Intermediate Curriculum

Language Arts is a core subject that focuses on the development of communication skills. It includes the study of literature, grammar, and writing. The curriculum is designed to help students understand the world around them and express their thoughts and feelings through language.

Key components of the Language Arts curriculum include:

- Reading: Students will learn to read a variety of texts, including fiction, non-fiction, and poetry. They will develop skills in comprehension, analysis, and evaluation.
- Writing: Students will learn to write for different purposes and audiences. They will develop skills in organization, development, and revision.
- Speaking and Listening: Students will learn to communicate effectively in oral form. They will develop skills in listening, speaking, and debating.
- Thinking: Students will learn to think critically and creatively. They will develop skills in problem-solving, decision-making, and evaluation.

The Language Arts curriculum is designed to be challenging and engaging. It provides students with the opportunity to explore a wide range of topics and issues. It also provides students with the opportunity to develop their own ideas and opinions.
