Feeling Strangely in Mid-Century Spanish and Latin American Women's Fiction Tess C. Rankin, 2023-12-15 An

Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM The early twentieth century was awash in revolutionary scientific discourse and its uptake in the public imaginary through popular scientific writings touched every area of human experience from politics and governance to social mores and culture Feeling Strangely argues that these shifting scientific understandings and their integration into Hispanic and Lusophone society reshaped the experience of gender The book analyzes gender as a felt experience and explores how that experience is shaped by popular scientific discourse by examining the strange femininity of young protagonists in four novels written by women in Spanish and Portuguese Rosa Chacel's Memorias de Leticia Valle published in Argentina in 1945 Norah Lange's Personas en la sala Argentina 1950 Carmen Laforet's Nada Spain 1945 and Clarice Lispector's Perto do cora o selvagem Brazil 1943 It pairs each novel with a broad scientific theme selected from those that captured the contemporary popular imagination to argue that the young female protagonists in these novels all put forth visions of young womanhood as an experience of strangeness Building on Carmen Mart n Gait e's term chicas raras Rankin proposes this strangeness as constitutive of a gendered experience inextricable from affective and material engagements with the world

Breed,2014-05-13 Brennan W. Breed claims that biblical interpretation should focus on the shifting capacities of the text viewing it as a dynamic process rather than a static product Rather than seeking to determine the original text and its meaning Breed proposes that scholars approach the production transmission and interpretation of the biblical text as interwoven elements of its overarching reception history Grounded in the insights of contemporary literary theory this approach alters the framing questions of interpretation from What does this text mean to What can this text do ESL (ELL) Literacy Instruction Lee Gunderson,2008-08 This comprehensive research based text provides both ESL and mainstream teachers with the background and expertise necessary to plan and implement reading programs that match the particular needs and abilities of their students ESL ELL Literacy Instruction A Guidebook for Theory and Practice Second Edition applies current ESL and reading research and theory to practice is designed for use by pre service and in service teachers at all levels from kindergarten to adult learners explains different models of literacy instruction Annals of the Entomological Society of America Entomological Society of America,1929 List of members in v 1 5 8 Living on the Edge Wyn Bowen,Matthew Moran,Dina Esfandiary,2016-06-08 In this book the authors explore the controversial Iranian nuclear programme through the conceptual lens of nuclear hedging In 2002 revelations regarding undeclared nuclear facilities thrust Iran's nuclear activities under the spotlight and prompted concerns that Tehran was pursuing nuclear weapons Iran has always denied nuclear weapons aspirations yet it cannot be disputed that the Islamic Republic has gone well beyond what is required for a civil nuclear programme based on energy production and scientific research What then is the nature and significance of Iran s nuclear behaviour Does it form part of a coherent strategy What can Iran s actions in the nuclear field tell us about Tehran s intentions And what does the Iranian case teach us about proliferation behaviour more generally This book addresses these questions by exploring the nature of nuclear hedging and how this approach might be identified before applying this logic to the Iranian case It provides fresh insights into the inherently opaque area of nuclear proliferation and a more nuanced interpretation of the Iranian nuclear challenge
