Christian Barth, 2020-01-21 Attorney and true crime writer examines the unsolved 1969 murders of two female college students whose bodies were left off the Garden State Parkway In the early hours of May 30 1969 the brutally stabbed bodies of two nineteen year old friends Elizabeth Perry and Susan Davis were dumped near Ocean City New Jersey This is the story of their case Among the numerous suspects author and attorney Christian Barth identifies are infamous serial killers Ted Bundy and Gerald Eugene Stano who were living within an hour's drive from the murder scene The killers also resided next to one another on Florida's Death Row and indirectly confessed to the double homicide A culmination of more than nine years of research Barth's book is compiled from multiple sources including interviews with retired New Jersey State Police detectives law enforcement officials from other jurisdictions federal agents possible witnesses victim family members as well as information gathered from FBI case files letters journals libraries newspaper articles and university archives In scintillating detail Barth presents the case including previously undisclosed information surrounding these brutal murders as well as an examination of recent technological advancements in crime scene analysis and FBI serial killer profiling that could help identify the killer When all is said and done the reader is asked to consider Why hasn't this cold case been solved The definitive book on the case of the coeds murdered on the Garden State Parkway Barth has done a remarkable job of gathering all of the information and putting it into a readable narrative William Kelley Jersey Shore Nightbeat John Caspar Wild John William Reps, 2006 John Caspar Wild painter and lithographer produced some of the earliest known depictions of urban America in the nineteenth century This heavily illustrated book presents artist Wild's paintings and prints and a catalogue raisonné identifies all of his known works Provided by publisher New American Paintings, 2007 Art in America, 2003 Art in America Frank Jewett Mather, Frederic Fairchild Sherman, 2005-08 Tobacco Charles A. Foster, 1997 An engaging overview of the young American republic It offers a new look at old Philadelphia fresh and informative insights for scholars in American history and culture and a delightful collection for connoisseurs of early nineteenth century art Manayunk Thom Nickels, 2001-06-06 Manayunk the Native American word for place where we drink was first explored by Dutch and English surveyors in the late seventeenth century These early explorers found the area which expands upward from the banks of the Schuylkill River to be quite fascinating In later years Manayunk's rolling hills slanting lawns and clusters of houses mills and church spires stood out and made the neighborhood a unique section of Philadelphia reminiscent of Italy or southern France

Manayunk explores the growth of the region from a river town with a population of sixty to its rise as the Manchester of America akin to the British town of the same name A manufacturing mecca noted for its mills along its immigrant dug canal Manayunk has an indomitable spirit that helped the town triumph over floods and the Depression of 1929 A place of fascinating oddities one of the first buildings in Manayunk was a gin mill Manayunk looks at the building of the grand canal which in 1825 was filled with arks and square toed flat bottomed boats In the summer the canal became a roughshod rendition of Venice with its long boats pointed at both ends carrying grains and produce while being poled up the canal by Philadelphia gondoliers Also illustrated is the construction of the elevated Reading Railroad line and the disarray this engineering feat brought to the town Notable citizens such as Capt John Towers the Father of Manayunk members of the Levering family Samuel Streeper Keely Seville Schofield James Milligan and William B Nickels are also profiled The Photographic Journal of America ... ,1891 Fodor's Philadelphia and the Pennsylvania Dutch Country Fodor's,2007-12-04 Describes hotels historic sites museums events shopping areas and night life in Philadelphia and looks at the highlights of the surrounding area including Brandywine Valley Bucks County Lancaster County and Valley Forge A Cinema Without Walls Timothy Corrigan,1991 Corrigan argues that in the past 25 years the increased conglomerization of film production distribution companies and the rise of VCR satellite and cable television technologies have altered the way films are made and how we view them The result is a growing internationalization of national cinema cultures and an increasing fragmentation of the audience Video has reduced the movie to private and domestic performance At the same time audiences are bombarded with a surfeit of images that leaves them with a battered sense of their place in history and culture Corrigan notes that combined with what many critics have recognized as the growing incoherence in film texts these facts make it more meaningful to discuss films not as texts but as multiple cultural and commercial processes constructed by increasingly specialized audiences ISBN 0 8135 1667 6 36 00
