Reading Proust In Search Of The Wolf Fish:

Reading Proust Maria Paganini-Ambord,1994 Reading Proust focuses on the specificity of Proustian writing revealing the patterns of thought and play of words peculiar to Proust's language and showing how these metamorphose throughout La Recherche du temps perdu. Her work offers a new model for reading fictional prose one that replaces the critical why with the more practical and productive how Reading Proust Maria Paganini-Ambord,1994 Proust's Lesbianism Elisabeth Ladenson,1999 For decades Elisabeth Ladenson says critics have misread or ignored a crucial element in Marcel Proust's fiction his representation of lesbians Her challenging new book definitively establishes the centrality of lesbianism as sexual obsession and aesthetic model in Proust's vast novel A la recherche du temps perdu. Traditional readings of the Recherche have dismissed Proust's Gomorra his term for women who love other women as a veiled portrayal of the novelist's own homosexuality More recently queer positive rereadings have viewed the novel's treatment of female sexuality as ancillary to its accounts of Sodom and its meditations on time and memory Ladenson instead demonstrates the primacy of lesbianism to the novel showing that Proust's lesbians are the only characters to achieve a plenitude of reciprocated desire The example of Sodom by contrast is characterized by frustrated longing and self loathing She locates the work's paradigm of hermetic relations between women in the self sufficient bond between the narrator's mother and grandmother Ladenson traces Proust's depictions of male and female homosexuality from his early work onward and contextualizes his account of lesbianism in late nineteenth century sexology and early twentieth century thought A vital contribution to the fields of queer theory and of French literature and culture Ladenson's book marks a new stage in Proust studies and provides a fascinating chapter in the history of a literary masterpiece's reception

Claude Simon Maria Minich Brewer,1995-01-01 Reputed to be a conservative group the Nobel Prize committee astonished the world in 1985 by giving its prize to Claude Simon one of the most adventurous and challenging of modern authors whose writing defies easy classification This study shows exactly how inventive and challenging he is Simon's works run the gamut from first person narratives to narratives without a stable perspective His novels deal with minute details of the grand stages of history world war for instance and with the historical dimensions of everyday life Maria Minich Brewer demonstrates that Simon has reformulated the standard forms of fiction to expose the logic of narrative a complex and powerful legacy populated with stereotypes too easily accepted as natural Her book brings into focus the cultural legacies embedded in narrative as well as the narrative dimensions of culture and history Simon has voiced suspicion of narrative order He never underestimates however either its pervasiveness or its powers In his novels he never dismisses narrative order as being merely a matter of formal conventions On the contrary he reveals narrative representation to be a powerful agent of some of the most violent events to which an individual is subject

Aesthetic Theory Theodor W. Adorno Adorno,2020-06-09 Perhaps the most important aesthetics of the twentieth century appears here newly translated in English that is for the first time faithful to the intricately demanding language of the original German The culmination of a lifetime of aesthetic investigation Aesthetic Theory is Adorno's major work a defense of modernism that is paradoxical in its defense of illusion In it Adorno takes up the problem of art in a day when it goes without saying that nothing concerning art goes without saying In the course of his discussion Adorno revisits such concepts as the sublime the ugly and the beautiful demonstrating that concepts such as these are reservoirs of human experience These experiences ultimately underlie aesthetics for in Adorno's formulation art is the sedimented history of human misery Robert Hullot-Kentor's translation painstakingly yet fluently reproduces the nuances and particularities of the original Long awaited and significant Aesthetic Theory is the clarifying lens through which the whole of Adorno's work is best viewed providing a framework within which his other major writings cohere

Aesthetic Ideology Paul De Man, Andrzej Warminski, The core of Aesthetic Ideology is a rigorous inquiry into the relation of rhetoric epistemology and aesthetics and one that offers radical notions of materiality These texts were written or delivered as lectures during the last years of de Man's life

Pathologies of Modern Space Kathryn Milun, 2013-10-18 Pathologies of Modern Space traces the rise of agoraphobia and ties its astonishing growth to the emergence of urban modernity In contrast to traditional medical conceptions of the disorder Kathryn Milun shows that this anxiety is closely related to the emergence of empty urban space homogenous space such as malls and parking lots stripped of memory and tactile features Pathologies of Modern Space is a compelling cultural analysis of the history of medical treatments for agoraphobia and what they can tell us about the normative expectations for the public self in the modern city

Sounds as They Are Richard Beaudoin, 2023-12-22 In a recording what sounds count as music Sounds made by a musician's body including inhaled finger taps and grunts have for decades been dismissed as extraneous noises In Sounds as They Are The unwritten music in classical recordings author Richard Beaudoin pioneers a field of inquiry into non-notated sounds in recordings of classical music recognizing often overlooked sounds made by the bodies of performers and their recording equipment as music Beaudoin classifies such sounds via inclusive track analysis ITA a bold new theory based on a comprehensive census of audible events on a given recording and then codifies their musical function He builds a typology across four large categories sounds of breath inhaling and exhaling sounds of touch guitar squeaks piano pedals sounds of effort grunting and moaning and surface noise on early recording formats Breaths are shown to be as complex and diverse as chords Touch sounds create empathy with listeners Effortful vocalizations reveal connections between music making and sex The measurement of surface noise reveals moments of synchronization with the meter of the recorded piece He draws analogies between unwritten music and painting photography poetry psychology and government The book's methodology is intertwined with the aesthetics and ethics of non-notated sounds who is allowed to make them and how they are received by listeners critics and scholars Beaudoin uncovers insidious inequalities across music studies and the recording industry including the silencing of body and breath sounds along lines of gender and race Sounds as They Are demonstrates the expressive interpretive and embodied possibilities that emerge when all sounds are valued coequally and asks music theory to face a simple truth that all sounds deserve recognition Postcolonial Conrad Terry Collits, 2006-09-27

 Winner of the 2006 NSW Prize for Literary Scholarship The work of Joseph Conrad has been read so disparately that it is tempting to talk of many different Conrads One lasting impression however is that his colonial novels which record encounters between Europe and Europe's Other are highly significant for the field of post colonial studies Drawing on many years of research and a rich body of criticism Postcolonial Conrad not only presents fresh readings of his novels of imperialism but also maps and analyzes the interpretative tradition they have generated Terry Collits first examines the reception of the author's work in terms of the history of ideas literary criticism traditions of Englishness Marxism and post colonialism before re-reading Heart of Darkness Lord Jim Nostromo and Victory in greater depth Collits incisive and wide ranging volume provides a much needed reconsideration of more than a century of criticism discussing the many different perspectives born of constantly shifting contexts Most importantly though the book encourages and equips us for twenty first criticism where we must ask anew how we might read and understand these crucial and fascinating novels Reading, Writing, and Imagining Lise Rempel Hoy, 1999 Gale Contextual Encyclopedia of World Literature Anne Marie Hacht, Dwayne D. Hayes, 2009 Covers world authors from many periods and genres building an understanding of the various contexts from the biographical to the literary to the historical in which literature can be viewed Identifies the significant literary devices and global themes that define a writer's style and place the author in a larger literary tradition as chronicled and evaluated by critics over time The Legal Studies Forum, 2002 Choice, 1994 Translation Review, 1995
Claude Simon Mária Minich Brewer, 1995 Simon's works run the gamut from first person narratives to narratives without a stable perspective His novels deal with minute details of the grand stages of history world war for instance and with the historical dimensions of everyday life Maria Minich Brewer demonstrates that Simon has reformulated the standard forms of fiction to expose the logic of narrative a complex and powerful legacy populated with stereotypes too easily accepted as natural The American Humanities Index Stephen H. Goode, 2000 Romance Languages Annual, 1998 HOW TO ACQUIRE BOOKS LISTED IN CURRENT CONTENTS, 1996 French Forum, 1994 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1995-02
