Market Whys And Human Wherefores Thinking Again About Markets Politics And People:

The Making of a Post-Keynesian Economist G. Harcourt, 2012-05-29 The Making of a Post Keynesian Economist Cambridge Harvest gathers up the threads of the last decade of the author's twenty eight years in Cambridge before his return to Australia The essays include autobiography theory review articles surveys policy intellectual biographies and tributes and general essays An Enquiry into the Ideology and Reality of Market and Market System J.

Lepper, 2011-11-03 Why do markets exist How are they maintained What are market systems and how are they formed This book addresses these fundamental questions and challenges the traditional view that markets and market systems are natural asserting instead that they are ideologically coloured and of dubious scientific value Suspicious of Markets

Donald Rutherford, 2016-10-06 In this work Rutherford reviews why Adam Smith Hayek Mises and others praised economic markets with a view to understanding in contrast historical attacks on markets dating as far back as Aristotle The market has long been criticized as an inappropriate method of allocation encouraging market participants to misbehave for the sake of personal gain and creating an impersonal new market culture This book traces how such attacks have become more vociferous in recent centuries especially with the rise of socialism Most recently the critique has broadened to include toxic markets and the excessive marketization of activities hitherto external to the market Analysing these major criticisms as well as the value of regulation utopias and virtue ethics as a means of avoiding future suspicions of markets the author lays the groundwork for the reader's own assessment of the arguments and concludes by posing suggestions of how best we might cope with flawed markets in the future Bazaars, Conversations and Freedom Rajni Bakshi, 2017-09-08

Long before the financial meltdown and the red alert on climate change some far sighted innovators diagnosed the fatal flaws in an economic system driven by greed and fear Across the global North and South diverse people financial wizards economists business people and social activists have been challenging the free market orthodoxy They seek to recover the virtues of bazaars from the tyranny of a market model that emerged about two centuries ago This widely praised book is a chronicle of their achievements From Wall Street icon George Soros and VISA card designer Dee Hock we get an insider critique of the malaise Creators of community currencies and others like the father of microfinance Bangladesh's Muhammad Yunus explore how money can work differently The doctrine of self interest is re-examined by looking more closely at Adam Smith through the eyes of Amartya Sen Mahatma Gandhi's concept of Trusteeship gathers strength as the socially responsible investing phenomenon challenges the power of capital Pioneers of the open source and free software movement thrive on cooperation to drive innovation The Dalai Lama and Ela Bhatt demonstrate that it is possible to compete compassionately and to nurture a more mindful market culture This sweeping narrative takes you from the ancient Greek agora Indian choupal and Native American gift culture on to present day Wall Street to illuminate ideas subversive and prudent about how the market can serve society rather than being its master In a world exhausted by dogma Bazaars Conversations and Freedom is an open quest for possible futures This fully updated and revised UK version of the 2009 Vodafone Crossword Book Award winner for non fiction is a rare and epic narrative about those who have been quietly forging solutions and demonstrating that a more compassionate market culture is both possible and desirable News of Boundless Riches Max L. Stackhouse, Lalsangkima Pachuau, 2007

Christian Perspectives on the Role of the State, Justice, and Taxation Robert F. van Brederode, 2025-07-19 This book Christian Perspectives on the Role of the State Justice and Taxation examines the historical and ongoing influence of Christian ethical thought on taxation governance and distributive justice Building on themes introduced in Political Philosophy and Taxation Springer 2022 which focused on secular perspectives this sequel shifts attention to the contributions of Christian thinkers from Medieval times to the present The book explores key questions surrounding the role of the state the relationship between the state and its subjects the moral right to tax and what constitutes fairness in taxation It investigates how Christian ethical teachings have shaped Western political philosophy particularly in the context of distributive justice and evaluates their relevance in contemporary discussions By analyzing the intersection of theology ethics and political philosophy this book provides a deeper understanding of how Christian traditions have influenced historical notions of justice fairness and governance It offers insights into how these principles can inform modern policy debates and ethical considerations in taxation This book serves as a valuable resource for scholars students and professionals interested in religious ethics political philosophy and public policy It invites readers to reflect on the enduring impact of Christian thought on concepts of justice and the responsibilities of the state Theology of Money Philip Goodchild, 2009-06-22 Theology of Money is a philosophical inquiry into the nature and role of money in the contemporary world Philip Goodchild reveals the significance of money as a dynamic social force by arguing that under its influence moral evaluation is subordinated to economic valuation which is essentially abstract and anarchic His rigorous inquiry opens into a complex analysis of political economy encompassing markets and capital banks and the state class divisions accounting practices and the ecological crisis awaiting capitalism Engaging with Christian theology and the thought of Carl Schmitt Georg Simmel Karl Marx Adam Smith and many others Goodchild develops a theology of money based on four contentions which he elaborates in depth First money has no intrinsic value it is a promise of value a crystallization of future hopes Second money is the supreme value in contemporary society Third the value of assets measured by money is always future oriented dependent on expectations about how much might be obtained for those assets at a later date Since this value when realized will again depend on future expectations the future is forever deferred Financial value is essentially a degree of hope expectation trust or credit Fourth money is created as debt which involves a social obligation to work or make profits to repay the loan As a system of debts money imposes an immense and irresistible system of social control on individuals corporations and governments each of whom are threatened by economic failure if they refuse their obligations to the money system This system of debt has progressively tightened its hold on all sectors and regions of global society With Theology of Money Goodchild aims to make conscious our collective faith and its dire implications ThirdWay, 1999-12 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Property for People, Not for Profit Ulrich Duchrow, Franz J. Hinkelammert, 2013-07-04 The issue of private property and the rights it confers remain almost undiscussed in critiques of globalization and free market economics Yet property lies at the heart of an economic system geared to profit maximization The authors describe the historically specific and self consciously explicit manner in which it emerged They trace this history from earliest historical times and show how in the hands of Thomas Hobbes and John Locke in particular the notion of private property took on its absolutist nature and most extreme form a form which neoliberal economics is now imposing on humanity worldwide through the pressures of globalization They argue that avoiding the destruction of people s ways of living and of Nature requires reshaping our notions of private property They look at practical ways for social and ecumenical movements to press for alternatives Transcending Greedy Money U. Duchrow, F. Hinkelammert, 2012-12-23 This major work offers an historical description and systematic analysis of the root causes of this global economic crisis which the authors understand as a crisis of western civilization and provides a comprehensive solution based on theological social justice Modernity, Nation and Urban-Architectural Form Shireen Jahn Kassim, Norwina Mohd Nawawi, Mansor Ibrahim, 2018-07-20 This book explores how Malaysia as a multicultural modern nation has approached issues of nationalism and regionalism in terms of physical expression of the built environment Ever since the nation s post Colonial era architects and policy makers have grappled with the theoretical and practical outcomes of creating public architecture that effectively responds to traditions nationhood and modernity The authors compile and analyse prevailing ideas and strategies present case studies in architectural language and form and introduce the reader to tensions arising between a nationalist agenda and local regionalist architectural language These dichotomies represent the very nature of multicultural societies and issues with identity a challenge that various nations across the globe face in a changing environment This topical and pertinent volume will appeal to students and scholars of urban planning architecture and the modern city Theology and Economics Jeremy Kidwell, 2015-12-27 This volume brings together a prominent group of Christian economists and theologians to provide an interdisciplinary look at how we might use the tools of economic and theological reasoning to cultivate more just and moral economies for the 21st century God and Mrs Thatcher Eliza Filby, 2015-02-24 A woman demonised by the left and sanctified by the right there has always been a religious undercurrent to discussions of Margaret Thatcher However while her Methodist roots are well known the impact of her faith on her politics is often overlooked In an attempt to source the origins of Margaret Thatcher s conviction politics Eliza Filby explores how Thatcher s worldview was shaped and guided by the lessons of piety thrift and the Protestant work ethic learnt in Finkin Street Methodist Church Grantham from her lay preacher father In doing so she tells the story of how a Prime Minister steeped in the Nonconformist teachings of her childhood entered Downing Street determined to reinvigorate the nation with these religious values Filby concludes that this was ultimately a failed crusade In the end Thatcher created a country that was not more Christian but more secular and not more devout but entirely consumed by a new religion capitalism In upholding the sanctity of the individual Thatcherism inadvertently signalled the death of Christian Britain Drawing on previously unpublished archives interviews and memoirs Filby examines how the rise of Thatcher was echoed by the rebirth of the Christian right in Britain both of which were forcefully opposed by the Church of England Wide ranging and exhaustively researched God and Mrs Thatcher offers a truly original perspective on the source and substance of Margaret Thatcher s political values and the role that religion played in the politics of this tumultuous decade God's Unfinished

Business John Wilding, Margaret Boaden, 2007 Integrating ideas such as evolution economics and politics into the teachings of Jesus this new view of human priorities suggests that spiritual thinkers and readers can break out of the cycle of destruction by taking a fresh look at the gospels to find practical guidance for the contemporary world Forgiveness and Truth Alistair McFadyen, Marcel Sarot, 2002-01-01 An international group of theologians considers the importance of forgiveness and truth in the modern world Dogmatic and practical theological themes are addressed including Christology and atonement forgiving abusive parents the economics of forgiveness forgiveness in Northern Ireland and shame sin and guilt Contributors include Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger Peter Selby Christopher Jones Fraser Watts Peter Sedgwick Jane Craske Todd Pokrifka Joe Nico Schreurs Alwyn Thompson and David Self The Poor in Liberation Theology Tim Noble, 2014-10-14 Liberation theology has since its beginnings over forty years ago placed the poor at the heart of theology and revealed the ideologies underlying both society and church Meanwhile over this period the progressive church appears to have stagnated and the poor of Latin America have turned increasingly to neo Pentecostalism The Poor in Liberation Theology questions whether the effect of liberation theology is to provide a pathway to God or really to construct idols out of the poor Combining the conceptual language of the philosophers Jean Luc Marion and Emmanuel Levinas with the methodology of the liberation theologian Clodovis Boff the volume outlines how liberation theology can work to ensure the poor do not become an ideological construct but remain icons of God Drawing on a wealth of material from Latin American and Europe the book demonstrates the continuing validity and importance of liberation theology and its further potential when engaged with contemporary philosophy Theology and Economic Ethics Sean Doherty, 2014-03-27 In the wake of the economic crisis few questions are more pressing than those around the ethics of finance and economics Theology and Economic Ethics seeks to expand the self critical resources of contemporary theological economic ethics by bringing the method of a pre modern thinker Martin Luther 1483 1546 into interaction with that of a modern contribution to social ethics the Swiss theologian Arthur Rich 1910 92 The work is undertaken through a close engagement with a selected publication of Luther his 1519 20 Gro er Sermon von dem Wucher and of Rich his masterwork Wirtschaftsethik published in two volumes in 1984 and 1990 respectively It is the first substantial treatment in English of Rich s magnum opus Sean Doherty introduces Luther's sermon on usury situates it in its context then provides a commentary on this work discussing how Luther brings key theological motifs to bear on a particular economic question. The study proceeds with a sketch of Arthur Rich's life and work and presents Rich's method as set out in Wirtschaftsethik. Doherty illuminates Rich's understanding of ethics, his approach to Scripture and his adoption of the thought of Max Weber and John Rawls. Bringing insights from the study of Luther to bear in an analysis of Rich's method, Doherty questions some of Rich's assumptions and notes ways in which a more self-critical approach could have made his project more successful. Finally, the book makes tentative suggestions as to the wider applicability of these findings for a Christian approach to economic ethics.

Rhetoric and Social Justice in Isaiah Mark Gray, 2006-04-19 Demonstrates the ways that social justice attains primacy in Isaiah, the ways that humanity is given a role in pursuing social justice and the ways that Isaiah 58 impinges upon the idea of social justice. This book explores the nature and sources of the social justice encoded in the world.

Reconceptualising the Moral Economy of Criminal Justice Philip Whitehead, 2015-07-29 This book reconceptualises the concept of moral economy in its relevance for and application to the criminal justice system in England and Wales. It advances the argument that criminal justice cannot be reduced to an instrumentally driven operation to achieve fiscal efficiencies or provide investment opportunities to the commercial sector.

How to Become a Creative Church Leader John Nelson, 2008-02-28 A companion to the popular Creative Church Leadership, this co-publication with MODEM focuses on the practical skills necessary for dynamic leadership in the local church. A wide range of experienced church leaders and management gurus reflect on key components of successful contemporary church leadership, including:

- part one which discusses people leading a team, choosing and mentoring assistants, leading lay ministers and volunteers, how to delegate, how to resolve conflict;
- part two which describes organisation, leading churches of different sizes, leading multiple congregations, relating to the local community, initiating and completing projects, how to chair meetings; and
- part three which discusses up-close and personal what kind of a leader are you, getting your work-life balance right, thinking strategically, preaching with a purpose and much more.
