The Making of Nantucket Everett Uberto Crosby,2018 The Making of Nantucket Family Lives and Fortunes in the Nineteenth Century the book has as its subject the striking achievement of a small town resourceful enough to have fashioned a fortune from the sea and then having lost it to have been able to reinvent itself as a burgeoning summer resort The story on the life of one of the leading local merchants who lived long enough from 1791 to 1878 to illustrate the major changes that took place and for whom there is sufficient documentation in the archives American commercial success in the years after the Revolution was based heavily on maritime trade and in this endeavor Nantucket had a brief but significant part to play The chapters of the book provide a local perspective on several important developments in this part of the history of the early republic Chap 1 A description of the packet trade the life line to the island mainly between Nantucket and New York and excerpts from an original manuscript on the War of 1812 in Long Island Sound Chap 2 The importance of family relations among the members of the ruling class in the fashioning of the social structure Chap 3 The organization of the island whaling industry with a comparison of the gains and losses Chap 4 The decline of whaling the search for new investments and the transition of Nantucket to a summer resort Chap 5 Various views and comments about daily life on the island in the middle years of the 19th century Provided by publisher      Quaint Nantucket William Root Bliss,2017-01-30 This book relates to that quaint Nantucket which existed for two hundred years before the island was discovered by the summer boarder The materials from which it has been written comprise the original town and court records various letters account books sea journals and other private manuscripts including the record books of the Quaker Society of Nantucket None of these valuable materials have been used heretofore for such a purpose For assistance in procuring them I am indebted to Mr Henry B Worth and to Captain Thomas R Rodman of New Bedford to many friends in Nantucket and especially to Miss Helen Barnard Winslow Worth whose kind services have been invaluable      Nantucket Island, Home of the Ocean Breezes, Thirty Miles at Sea ... Nantucket (Mass.).
