Official Museum Directory 1998 Volumes 1 And :

British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright, Catherine May Gordon, 2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections The book includes as well pictures that are now lost some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of de accessioning mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting

Taddeo and Federico Zuccaro Julian Brooks, Peter M. Lukehart, Christina Strunck, Robert Williams, 2007 One of the most important series of drawings in late sixteenth century Italian art the twenty large sheets by Federico Zuccaro ca 1541 1609 showing the early life of his older brother Taddeo 1529 1566 was acquired by the J Paul Getty Museum in 1999 Never fully published the series shows Taddeo's trials and tribulations as a young artist trying to achieve success in Renaissance Rome and his eventual triumph The drawings contain charming details of the life of a struggling artist and reveal much about the younger brother Federico a successful artist in his own right This volume published to coincide with an exhibition at the J Paul Getty Museum to be held from October 1 2007 to January 6 2008 presents Federico Zuccaro's twenty drawings and accompanying poems in their historical and artistic context and will be of interest to art historians and general readers alike Of particular importance is its examination of the role of the copying of masterworks in the training of young Renaissance artists
