course of history      Cather Studies, Volume 12 Cather Studies,2020-01-01 Over the five decades of her writing career Willa Cather responded to and entered into dialogue with shifts in the terrain of American life These cultural encounters informed her work as much as the historical past in which much of her writing is based Cather was a multifaceted cultural critic immersing herself in the arts broadly defined theater and opera art narrative craft production Willa Cather and the Arts shows that Cather repeatedly engaged with multiple forms of art and that even when writing about the past she was often addressing contemporary questions The essays in this volume are informed by new modes of contextualization including the increasingly popular view of Cather as a pivotal or transitional figure working between and across very different cultural periods and by the recent publication of Cather s correspondence The collection begins by exploring the ways Cather encountered and represented high and low cultures including Cather s use of racialized vernacular in Sapphira and the Slave Girl The next set of essays demonstrates how historical research often focusing on local features in Cather s fiction contributes to our understanding of American culture from musicological sources to the cultural development of Pittsburgh
The final trio of essays highlights current Cather scholarship including a food studies approach to O Pioneers and an examination of Cather s use of ancient philosophy in The Professor s House Together the essays reassess Cather s lifelong encounter with and interpretation and reimagining of the arts      Dissolving Binding Theory Johan Rooryck,Guido J. vanden Wyngaerd,2011 This book examines the distribution and interpretation of anaphors and pronouns Through a detailed analysis of simplex and complex anaphors in Dutch and English as well as other Romance and Germanic languages the authors show that the relationship between an anaphor and its antecedent can be captured in terms of general Minimalist principles      East European Accessions Index ,1958
