Reading Their World:

Reading Their World Virginia R. Monseau, Gary M. Salvner, 2000 Reading Their World 2 e and its companion CD ROM provide the most extensive examination of young adult literature available today Reading World Literature Sarah Lawall, 2010-01-01 As teachers and readers expand the canon of world literature to include writers whose voices traditionally have been silenced by the dominant culture fundamental questions arise What do we mean by world What constitutes literature Who should decide Reading World Literature is a cumulative study of the concept and evolving practices of world literature Sarah Lawall opens the book with a substantial introduction to the overall topic Twelve original essays by distinguished specialists run the gamut from close readings of specific texts to problems of translation theory and reader response The sequence of essays develops from re examinations of traditional canonical pieces through explorations of less familiar works to discussions of reading itself as a literacy dependent on worldview Reading World Literature will open challenging new vistas for a wide audience in the humanities from traditionalists to avant garde specialists in literary theory cultural studies and area studies Our Worlds in Our Words Mary Dilg, 2010-09-15 How can teachers help their students to meet high standards of reading and writing while also preparing them to become thoughtful and productive members of a multicultural society And why is it important to do this In her new book Mary Dilg brings us into her high school English classroom where we see students reach across the social cultural and economic lines that divide them to build lifelong literacy skills The book explores what happens when we introduce students to the words of a broad spectrum of American scholars writers and artists and then invite them to examine debate and negotiate the ideas presented Dilg provides a safe space to explore complex issues and includes samples of classroom writing to demonstrate how students use their language arts classroom to make sense of themselves and their world Read for a Better World TM Educator Guide Grades 2-3 Tonya Leslie, PhD, 2021-08-01 This essential guide to building and using an inclusive classroom library combines theory and lesson plans for educators of students in grades 2 3 Discover how to audit classroom collections incorporate virtual resources approach tough topics and build stronger kinder classrooms In depth theory and essential lesson plans help grade 2 3 educators develop a literacy program focused on diversity and inclusion Prompts for self reflection allow educators to personally engage with lessons and adapt them to their needs Storytelling in a Culturally Responsive Classroom Laura A. Mitchell, 2018-11-02 The authentic storytelling process gives students the opportunity to include their heritage language and culture into the learning process at school Often students separate their heritage language and culture from the school culture They do this in order to survive the complexity of living in dual worlds or perspectives Belenky et al 1986 When teachers integrate the heritage language such as storytelling into the authentic literacy processes students find that their heritage language and culture has value They discover that their teachers encourage the traditional storytelling of their own heritage stories in the classrooms among their classmates This brings the dual perspective of living in two distinct worlds together The culturally responsive teachers help to merge both the home and school culture together through authentic literacy This book describes how culturally responsive teachers learn to navigate between the heritage languages of their students and the dominant language of their curriculum and instruction They know to ask questions such as Who are the storytellers in your home and what stories do they tell you This form of questioning opens up the thinking process that shows literacy comes in more forms and processes than just a book As culturally responsive teachers invite different forms of literacy to be shared in the classroom they bring the authentic lives of storytellers into their classroom The students can retell the stories that they were told by their storytellers Through this storytelling process both the culturally responsive teachers and the students informs them about who they are how they are connect with others and how they interdependent on others Students tell stories that inform them about who they are and how they are connected with others so they will know that they are human They can live in a world of possibilities where they are interconnected with literacy and interdependent with each other in order to be human They are describing what Greene 1995 described as looking into each other s eyes in order to encourage them to tell their stories about who they are and who they hope to be Read for a Better World TM Educator Guide Grades PreK-1 Tonya Leslie, PhD,2021-08-01 This essential guide to building and using an inclusive classroom library combines theory and lesson plans for PreK 1 educators Discover how to audit classroom collections incorporate virtual resources approach tough topics and build stronger kinder classrooms Prompts for reflection and action provide a one stop resource for educators to make the world better through literacy How to Map Your World A Trevena,2023-04-17 Want to create a fantasy landscape that feels real and immersive Need help drafting a map that enriches the experience of your world How to Map Your World breaks the process down into easy to follow steps By completing a series of creative prompts this book will show you how to map out an engaging world full of stories and adventure This workbook will help you to Lay out your world in a way that complements your story Use hints and plot hooks in your map to entice your readers Find surprise stories and inspiration in your landscape Draw an attractive world map that reinforces your worldbuilding Work your way through the creation of a map that hooks and intrigues your readers leading them deep into the world of your story Learn simple methods for drawing landscape details from mountains to coastlines and how to put them together in a finished world map Get How to Map Your World today and become the cartographer of your own world
