TESOL Guide for Critical Praxis in Teaching, Inquiry, and Advocacy Crawford, Jenifer,Filback, Robert A.,2021-09-17 The field of TESOL encompasses English teachers who teach English as an additional language in English dominant countries and those teachers who teach English as a foreign language in countries where a language other than English is the official language This range of educators teaches English to children adolescents and adults in primary secondary post secondary popular education and language academies or tutoring centers The diversity of learners and contexts within the TESOL field presents a unique opportunity for educators to address varied educational and societal needs. This opportunity calls for TESOL educators who can support the whole learner in a range of contexts for the greater social good. There is an urgent need for readily reproducible and step by step research based practices and current standards in TESOL that bridge the gap between critical scholarship and equitable teaching practices. This book would serve as a critical addition to current literature in TESOL. TESOL Guide for Critical Praxis in Teaching Inquiry and Advocacy is an essential reference that provides practical and equitable step by step guides for TESOL educators through the current best practices and methods for effective and equity minded teaching critical inquiry and transformative advocacy. This book is of particular value as it bridges theories to practices with a critical look at racial and social justice in English language teaching which will lead to the integration of social justice focused practice across the new curriculum. Covering topics such as integrated language instruction equity and inclusivity critical consciousness and online learning this text is essential for in service and pre service TESOL educators education students researchers administrators teacher educators and academicians.

Challenges of Second and Foreign Language Education in a Globalized World Mirosław Pawlak, Anna

Mystkowska-Wiertelak, 2017-09-07. This edited collection brings together papers by eminent scholars who attempt to demonstrate how challenges can most successfully be ameliorated with an eye to enhancing the effectiveness of the processes of language teaching and learning. In Part One emphasis is placed on challenges that second language education has to face both those more general dealing with language policy issues and those more specific concerned with instructional options in the language classroom. Part Two focuses on challenges involved in researching the processes of teaching and learning in the second and foreign languages classroom both with respect to research methodology and efforts to tap some variables impinging upon the effects of instruction. Finally Part Three is devoted to challenges involved in second and foreign language teacher education the quality of which to a large extent determines the outcomes of second language education in any educational context.

Teaching Chinese in the Anglophone World Danping Wang, Martin East, 2023-07-30. This volume offers a comprehensive overview of Chinese language teaching in New Zealand in light of the declining interest in foreign language learning in Anglophone countries. While existing scholarly works have discussed Chinese language education in other Anglophone countries this book is the first to provide an in depth examination of the landscape of Chinese language teaching in contemporary multicultural New Zealand featuring insights from leading experts. The book consists of 21 chapters written by 29 contributors including research students experienced teachers and leading scholars in every educational sector from preschool to university and from mainstream education to community schools. As the first volume to focus on this subject the book provides both historical perspectives and multilevel analyses of critical milestones based on the latest data policy changes and politico economic conditions shaping the future direction of Chinese language education in New Zealand. Its purpose is to offer insights and an overview of the New Zealand case that can help policymakers programme leaders researchers teachers and learners in the Anglophone world and beyond to better respond to the rapidly changing and challenging environments they face In addition to the Foreword by Patricia Duff and the Epilogue the book is a valuable resource for anyone interested in Chinese language education in New Zealand and serves as a catalyst for further discussion and research on this topic Chapters Teaching Chinese in the Anglophone World An Overview of the New Zealand Case Chinese as a Heritage Language in New Zealand A Historical Overview and The Teaching of Mandarin Chinese in New Zealand s Schools Where Have We Come From Where Are We Now Where Are We Going are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com

Limits of Language in Nigeria Nahna James, 2024-08-01 Limits of Language in Nigeria Hatred based on Igbo Language attempts to delve deeply into different socio linguistic issues faced by the Igbo language within Nigerian context In doing so the study has used a mixed methods approach wherein demographic data public attitudes and socio economic factors that have brought about the status quote of this language are thoroughly assessed The research establishes some historical and current reasons why there is increased resentment towards Igbo language among Nigerians This includes last impact caused by colonialism and traumatic experiences during Biafran Civil War which greatly redefined Nigerian social political life Political disinterest and economic inequities worsen marginalization of Igbo spoken by majority but freely bypassed in spheres where English Hausa or Yoruba languages dominate Nigeria Also the article highlights huge educational and institutional barriers that stand in the way of developing and maintaining Igbo language The barriers are insufficient support for teaching Igbo language and few African Studies courses which do not encourage students to learn African languages such as Igbo Henceforth many students prefer not to learn Igbo considering it less useful for their future professions because it is rarely used in professional circles after study completion Moreover the research reveals language bias affects how one relates to their culture and society as an Igbo So much more is lost in not speaking the Igbo language other than communication including cultural heritage and moral imperatives This exclusion weakens the social glue that holds the community together and hence fuels feelings of being left out in some way or another To combat these challenges this research demands immediate actions to enhance diversity in language as well as safeguard cultural heritage It therefore proposes for more assistance on the issue of Igbo language education Igbo language being taught in schools and embracing linguistic pluralism in Nigeria Hence this research seeks to create conditions that foster national unity and inclusiveness where the Igbo language and culture in Nigeria is valued and preserved The study thus aims at finding sustainable solutions to overcome the linguistic and cultural problems facing Igbo speakers as it seeks to understand what could be done to stop the decline of its population among native speakers

Vietnamese Language, Education and Change In and Outside Vietnam Phan Le Ha, Dat Bao, Joel Windle, 2024-05-21 This open access edited book attempts to break new ground in investigating multiple facets of Vietnamese language education and change in global contexts engaging with global Vietnam through complex lenses of language and education Issues of language globalization and global identities have often been framed through the lens of hierarchical binary power relations and or through a dichotomy between hyper central languages such as English and revisualized or marginalized local language and cultures In this book this dichotomy is turned on its head by considering how Vietnam and Vietnamese are constructed in and outside Vietnam and enacted in global spaces of classrooms textbooks student mobility community engagement curriculum and intercultural contacts Vietnamese is among the world s most spoken languages and is ranked in the top 20th in terms the number of speakers Yet at the same time as a peripheral or southern global language as often seen in the Global North Global South spectrum the dynamics of multilingual and multicultural encounters involving Vietnamese generate distinctive dilemmas and tensions as well as pointing to alternative ways of thinking about global phenomena from a fresh angle Rather than being outside of the global Vietnamese like many other non central global languages is present in diasporas commercial and transnational structures of higher education schooling and in the more conventional settings of primary and secondary school in which visions of culture and language also evoke notions of heritage and tradition as well as bring to the fore deep seated ideological conflicts across time space communities and generations Relevant to students and scholars researching language education identity multiculturalism and their intersections particularly related to Vietnam but also in Southeast Asia and beyond this volume is a pioneering investigation into overlooked contexts and languages from a global southern oriented perspective This book presents an eclectic collection of 15 chapters unified by an interest in developing and teaching the Vietnamese language To my knowledge there has been no previous attempt to make the national language of Vietnam a focus for as many perspectives as are documented in the book In this regard the book makes an original and intriguing contribution to the literature on Vietnamese culture including the culture of Vietnam s expanding diaspora The book is pioneering in the extent to which it draws attention to the many roles played by a national language in a nation s political social and cultural development It also documents the challenges of preserving a national language in settings where it is at risk of being marginalized It is pleasing that so many of the contributing authors are young Vietnamese scholars who can provide a distinctly Vietnamese perspective on concepts and practices of global significance Dr MartinHayden Emeritus Professor of Higher Education Southern Cross University Australia Vietnamese Language Education and Change In and Outside Vietnam brings together an excellent collection of chapters that highlight the diverse and important but under explored roles Vietnamese language plays in different settings within and outside Vietnam The fifteen chapters of this much needed book provide unique insights into various aspects and meanings of Vietnamese language Collectively the volume contributes to broadening our view about the evolution and transformation of Vietnamese language under the impacts of local national regional and global forces The book invites readers to engage in a reflective and intersectional approach to rethinking and re examining our understandings of the changes and developments of Vietnamese language over the history of the country Dr Ly Tran Professor Centre for Research

Critical Pedagogy in Hong Kong Carlos Soto, 2019-09-06 This book chronicles the author's application of critical pedagogy in Hong Kong secondary schools serving students from working class families of South Asian heritage so called ethnic minorities in the local context Soto used concepts such as banking pedagogy generative themes liberatory dialogue and transformative resistance to first understand students school online and community experiences and then to reshape his teaching of English and humanities subjects to address the students academic social and emotional needs This critical ethnography is set against educational reforms in Hong Kong which re orientated schools towards developing a knowledge economy workforce increased privatization and competition in the school system aimed to build national identification with China and sought to address growing inequality in a territory known for wealth disparity While these reforms opened opportunities for implementing student centered pedagogies in schools and increased student access to tertiary education ethnic minority youth faced ongoing economic and social marginalization on top of academic difficulties The central narrative captures everyday struggles and contradictions arising from intersections of neoliberal reforms institutional school histories students transnational realities and collective efforts for equity and social justice In the course of the book a parallel story unfolds as the author explores what it means to be a critical teacher and researcher and is reborn in the process The book's on the ground story is hopeful yet tempered in discussing the limits and possibilities for critical pedagogy It will be of a great resource for researchers teacher educators and pre service and in service teachers who are interested in the topic

Codeswitching in the Classroom Jeff MacSwan, Christian J. Faltis, 2019-10-16 Bringing together sociolinguistic linguistic and educational perspectives this cutting edge overview of codeswitching examines language mixing in teaching and learning in bilingual classrooms As interest in pedagogical applications of bilingual language mixing increases so too does a need for a thorough discussion of the topic This volume serves that need by providing an original and wide ranging discussion of theoretical pedagogical and policy related issues and obstacles in classroom settings the pedagogical consequences of codeswitching for teaching and learning of language and content in one way and two way bilingual classrooms Part I provides an introduction to socio linguistic and pedagogical contributions to scholarship in the field both historical and contemporary Part II focuses on codeswitching in teaching and learning and addresses a range of pedagogical challenges to language mixing in a variety of contexts such as literacy and mathematics instruction Part III looks at language ideology and language policy to explore how students navigate educational spaces and negotiate their identities in the face of competing language ideologies and assumptions This volume breaks new ground and serves as an important contribution on codeswitching for scholars researchers and teacher educators of language education multilingualism and applied linguistics

The Routledge Handbook of Language Program Development and Administration Alan V. Brown, Cori Crane, Beatrice C. Dupuy, Estela Ene, 2025-06-30 Second language program development and administration is a long standing area within the larger field of applied linguistics. In many ways it is the quintessential applied linguistics field as it crosses disciplinary boundaries while balancing the rigors of scholarly inquiry with the demands of practical application without losing sight of concrete learner outcomes. The Routledge Handbook of Language Program Development and Administration provides a scholarly rigorous yet practically relevant treatment of issues implicated in program development and administration with 52 chapters written by leading scholars in the field. Authors not only address the theoretical underpinnings of their respective topics but also provide actionable evidence based recommendations concerning eminently practical matters. In this way the volume provides both novice and experienced language program administrators with important guidance on how to think about the work that they do and how best to go about it while also validating language program administration as a scholarly area of inquiry. The Routledge Handbook of Language Program Development and Administration is essential reading for practicing second language program administrators at the post secondary level in service and pre service second language instructors graduate students in applied linguistics and even upper level undergraduate education students considering second language teaching as a future career. Chapters 9 and 11 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license.
