Manifesto For Literary Studies:

A Manifesto for Literary Studies Marjorie Garber, 2003 In these provocative essays Marjorie Garber addresses the significance of the study of literature as it pertains directly to the human experience and its capacity to address big public questions

Manifestos for History Sue Morgan, Keith Jenkins, Alun Munslow, 2007-09-12 Written by some of the world's leading historians and theorists of history Manifestos for History draws together a series of manifestos that address the question of what kinds of histories we ought to be considering and making in and for the twenty first century With a foreword by Joanna Bourke and an afterword by Hayden White these manifestos critical innovative reflexive inspirational are absolutely essential reading not just for those embarking on the study of history but for all those who would think seriously about the nature of history in its present and possible future forms This collection establishes a benchmark for all future considerations upon the discourse of history

A Taytsh Manifesto Saul Noam Zaritt, 2024-10-01 A Taytsh Manifesto calls for a translational paradigm for Yiddish studies and for the study of modern Jewish culture Saul Noam Zaritt calls for a shift in vocabulary from Yiddish to taytsh in order to promote reading strategies that account for the ways texts named as Jewish move between languages and cultures Yiddish a moniker that became dominant only in the early twentieth century means Jewish and thus marks the language with a single identity of and for a Jewish collective In contrast this book calls attention to an earlier and at one time more common name for the language taytsh which initially means German By using the term taytsh speakers indicated that they were indeed speaking a Germanic language a language that was not entirely their own In time when the word shifted to a verb taytshn it came to mean the act of translation To write or speak in Yiddish is thus to render into taytsh and inhabit the gap between languages A Taytsh Manifesto highlights the cultural porousness that inheres in taytsh and deploys the term as a paradigm that can be applied to a host of modern Jewish cultural formations The book reads three corpora in modern Yiddish culture through the lens of translation Yiddish pulp fiction also known as shund trash the genre of the Yiddish monologue as authored by Sholem Aleichem and other prominent Yiddish writers and the persistence of Yiddish as a language of vulgarity in contemporary U S culture Together these examples help revise current histories of Yiddish while demonstrating the need for new vocabularies to account for the multidirectionality of Jewish culture A Taytsh Manifesto develops a model for identifying in Yiddish and beyond how cultures intertwine how they become implicated in world systems and empire and how they might escape such limiting and oppressive structures

The Romantic Manifesto Larry H. Peer, 1988 The vexed question of what the Romantics themselves said about Romanticism has been approached in a number of different ways but their major public declarations have never been gathered together Indeed with the exception of a few of these such as Stendhal's Racine et Shakespeare this body of evidence has been unavailable to the English speaking audience Many of these manifestos are translated here for the first time the remaining are newly translated for this collection Taken together they show Romanticism as a coherent and unified movement appearing in pulses throughout Eastern and Western Europe in the early nineteenth century with a continual spiritual kinship to Schlegelian origins Caribbean Literature in Transition, 1920-1970: Volume 2 Raphael Dalleo, Curdella Forbes, 2021-01-14 The years between the 1920s and 1970s are key for the development of Caribbean literature producing the founding canonical literary texts of the Anglophone Caribbean This volume features essays by major scholars as well as emerging voices revisiting important moments from that era to open up new perspectives Caribbean contributions to the Harlem Renaissance to the Windrush generation publishing in England after World War II and to the regional reverberations of the Cuban Revolution all feature prominently in this story At the same time we uncover lesser known stories of writers publishing in regional newspapers and journals of pioneering women writers and of exchanges with Canada and the African continent From major writers like Derek Walcott V S Naipaul George Lamming and Jean Rhys to recently recuperated figures like Eric Walrond Una Marson Sylvia Wynter and Ismith Khan this volume sets a course for the future study of Caribbean literature Poetry of the Revolution Martin Puchner, 2006 Martin Puchner tells the story of political and artistic upheavals through the political manifestos of the 19th and 20th centuries He argues that the manifesto was the genre through which modern culture articulated its revolutionary ambitions and desires The European Avant-Garde - A Hundred Years Later, 2024-01-08 The title of this book The European Avant Garde A Hundred Years Later implies the European avant garde took place a century ago that it is a thing of the past However it does not aim to consolidate this position but to question it It addresses temporality as the central dimension related to the notion of the avant garde The book brings forth original revisions of the theories of the avant garde the works of the avant garde the idea of the avant garde as being the vanguard the leading force of change It addresses the returning of the avant garde during the twentieth century and today

Thinking with Literature Terence Cave, 2016 Thinking with Literature offers a succinct introduction to a cognitive literary criticism Broad in scope but focusing on a particular cluster of approaches it aims to induce a change of perspective in the reader Arab Film and Video Manifestos Kay Dickinson, 2018-11-30 Arab Film and Video Manifestos presents in their entirety five key documents that have fundamentally shaken up and helped change the face of image culture in the Middle East and beyond The book collects together for the first time these influential collectively written calls and directives that span a fifty year period and hail from a range of different countries Each urges a radical rethinking of film and video's role in culture its relation to politics and its potential to instigate profound change Kay Dickinson carefully positions the manifestos within their broader socio historical contexts and provides supplementary reading and viewing suggestions for readers who cannot access Arabic language sources The Language of Mass Shooter Manifestos Emily Powell, 2025-05-30 Bringing together scholarship from corpus linguistics forensic linguistics and criminology this book offers a nuanced exploration of moral agency in the pre crime narratives of offenders The volume seeks to complement existing literature in forensic linguistics which often explore criminal narratives elicited after the crime with the benefit of hindsight by examining texts written in the midst of events Analyses draw on a corpus of over 200 000 words of manifestos and diaries written by four lone attackers who perpetrated mass shootings and put together accounts of their lives and the preparation for their crimes Incorporating stylistic approaches to non fiction texts with those from corpus linguistics Powell explores the ways in which these texts influence perpetrators and future offenders and more broadly the role of narrative as it relates to harmful actions A closing section includes a taxonomy of moral agency which may serve as the foundation for future research on understanding agency responsibility and offending from a linguistic perspective This book will be of interest to scholars in forensic linguistics corpus linguistics stylistics and criminology
