Can't Get There From Here Ryan Porter,2019-04-08 Rather than reading small town representations in Canadian literature as portraits of a parochial past or a lost golden age this book claims that they are best understood as sophisticated statements on the effects of modernity in an ever more cosmopolitan world In Ontario as urbanization increased over the past century small towns became a popular literary trope and Ryan Porter argues that literary small towns are reflections and even sublimated explorations of contemporary life Referencing the theories of heritage scholars who view popularly understood pasts as constructions shaped by changing sensibilities You Can t Get There from Here argues that the literary small town Ontario past is malleable consisting of attempts to come to terms with the present in which the narrators find themselves The book focuses on four key Ontario authors Stephen Leacock Robertson Davies Alice Munro and Jane Urquhart as well as many secondary authors and links the readings to much broader trends in actual Ontario towns and in popular culture

Carleton Watkins Tyler

Green,2020-10-20 A fascinating and indispensable book Christopher Knight Los Angeles Times Best Books of 2018 The Guardian Gold Medal for Contribution to Publishing 2018 California Book Awards Carleton Watkins 1829 1916 is widely considered the greatest American photographer of the nineteenth century and arguably the most influential artist of his era He is best known for his pictures of Yosemite Valley and the nearby Mariposa Grove of giant sequoias Watkins made his first trip to Yosemite Valley and Mariposa Grove in 1861 just as the Civil War was beginning His photographs of Yosemite were exhibited in New York for the first time in 1862 as news of the Union s disastrous defeat at Fredericksburg was landing in newspapers and while the Matthew Brady Studio's horrific photographs of Antietam were on view Watkins's work tied the West to Northern cultural traditions and played a key role in pledging the once wavering West to Union. Motivated by Watkins's pictures Congress would pass legislation signed by Abraham Lincoln that preserved Yosemite as the prototypical national park, the first such act of landscape preservation in the world. Carleton Watkins' Making the West American includes the first history of the birth of the national park concept since pioneering environmental historian Hans Huth's landmark 1948 Yosemite: The Story of an Idea. Watkins's photographs helped shape America's idea of the West and helped make the West a full participant in the nation. His pictures of California, Oregon, and Nevada, as well as modern-day Washington, Utah, and Arizona, not only introduced entire landscapes to America but were important to the development of American business, finance, agriculture, government policy, and science. Watkins's clients, customers, and friends were a veritable who's who of America's Gilded Age, and his connections with notable figures such as Collis P. Huntington, John and Jessie Benton Frémont, Eadweard Muybridge, Frederick Billings, John Muir, Albert Bierstadt, and Asa Gray reveal how the Gilded Age helped make today's America. Drawing on recent scholarship and fresh archival discoveries, Tyler Green reveals how an artist didn't just reflect his time but acted as an agent of influence. This telling of Watkins's story will fascinate anyone interested in American history, the West, and how art and artists impacted the development of American ideas, industry, landscape, conservation, and politics.

Year Book International Dendrology Society, 1970 Temperate Horticulture Dr. Satish K. Sharma, Kallol K. Pramanick, 2006
Temperate horticulture is a very important component of horticulture as it is only confined to the hilly regions of a country. For fruit crops, it represents a group which is physiologically diverse from the sub-tropical and tropical fruit crops grown in other regions. For vegetables and floriculture, it has immense potential for keeping the nation well supplied with off-season and exotic vegetables and flowers all the year round. This book, being published to mark the centenary year of the Indian Agricultural Research Institute (1905-2005), strives to highlight the status of temperate horticulture in India. Articles on biotechnological and bioinformatics, genetic resources, and manipulation, cropping patterns, drip irrigation, hill horticulture, and economics of temperate horticulture contributed by scientists from IARI, Dr. Y.S. Parmar University of Horticulture and Forestry, NBPGRI, CIPHET, CPRI, and various RRSs of IARI, NBPGRI, and ICAR Research Complex for Eastern and NEH Regions. The book will prove as a complete handbook of temperate horticulture as it will not only serve as a reference material for research workers in horticulture but will also play a vital role in combating problems and planning future strategies in the field of horticulture.

Contributed articles with reference to India The Yosemite Murders Dennis McDougal, 2008-12-10
Since he was seven, Cary Stayner had dreamed of capturing women and killing them. They were crimes that grabbed headlines around the world and stunned America. Four women dead, their bodies charred and horribly mutilated. Now Dennis McDougal, acclaimed author of the spellbinding true crime tour de force Mother's Day, brings his considerable investigative and narrative skills to the Yosemite murders to give you the most complete account of what really happened Drawing on several personal conversations with the confessed killer and interviews with the victims families McDougal presents the definitive story and answers many lingering questions What demons drove this quiet handyman and nudist colony habitue to burn mutilate and murder four women he didn t even know How did he overpower a woman and two teenaged girls And most disturbing did the glory seeking FBI actually hinder the investigation leaving the killer free to kill once more before he was caught THE YOSEMITE MURDERS offers valuable insight into these savage and senseless murders in the heart of America s most beautiful wilderness The Mineralogy of Texas Arthur Edward Smith, Jr.,2016 Journal California.
