Maritime Album 100 Photographs And Their Stories:

A Maritime Album Mariners' Museum (Newport News, Va.), Richard Benson, 1997-01-01 Photographs from the archives of the Mariners Museum depict shipbuilding pleasure craft naval confrontations shipwrecks and icebreakers A Maritime Album Mariners' Museum (Newport News, Va.), Richard Benson, 1997 This book depicts the relationships of mariners with their vessels and the sea Each photograph chronicles a fragment of the mariner's experience over the past 200 years shipbuilding the making of a wooden skiff commercial fishing and whaling amateur sailing deep sea diving naval encounters and much more In his introduction John Szarkowski shares his artistic rationale for selecting the particular images that appear in this book Benson's essays which accompany the photographs unify image and story in a vignette of time and place of historical societal and individual meaning This book is the catalogue for a traveling exhibition that will open in December 1997 at The Mariners Museum in Newport News Virginia BOOK JACKET North South East West Richard Benson, 2011 Richard Benson former dean of the Yale School of Art and a MacArthur Foundation Fellow has been a photographer for more than four decades but until now his art often took a back seat to his prodigious achievements as a printer and a teacher This volume presents one hundred photographs by Benson highlighting the unique properties of his prints and exemplifying his fresh techniques for reproducing them for publication From direct digital capture through inkjet output his renowned technical wizardry has yielded unusually vibrant and beguiling colour prints that are at once ultra vivid and utterly natural like our everyday visual experience Their uncanny lushness and clarity give voice to Benson's generous inquisitive eye An essay by Peter Galassi Chief Curator of Photography at MoMA surveys the work and a text by Benson explains how it was made Encyclopedia of American Literature of the Sea and Great Lakes Jill B. Gidmark, 2000-11-30 The sea and Great Lakes have inspired American authors from colonial times to the present to produce enduring literary works This reference is a comprehensive survey of American sea literature The scope of the encyclopedia ranges from the earliest printed matter produced in the colonies to contemporary experiments in published prose poetry and drama The book also acknowledges how literature gives rise to adaptations and resonances in music and film and includes coverage of nonliterary topics that have nonetheless shaped American literature of the sea and Great Lakes The alphabetical arrangement of the reference facilitates access to facts about major literary works characters authors themes vessels places and ideas that are central to American sea literature Each of the several hundred entries is written by an expert contributor and many provide bibliographical information While the encyclopedia includes entries for white male canonical writers such as Herman Melville and Jack London it also gives considerable attention to women at sea and to ethnically diverse authors works and themes The volume concludes with a chronology and a list of works for further reading The Face of Minnesota John Szarkowski, 2008 Ducks in a stream the bridge at St Anthony Falls streets of cities and towns a fish in a net the glittering lakes seen under low skies The Face of Minnesota is a fresh simple unpretentious statement of a place and time by people who know what Minnesota is because they live there Minor White Aperture 1958 John Szarkowski is the single most important curator that photography has ever had Looking at his photographs created over the last fifty years makes me want to weep They are truly American pictures one feels his desire to show not just what America was but what it still can be Ingrid Sischy Vanity Fair 2005 Originally commissioned to commemorate Minnesota's centennial in 1958 and out of print for nearly forty years The Face of Minnesota is a lost masterpiece of photography and an eloquent tribute to the people and places of the North Star state Republished in celebration of the state's sesquicentennial this beautifully produced edition includes contemporary essays about John Szarkowski's impact on American photography and introduces his work to new generations of Minnesotans Featuring more than 175 arresting photographs as well as essays filled with wit and affection The Face of Minnesota opens with this statement This book is about Minnesota now But as a mature man carries on his face and in his bearing the history of his past so does the look of a place today show its past what it has been and what it has believed in Though Minnesota has changed dramatically during the past fifty years The Face of Minnesota reveals the simple beauty of the imprint of the past and its deep resonance today John Szarkowski 1925 2007 was director of the photography program at the Museum of Modern Art in New York where he transformed our understanding of the art of photography through influential exhibitions and books including Looking at Photographs 1973 In 2005 his work was surveyed in a traveling exhibition accompanied by the book John Szarkowski Photographs Verlyn Klinkenborg joined the editorial board of the New York Times in 1997 He is the author of several works including The Rural Life Richard Benson has worked as a photographer and printer since 1966 He teaches at Yale University and is the coauthor with John Szarkowski of A Maritime Album 100 Photographs and Their Stories
