Mardi Gras Mix Up:

Cookoff Amy Sutherland, 2004-05-25 Cookoff Recipe Fever in America is an anecdotal and entertaining look at the amazingly extensive subculture of cooking contests in America. Such contests range in importance from Spam contests at county fairs to the granddaddy of them all the Pillsbury Bake Off in San Francisco where the grand prize is a cool million. In between are contests local and national sponsored by agricultural groups, corporations, and neighborhoods. Competing in these contests are not only casual entrants but contestants, mostly women, for whom the recipe contest is a way of life. Journalist Amy Sutherland follows a small group of such contestants through a year on the contest circuit beginning with the National Chicken Cook off and culminating in the Pillsbury Bake Off. Along the way we'll be introduced to well known cook off luminaries as well as to some of the most bizarre cooks and the recipes concocted for their national contests. Carnival

Alice K. Flanagan, 2004 Describes the various carnivals that are celebrated and where they originated. A Journey to Cocktail Enlightenment John W. Raibikis, Mike Ferron, 2010-11-09 A Journey to Cocktail Enlightenment Two Thirsty Guys Discover Atlanta's Best Drinks. What were we seeking? Was it an incredible cocktail or an incredible experience? Was one possible without the other? We're evolving from our primitive beginnings of making and enjoying flavored martinis. Our search for unusual cocktails thus far has broadened our knowledge and expanded our appreciation of finely crafted cocktails. Right here we seem to have hit the true mother lode. A long sequence of unique samplings and events had us thinking in innovative ways and discovering something that never would have entered our minds before. We not only held our own against professional bartenders but beat out over half of our competitors. Our ability to accurately judge a cocktail has been substantiated. Two friends and bon vivants who enjoy liquid refreshments take a journey in search of the best cocktails they can find in and around the Atlanta area. Their travels take them from neighborhood bars to well known establishments. In the process they encounter colorful characters, discover delicious recipes, and develop an appreciation for what makes a great cocktail. Their journey also leads them to something greater. Authentic New Orleans Kevin Fox Gotham, 2007-12

Honorable Mention for the 2008 Robert Park Outstanding Book Award given by the ASA's Community and Urban Sociology Section. Mardi Gras, jazz, voodoo, gumbo, Bourbon Street, the French Quarter, all evoke that place that is unlike any other New Orleans. In Authentic New Orleans Kevin Fox Gotham explains how New Orleans became a tourist town, a spectacular locale known as much for its excesses as for its quirky Southern charm. Gotham begins in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina amid the whirlwind of speculation about the rebuilding of the city and the dread of outsiders wiping New Orleans clean of the grit that made it great. He continues with the origins of Carnival and the Mardi Gras celebration in the nineteenth century, showing how, through careful planning and promotion, the city constructed itself as a major tourist attraction. By examining various image building campaigns and promotional strategies to disseminate a palatable image of New Orleans on a national scale, Gotham ultimately establishes New Orleans as one of the originators of the mass tourism industry which linked leisure to travel promoted international expositions and developed the concept of pleasure travel Gotham shows how New Orleans was able to become one of the most popular tourist attractions in the United States especially through the transformation of Mardi Gras into a national even international event All the while Gotham is concerned with showing the difference between tourism from above and tourism from below that is how New Orleans distinctiveness is both maximized some might say exploited to serve the global economy of tourism as well as how local groups and individuals use tourism to preserve and anchor longstanding communal traditions
