Popkewitz,David F. Labaree,2011-05-09 This book is a comparative history that explores the social cultural and political formation of the modern nation through the construction of public schooling It asks how modern school systems arose in a variety of different republics and non republics across four continents during the period from the late eighteenth century to the early twentieth century The authors begin with the republican preoccupation with civic virtue the need to overcome self interest in order to take up the common interest which requires a form of education that can produce individuals who are capable of self guided rational action for the public good They then ask how these educational preoccupations led to the emergence of modern school systems in a disparate array of national contexts even those that were not republican By examining historical changes in republicanism across time and space the authors explore central epistemologies that connect the modern individual to community and citizenship through the medium of schooling Ideas of the individual were reformulated in the nineteenth century in reaction to new ideas about justice social order and progress and the organization and pedagogy of the school turned these changes into a way to transform the self into the citizen The Foundations of Teaching English as a Foreign Language Paul Lennon,2020-07-12 An introductory textbook that assumes no prior knowledge of linguistics or second language acquisition this book presents a comprehensive overview of the theoretical foundations methods and practices of Teaching English as a Foreign Language TEFL for pre service teachers Lennon covers the theoretical bases for TEFL and addresses second language acquisition research past and present EFL teaching methodology as well as psychological and social approaches to individual language learner variation Further chapters provide extensive yet accessible coverage on essential foundational topics including chapters on pronunciation grammar vocabulary literature and testing Offering a sociocultural approach in which the teacher is seen as a facilitator and supporter of students self directed learning this text provides the prospective teacher with the knowledge and skills to be an effective educator in the EFL classroom The targeted EFL focus makes this book ideal for pre service teachers and for teacher training programmes around the world Each chapter includes a Food for Thought section with questions for reflection and a Further Reading list
