Marginality Power And Social Structure Issues In Race Class And Gender Analysis:

Marginality, Power and Social Structure Rutledge M. Dennis, 2005-04-08 The articles in this book are intended to be a much needed corrective to the literature on marginality In the recent past and at present the concept of marginality has been used with little specificity and when used with specificity the delineation of the complex dimensions of the term has been less than satisfactory To illustrate the many ways in which marginality exists and operates in many societies Rutledge Dennis has assembled a rich array of articles designed to highlight the history and evolution of the concept of marginality along with the theorists issues and situations which prompted the use of the term and the issues for which the term is applicable today The very title of the volume comes into play here because though many of the early marginality theorists took the term into the realm of psychology the contributors to this volume who discussed the theory highlighted the social structural foundation of marginality Dennis sought a marriage of theory and research while assembling the articles for this volume For this reason he actively sought papers which used divergent research strategies to uncover the existence of marginality in its various forms and contexts Thus some of the papers utilize ethnographic and life history approaches whereas others use statistical analysis and historical data analysis In addition to theoretical and methodological concerns a major theme for this volume is the combination of both theory and method towards an investigation of issues and problems emanate from the social structure and are closely linked to power and domination Power, Culture and Modernity in Nigeria Oluwatoyin Oduntan, 2018-05-23 In this book Oluwatoyin Oduntan offers a critical intervention in the scholarly fields of Nigerian and West African history as well as towards understanding the intellectual ideas by which modern African society was formed and how it functions The book traces the shifting dynamics between various segments of the African elite by critically analyzing existing historical accounts traditions and archival documents First it explores the lost world of native intellectual thoughts as the perspective through which Africans experienced the colonial encounter It thereby makes Africans central to contemporary debates about the meanings and legitimacy of colonial empires and about the African cultural experience It shows that the resettlement of liberated and Westernized Africans in Abeokuta and after them European missionaries merchants and colonial agents from the 1840s did not dismantle preexisting power structures and social relations Rather educated Africans and Europeans entered into and added their voices to ongoing processes of defining culture and power By rendering a continuing narrative of change and adaptation which connects the pre colonial to the post colonial Power Culture and Modernity in Nigeria leads Africanist scholarship in new directions to rethink colonial impact and uncover the total creative sites of changes by which African societies were formed Rethinking Power Relations in Indonesia Michaela Haug, Martin Rössler, Anna-Teresa Grumbles, 2016-07-15 Since colonial rule the island of Java served as Indonesia s imagined centre and prime example of development while the Outer Islands were constructed as the state s marginalised periphery Recent processes of democratisation and regional autonomy however have significantly changed the power relations that once produced the marginality of the Outer Islands This book explores processes of political economic and cultural transformations in Indonesia emphasizing their implications for centre periphery relations from the perspective of the archipelago's margins Structured along three central themes the book first provides theoretical contributions to the understanding of marginality in Indonesia The second part focuses on political transformation processes and their implications for the Outer Islands The third section investigates the dynamics caused by economic changes on Indonesia's periphery Chapters written by experts in the field offer examples from various regions which demonstrate how power relations between centre and periphery are getting challenged contested and reshaped The book fills a gap in the literature by analysing the implications of the recent transformation processes for the construction of marginality on Indonesia's Outer Islands

Studying Christianity in China Naomi Thurston, 2018-04-24 Studying Christianity in China introduces an emerging academic trend in contemporary Chinese scholarship Through qualitative interviews with leading experts in Chinese Christian studies Naomi Thurston has investigated the ongoing conversation between China and Christianity Since the 1980s this conversation has given rise to an interdisciplinary academic field that is quickly gaining traction as a cutting edge cross cultural discourse The Chinese intellectuals driving this field are encountered as unique transmitters of cultural knowledge they are cultural mediators working in a range of humanities and social science disciplines who are not only re interpreting Western theology but are also lending a new voice to Chinese expressions of the Christian faith As such they are at the forefront of a novel force in World Christianity Medicine at the Margins Christopher Prener, 2022-12-06 Presents a unique view of social problems and conflicts over urban space from the cab of an ambulance While we imagine ambulances as a site for critical care the reality is far more complicated Social problems like homelessness substance abuse and the health consequences of poverty are encountered every day by Emergency Medical Services EMS workers Written from the lens of a sociologist who speaks with the fluency of a former Emergency Medical Technician EMT Medicine at the Margins delves deeply into the world of EMTs and paramedics in American cities an understudied element of our health care system Like the public hospital the EMS system is a key but misunderstood part of our system of last resort Medicine at the Margins presents a unique prism through which urban social problems the health care system and the struggling social safety net refract and intersect in largely unseen ways Author Christopher Prener examines the forms of marginality that capture the reality of urban EMS work and showcases the unique view EMS providers have of American urban life The rise of neighborhood stigma and the consequences it holds for patients who are assumed by providers to be malingering is critical for understanding not just the phenomenon of non or sub acute patient calls but also why they matter for all patients This sense of marginality is a defining feature of the experience of EMS work and is a statement about the patient population whom urban EMS providers care for daily Prener argues that the pre hospital health care system needs to embrace its role in the social safety net and how EMSs future is in community practice of paramedicine a part of a broader mandate of pre hospital health care By leaning into this work EMS providers are uniquely positioned to deliver on the promise of community medicine At a time when we are considering how to rely less on policing the EMS system is already tasked with treating many of the social problems we think would benefit from less involvement with law involvement Medicine at the Margins underscores why the EMS system is so necessary and the ways in which it can be expanded Theories of the Stranger Vince

interviews with Russian Bhutanese Rohingya and Kurdish refugees and the resettlement workers who smooth their transition into Canada in order to paint a complex picture of creating a new life in a new land Refugee Pathways to Freedom Escaping Persecution and Statelessness shows how the agonies of losing one's home and leaving loved ones behind are coupled with the dangers of escaping into unknown territory and that those who make the journey to freedom know that the dream of a safe and secure future is fraught with risks and disappointment She argues that refugees and refugee agencies bring powerful ideas for revamping an overwhelmed global system that freezes victims of persecution in years of political and emotional limbo She examines how shrinking refugee flows by addressing root causes of displacement is critical but so is speeding up selection processes to reduce despair and lost years She further posits that drastically limiting time in refugee camps would prevent counterproductive education and work gaps and that reducing language barriers to employment ensures well being and successful integration
