Reading the Modern British and Irish Novel 1890 - 1930 Daniel R. Schwarz, 2008-04-15 Daniel R Schwarz has studied and taught the modern British novel for decades and now brings his impressive erudition and critical acuity to this insightful study of the major authors and novels of the first half of the twentieth century An insightful study of British fiction in the first half of the twentieth century Draws on the author s decades of experience researching and teaching the modern British novel Sets the modern British novel in its intellectual cultural and literary contexts Features close readings of Hardy s Jude the Obscure Conrad s Heart of Darkness and Lord Jim Lawrence s Sons and Lovers and The Rainbow Joyce s Dubliners and Ulysses Woolf s Mrs Dalloway and To the Lighthouse and Forster s A Passage to India Shows how these novels are essential components in a modernist cultural tradition which includes the visual arts Takes account of recent developments in theory and cultural studies Written in an engaging style avoiding jargon The Seduction of Pessimism in the Novel Tom

Ribitzky, 2024-10-31 The Seduction of Pessimism in the Novel Eros Futility and the Quarrel with Philosophy explores the novel as a response to the Platonic myth that narrates the rift at the core of our being Eros is supposedly the consolation for this rift but the history of the novel documents its expression as one of frustrated desires neuroses anxieties and cosmic doom As if repeating the trauma from that original split in Plato a split that also divides philosophy from literature the novel treats eros as a site of loss and grief from the medieval romances to Goethe Emily Bront Proust Mann Woolf D H Lawrence and Nabokov The pessimism that emerges from this eros tells us something fundamental about who we are something that only the novel can say At a time when both education and leisure are increasingly ignoring the novel s imperative to sit with ambiguity complexity and contingency and as we are hurtling toward a bleak future of climate catastrophe and political instability the novel is one of the last bastions of humanity even as it is quickly being eroded Subject Index of Modern
