Markers Xviii:

Immigrant Youth, Hip Hop, and Online Games Barbara Franz, 2015-08-13 Anti Muslim racism with its attendant xenophobia and the fear of Salafist hostility are two of the most essential problems facing Europe today Both result from the enormous failure of the continent's integration policies which have either insisted on immigrants rigid assimilation or left immigrants to fend for themselves This book radically breaks with contemporary approaches to immigrant assimilation and integration Instead it examines non institutional approaches that facilitate immigrant inclusion through the examples of three alternative small scale projects that have impacted the lives of urban working class youth specifically with second generation immigrant roots in Vienna Austria These projects involve online gaming hip hop as an art form and social work as emancipatory pedagogic practice commonly referred to as street work This book investigates working class teenagers social networks and describes an online game designed to provide a platform for interaction between non immigrant and immigrant youth who usually either do not interact or display prejudice when they engage each other Hip hop can provide both a necessary outlet for alienated youth to articulate their frustrations and a highly effective tool for transforming inclusion conflicts Social work with marginalized youth is crucial for successful inclusion Specifically individual support in small scale settings provides a unique opportunity to open up spaces for discouraged and disaffected teenagers to gain self worth and dignity While the book focuses on identity formation and the teenagers agency it argues that only projects that include both newcomer and native can aid in overcoming exclusionary attitudes and policies eventually allowing some form of social bonding to take place

Pidgins and Creoles: Volume 1, Theory and Structure John A. Holm, 1988-05-05 This first volume of Holm's major survey of pidgins and creoles provides an up to date and readable introduction to a field of study that has become established only in the past few decades Written for both students and general readers with a basic knowledge of linguistics the book's original perspective will also attract specialists in the field seeking a broad overview of the linguistic relationships among these languages Creolized or restructured versions of English French Spanish Dutch Portuguese and other languages arose during European colonial expansion These resulted in such creoles as Jamaican Haitian Papiamentu and some one hundred others as well as such semi creoles as Afrikaans non standard Brazilian Portuguese Papiamentu and

American Black English Scholars have tended to work on particular language varieties in relative isolation making comparative research into the genesis development and structure of creoles difficult In writing this book Holm draws on broad studies of many languages to make clear how far reaching creoles similarities are and to challenge current linguistic theories on creoles and pidgins The emphasis of this volume is largely empirical rather than descriptive Its core is a comparative study of creoles based on European languages in Africa and the Caribbean that demonstrates the striking similarities among the languages in terms of their lexical semantics phonology and syntax A forthcoming volume provides a socio historic overview of variety development and text examples with translations of the restructured languages Pidgins and Creoles: Volume 2, Reference Survey John A. Wilderness David Pocka, 2023-12-06 One of the most prevalent challenges in contemporary Christianity is navigating the relationship between the individual and their faith community when the Christian enters spiritually challenging times periods of aridity misunderstanding suffering or darkness This problem is amplified because of the growing angst that many feel with organized religion When loyalty to the church gets tested during a personal faith crisis or honest intellectual query many leave disenchanted claiming a desire to be spiritual but not religious Cries from the Wilderness Reimagining Church Culture in an Age of Uncertainty explores the memoirs of three contemporary sojourners Rachel Held Evans David Gushee and Macy Halford asking What postures were common in his or her journey that helped them navigate their spiritual wilderness David Pocka then argues that a primary problem is that many faith communities rarely see themselves in the spiritual wilderness The author's contention is that spiritual communities are often ill equipped to nurture the spiritual life of disoriented or questioning Christians By acknowledging their own spiritual journey and drawing lessons from healthy wilderness postures they would be better positioned to transform and mature their community while creating a nurturing environment for individual sojourners Mohs Micrographic Surgery Keyvan Nouri, 2012-03-07 This book is written for dermatologists

Montefalcone, Carlo Nike Bianchi, 2023-08-22 Landscape ecology has been a discrete established discipline since at least 1980 Its marine counterpart seascape ecology is barely a decade old its first applications dating from the early 2010s Lack of perception of the marine environment hampers the adoption of many landscape ecology approaches to the sea Seascape ecology relies on special technologies such as remote sensing either acoustic or optical robotics and scuba diving Both disciplines deal with the spatial configuration of ecosystems and consider environmental heterogeneity and dynamics as the main subjects of study and the key for ecosystem functioning and persistence Seascape is here intended as the totality of natural and anthropogenic characters of a marine region To the geologist it is defined by sedimentology and underwater geomorphology to the biologist by the nature of the living cover of the seafloor to the ecologist by the relationships among functional processes and the spatial organization of ecosystems The goal of this research topic is to encourage original research case studies reviews and viewpoints to identify research priority gaps and possibly contribute to filling them in We will appreciate in particular manuscripts dealing with recent advances such as high resolution habitat mapping underwater soundscape and biophony development application and validation of biotic indices to assess seafloor integrity as requested for instance by recent European Directives Papers of interest may discuss the multivarious facets of stability and describe resistance and resilience patterns the role of stress and disturbance regime shift and phase shift or may take up the challenge of integrating coastal landscape and seascape analyses Studies of long term series are welcome as well as methodological improvements and macroecological approaches on the importance of species diversity and connectivity in seascape organization
