This volume seeks to redress the balance. It takes as its starting point Goethe's idea of Weltliteratur from which it then travels out to various parts of the globe at different historical junctures. Among its many concerns are the legacies of Goethe's idea, variable understandings of the term literature itself, cross-cultural encounters, the nature of small literatures, and the cultural politics of literary genres. With contributions from many of the leading voices in the field, Debating World Literature seeks to transcend the pieties and simplifications of polemic in a search for the complexity embodied in the linking of the two terms world and literature. Making Certain It Goes On Richard Hugo, 2014-02-10 The definitive collection of a major American poet's work. Dhar, 2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a field of study that cannot be overlooked. Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated, with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English. Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing, this encyclopedia documents the poets, novelists, essayists, and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre-independence era and their dedicated works. Written by internationally recognized scholars, this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers, their major contributions, and the critical reception accorded to them. The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students, teachers, and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature. Hybridity, Identity and Belonging in the Poetry of Moniza Alvi and Choman Hardi James Davey, 2025-10-24 Hybridity, Identity and Belonging in the Poetry of Moniza Alvi and Choman Hardi Writing Home explores how contemporary British poets navigate the complex and often contested concept of home Focusing on the works of Moniza Alvi and Choman Hardi as well as other contemporary poets this book examines how home is constructed through language memory and lived experience existing as both a physical place and an evolving process of becoming Drawing on postcolonial theory diasporic perspectives and literary representations of place the book investigates themes of exile hybridity and the intersections of personal and national identity In doing so it asks how does poetry articulate the complexities of belonging in a world increasingly shaped by migration displacement and shifting cultural identities
