, 2012-11-08 Who has the right to know asks Jean Francois Lyotard Who has the right to eat asks Peter Madaka Wanyama This book asks what does it mean to be a responsible academic in a northern university given the incarnate connections between the university's operations and death and suffering elsewhere Through studies of the neoliberal university in Ontario the imperial university in relation to East Timor the chauvinist university in relation to El Salvador and the gendered university in relation to the Montreal Massacre the author challenges himself and the reader to practice intellectual citizenship everywhere from the classroom to the university commons to the street Peter Eglin argues that the moral imperative to do so derives from the concept of incarnation Here the idea of incarnation is removed from its Christian context and replaced with a political economic interpretation of the embodiment of exploited labor This embodiment is presented through the material goods that link the many's compromised right to eat with the privileged few's right to know

Challenge the Strong Wind David Webster, 2020-03-01 In 1975 Indonesian forces overran East Timor just days after it declared independence from Portugal Canadian officials knew the invasion was coming and endorsed Indonesian rule in the ensuing occupation Challenge the Strong Wind recounts the evolution of Canadian government policy toward East Timor from 1975 to its 1999 independence vote During this time Canadian civil society groups and NGOs worked in support of Timorese independence activists by promoting an alternative Canadian foreign policy that focused on self determination and human rights After following the lead of key pro Indonesian allies in the 1970s and 80s Ottawa eventually yielded to pressure from these NGOs and pushed like minded countries to join it in supporting Timorese self rule David Webster draws on previously untapped government and non government archival sources to demonstrate that a clear eyed view of international history must include both state and non state perspectives The East Timor conflict serves as a model of multilevel dialogue citizen diplomacy and novel approaches to resolving complex disputes

Fire and the Full Moon David Webster, 2010-01-01 The history of Canada's postwar foreign policy is dominated by Cold War narratives the Gouzenko Affair UN peacekeeping missions and the Cuban Missile Crisis By contrast the story of Canada's response to decolonization in the Global South is less well known Fire and the Full Moon explores Canadian Indonesian relations to determine whether Canada's postwar foreign policy was guided by an overarching set of principles Canada a loyal member of the Western alliance wanted developing countries to follow a non revolutionary model of decolonization and paid little attention to violations of human rights Webster's reassessment of Canada's foreign policy objectives in Indonesia and of its own national image will appeal to students of diplomatic history interested in Asia and the developing world

Canada Among Nations, 2008 Robert Bothwell, Jean Daudelin, 2009-03-17 The editors take a critical look at the now almost mainstream declinist thesis and at the continued relevance of Canada's relationships with its principal allies the United Kingdom France and the United States Contributors discuss a broad range of themes including the weight of a changing identity in the evolution of the country's foreign policy the fate of Canadian diplomacy as a profession the often complicated relationship between foreign and trade policies the impact of immigration and refugee procedures on foreign policy and the evolving understanding of development and defence as components of Canada's foreign policy Bound by Power Jeffery Klaehn, 2006 Examines how power operates within the world and the various costs which can ensue from dissent Is Oil Thicker Than Blood? George J. Aditjondro, 1999 Knowledge about Timor's abundant offshore and onshore oil and gas reserves was the main economic rationale for Indonesia's annexation of East Timor and the Western nations' tacit approval of this gross violation of human rights This book outlines Timor's oil history and its underlying role in the present Timor conflict and the U.S. oil interests in this conflict In conclusion the social and environmental impact of those oil and gas exploration and production activities and its implications for an independent East Timor nation state are discussed followed by some recommendations for action Tok Blong Pasifik, 1997 Looking the Other Way Malia Southard, South Pacific Peoples Foundation of Canada, 1997 ASEAN+3 Bond Market Guide 2017 Indonesia Asian Development Bank, 2017-08-01 ASEAN 3 Bond Market Guide is a comprehensive explanation of the region's bond markets It provides information such as the history legal and regulatory framework specific characteristics of the market trading and transaction including settlement systems and other relevant information The Bond Market Guide 2017 for Indonesia is an outcome of the support and contributions of ASEAN 3 Bond Market Forum members and experts particularly from Indonesia Feminism Dennis S. Erasga, Michael Eduard L. Labayandoy, 2023-12-13 By focusing on new materiality this edited volume offers new optics on the affordance of women's physical and objective body The interdisciplinary essays assembled in the book interrogate the concepts of corporeality and embodiment by interpreting them as material enactivism of a woman's physical body geared toward performance and demonstration respectively The book situates body bodily movements as agentic initiatives to make sense of women's bodies in motion Although flesh in its constitution a woman's body is the very material entity that does not only perform what it is expected to do for its many audiences as in spectacle but also its corporeality imputes a demonstrative kinetics hitherto associated with the objective body in recent social theorizing The Geopolitics of Religious Soft Power Peter Mandaville, 2023 The Geopolitics of Religious Soft Power represents the first globally comparative study of the varying ways in which states incorporate religion and religious outreach into their external relations Each chapter demonstrates how the history religious culture and geopolitical orientation of a particular country determines its capacity for using religion as part of a soft power strategy while simultaneously dictating the nature and shape of its religious outreach activities its intended audiences and likelihood of success or impact Indonesia and the Asian Development Bank Peter McCawley, 2020-06-01 This publication is a history of the partnership between Indonesia and the Asian Development Bank ADB When Indonesia became a founding member of the bank in 1966 the country faced daunting challenges In the five decades that passed both Indonesia and ADB have evolved in remarkable ways Indonesia developed rapidly through the late 1990s yet faced a difficult time of adjustment after the Asian financial crisis of 1997 1998 The country has since resumed growth in the last decade For its part ADB has widened its activities in Indonesia transforming from a project oriented bank into a broad based development institution This effective partnership reflects Indonesia s success in working with the international community in the past 50 years Netizenship, Activism and Online Community Transformation in Indonesia Ario Seto, 2017-09-12 Focusing on the concept of prudence as ethical groundwork for digital practices and activism this book considers digital media expediency and populism as conflicting required experiences that lead digital citizens to discover activism It highlights the importance of digital citizens experience of being in the digital sphere and encourages the reader to look at the dynamics of online movement as a part of a community s search for significance between the online and offline realms of activism Based on ethnographic research about the largest Indonesian online community Kaskus this book uses Indonesian digital citizenship as an example of online activism in a post authoritarian state with media viewed as a tool for democratic advancement and a catalyst for social movements among activists students and citizens both in Indonesia and further afield Set at the intersection of media anthropology sociology Asian studies and Citizenship studies this book considers the shape and future of digital democracy in post authoritarian state Indonesia's Engagement with Africa Christophe Dorigné-Thomson, 2023-11-14 This book provides a comprehensive study of Indonesia s contemporary foreign policy engagement with Africa highlighting the archipelago s recent reawakening to the continent It explores thoughts on Afro Asian relations in general and their future in the changing geopolitical context It provides a vision of Indonesia s foreign policy and political situation at the highest level of leadership It places Indonesia in a multi comparison context which helps us reconsider Indonesia today and widens our views on Indonesia s needs to be better known through new perspectives and voices able to better convey the realities of its polity aspirations and complexities It proposes through the study of Indonesia s African endeavour to better grasp the contemporary Indonesian Zeitgeist and Weltanschauung It also analyses the political power alliance formed by President Jokowi and former General Luhut Binsar Pandjaitan leading a state led development through state capitalism mobilising State Owned Enterprises SOEs The Bandung Conference host aspires to project its domestic development achievements towards Africa focusing on Africa for Africa and not merely as part of a sometimes abstract Afro Asian discourse Nonetheless Afro Asianism continues to be mobilised to facilitate market penetration and serve domestic interests The book shows how Indonesia s foreign policy toward Africa relates to domestic political contestation and consolidation political legacy and commodity based industrial policy and Chinese and China in Africa networks and ideational influence foremost among other networks of influence in the Jokowi era The book also underlines how Indonesia s knowledge production and academic deficiencies negatively impact its foreign policy capabilities notably as a potential robust alternative partner for Africa It will be beneficial for students academicians researchers and diplomats Islam, Women's Sexuality and Patriarchy in Indonesia Irma Riyani, 2020-11-26 This book explores the intimate marital relationships of Indonesian Muslim married women As well as describing and analysing their sexual relationships the book also investigates how Islam influences discourses of sexuality in Indonesia and in particular how Islamic teachings affect Muslim married women s perceptions and behaviour in their sexual relationships with their husbands Based on extensive original research the book reveals that Muslim women perceive marriage as a social cultural and religious obligation that they need to fulfil that they realise that finding an ideal marriage partner is complicated with some having the opportunity for a long courtship and others barely knowing their partner prior to marriage and that there is a strong tendency with some exceptions for women to consider a sexual relationship in marriage as their duty and their husband s right Religious and cultural discourses justify and support this view and consider refusal a sin dosa or taboo pamali Both discourses emphasise obedience towards husbands in marriage

Historical Dictionary of Indonesia Audrey Kahin, 2015-10-29 A wide flung archipelago lying between the Pacific and Indian Oceans Indonesia is the world s most populous Islamic country For over two thousand years it was a crossroads on the major trading route between China and India but it was not brought together into a single entity until the Dutch extended their rule throughout the Netherlands East Indies in the early part of the 20th century Declaring its independence from the Dutch in 1945 the Republic of Indonesia was ruled by only two regimes over the next half century Throughout the years the country has continued to be dogged by an inefficient bureaucracy and by perpetual problems of corruption However since 2004 Indonesia has successfully carried out four direct elections for president together with an equal number of elections for legislative bodies at all levels of government and has finally in 2014 elected a president with no ties to either the military or to the previous authoritarian power structure This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Indonesia contains a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 900 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Indonesia

Encyclopedia of Women and Islamic Cultures Suad Joseph, Afsāna Naǧmābādī, 2003 Family Law and Politics Volume II of the Encyclopedia of Women Islamic Cultures brings together over 360 entries on women family law politics and Islamic cultures around the world

Indonesia International Monetary Fund. Asia and Pacific Dept, 2013-12-15 This 2013 Article IV Consultation highlights that in recent years the Indonesian economy has benefited from a supportive global economic environment namely in the form of a rise in commodity prices and strong growth in emerging markets However these conditions have been less supportive lately resulting in slowing export growth Combined with rising net oil and gas imports the current account shifted into a deficit in 2012 Nonetheless real GDP growth in 2012 remained strong at 6.14 percent aided by domestic conditions while inflationary pressures stayed low Going forward the near term outlook reflects the more challenging global environment that Indonesia faces put an end to the crude forms of centralised authoritarianism and economic protectionism that allowed large Chinese conglomerates to dominate Indonesia's private sector. Contrary to all expectations, most of the major capitalist groups, though damaged considerably by the Asian Crisis, managed to cope with the ensuing monumental political and economic changes and now thrive again, albeit within a new democratic environment. In this book, Christian Chua assesses the state of capital before, during, and after the financial and political crisis of 1997-1998 and analyses the changing relationships between business and the state in Indonesia. Using a distinct perspective that combines cultural and structural approaches on Chinese big business, with exclusive material derived from interviews with some of Indonesia's major business leaders, Chua identifies the strategies employed by tycoons to adapt their corporations to the post-authoritarian regime and provides a unique insight into how state-business relationships in Indonesia have evolved since the crisis. Chinese Big Business in Indonesia is the first major analysis of capital in Indonesia since the fall of Soeharto and will be of interest to graduate students and scholars of political economy, political sociology, economics, and business administration, as well as to practitioners having to do with Southeast Asian business and politics.

The Report: Indonesia 2017 Oxford Business Group, 2016-11-10. Although Chinese and global demand, low commodity prices, and rising wages will continue to challenge trade growth in 2016, Indonesia remains on a positive trajectory. Rising domestic demand, increasing liberalization measures, improvements to the investment climate, and a shift towards value-added production will bolster both exports and investment. At the same time, new trade agreements with the world's largest economies look set to drive long-term trade expansion. Prudent government policy, an ambitious reform agenda, and rising recognition of the role of the private sector should help to keep investment and trade stable in 2016. And despite exports and growth having dipped in recent years, the country is well positioned to make the crucible transformation from a consumption to investment-based economy.
