Mannerism And Baroque In Seventeenth Century French Poetry The Example Of Tristan Lhermite:

North Carolina Studies in the Romance Languages and Literatures, 1973 Mannerism and Baroque in Seventeenth-century French Poetry James Crenshaw Shepard, 2001 This book examines mannerism and baroque in the poetry of Tristan L. Hermite a leading lyric poet of the seventeenth century After presenting a history of scholarship on both the mannerist and baroque styles James Shepard offers a definition of each as it applies to seventeenth century lyric poetry He then turns to Tristan's works examining the poems contained in the Plaintes d'Acante et autres ouvrages Les Amours La Lyre and the Vers heroïques his religious poetry La Renomme and his recently discovered poems Shepard reveals Tristan's amatory poetry to be mannerist and his heroic and religious poetry to be baroque Many poems however contain elements of both styles This supports Frank J. Warnke's theory that Baroque is the period style with mannerism and baroque being two aspects of the period Shepard also uncovers a baroque *domp*te style the toned down baroque that Helmut Hatzfeld and others argue characterized French classicism in some of Tristan's heroic and religious poetry Moderating Masculinity in Early Modern Culture Todd W. Reeser, 2006 Moderating Masculinity in Early Modern Culture proposes a definition of gender based on a ternary model in which moderation and masculinity are inextricably linked Like the Aristotelian virtue of moderation which requires the presence of excess a The Politics of Farce in Contemporary Spanish American Theatre Priscilla Meléndez, 2006 The Politics of Farce in Contemporary Spanish American Theatre is the first book length study of the role of farce in Spanish American theatre Spanish American playwrights have realized that farce's lack of power and marginality can become a res Questioning Racinean Tragedy John Campbell, 2005 Noting significant differences between the individual tragedies of Racine and the many current notions of what Racinean tragedy is deemed to imply John Campbell explores the identity and meaning of the modern Racine He asks if any one critical parad The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies, 2003 Expirer Au Féminin Mary Jo Muratore, 2003 Expirer au féminin offers new perspectives on the complex relationship between neo classical writers their works and the theoretical mandates imposed upon them In this work the author argues that a writer's conflicted attitude towards aesthetic conformity infiltrated the work itself This conflict can be seen in the confrontation between a male hero eager to comply with ideological protocols and a dissenting heroine in violation of established regulations It is to be expected perhaps that in the political context of seventeenth century France a heroine's refusal to embrace orthodox opinions would result inevitably in her death dissolution or excision from the text What is unanticipated however is that writers would so often slant the reader's sympathy in the direction of the rebellious heroine and against the obedient hero Expirer au féminin analyzes how the heroine's ostensibly expedient death serves to further complicate the very situation it was intended to neutralize Rendered essential by her presence but quintessential by her absence the heroine in these canonical texts embodies the non permissible vision the unspeakable other the essence of alteration or alternation or alienation that is often seen as the antithesis of neo classical textuality In the re readings proposed the heroine's rebelliousness reveals one of the most salient yet least noted characteristic of neo classical textuality it does not will not cannot conform Beneath a surface of sameness and adherence it proffers an unruly dismantling of codes an untidy challenge to prescription a poetically intoned ode to desobeissance BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved An Early Bourgeois Literature in Golden Age Spain Francisco J.
