Reading the Thirties Bernard Bergonzi, 1978 Discusses the generation of English writers who emerged in the late 1920s and who came to dominate the following decade W H Auden Stephen Spender C Day Lewis and Louis MacNeice among poets Graham Greene Christopher Isherwood George Orwell and Evelyn Waugh among novelists Dust jacket Cultures of 1930s Prose Charlotte Charteris, 2019-01-04 Offering a radical reassessment of 1930s British literature this volume guestions the temporal limits of the literary decade and broadens the scope of gueer literary studies to consider literary historical responses to a variety of behaviours encompassed by the term gueer in its many senses Whilst it is informed by the history of sexuality in twentieth century Europe it is also profoundly concerned with what Christopher Isherwood termed the market value of the Odd Drawing for its methodology on the work of Raymond Williams it traces the impact of the Great War on the development of language examining the use of ten keywords in the prose of Christopher Isherwood Evelyn Waugh and Patrick Hamilton and that of their respective literary milieux in order to establish how gueer lives and modern sub cultural identities were forged collaboratively within the fictional realm By utilizing contemporary perspectives on performativity in conjunction with detailed close readings it repositions these authors as self conscious agents actively producing their own queer masculinities through calculated acts of linguistic transgression Ethnography of Reading at Thirty Matthew Rosen, 2023-11-23 This edited volume examines what the classic text The Ethnography of Reading Boyarin ed 1993 and the diverse ethnographies of reading it helped inspire can offer contemporary scholars interested in understanding the place of reading in social life The Ethnography of Reading at Thirty brings together new research and critical reflections from an international and interdisciplinary group of scholars who have kept their ears tuned to the voices in and around the texts they encountered and constructed in the process of bringing the ethnography of reading into the twenty first century Rather than operating from universalist assumptions about how people interact with and make meaning from written texts each of the present contributors draw in one way or another on the theoretical methodological and creative legacies of The Ethnography of Reading Under the broad umbrella of ethnographic reader studies they collectively explore new relations between texts social imagination and social action The Oxford English Literary History: Volume 10: 1910-1940: The Modern Movement Chris Baldick, 2005-11-10 This exciting new volume provides a freshly inclusive account of literature in England in the period before during and after the First World War Chris Baldick places the modernist achievements of Virginia Woolf T S Eliot and James Joyce within the rich context of non modernist writings across all major genres allowing high literary art to be read against the background of low entertainment Looking well beyond the modernist vanguard Baldick highlights the survival and renewal of realist traditions in these decades of post Victorian disillusionment Ranging widely across psychological novels war poems detective stories satires and children s books The Modern Movement provides a unique survey of the literature of this turbulent time Modernism from the

Margins Chris Wigginton, 2020-10-01 Modernism from the Margins is an accessible and challenging account of the 1930s writing of two of the most popular authors of the time Locating the work of Louis MacNeice and Dylan Thomas historically the book questions standard accounts of the period as Auden dominated and offers an inclusive and theoretical account of the engagement of both writers with the varieties of Modernism It is the first reading at length of either MacNeice's or Thomas's work in the light of literary theory and one of only a handful of texts to look at the writing of the 1930s in these terms This book is an important contribution to contemporary discussions of both of these writers and of the general issues of modernism postmodernism literary identity and cultural identity it raises

Graham Greene's Thrillers and the 1930s Brian Diemert, 1996 In Graham Greene's Thrillers and the 1930s Brian Diemert, 1996 In Graham Greene's Thrillers and the 1930s Brian Diemert examines the first and most prolific phase of Graham Greene's career demonstrating the close relationship between Greene's fiction and the political economic social and literary contexts of the period Situating Greene alongside other young writers who responded to the worsening political climate of the 1930s by promoting social and political reform Diemert argues that Greene believed literature could not be divorced from its social and political milieu and saw popular forms of writing as the best way to inform a wide audience

The Unsung Artistry of George Orwell Loraine Saunders, 2016-02-24 In a timely and radically new reappraisal of George Orwell's fiction Loraine Saunders reads Orwell's novels as tales of successful emancipation rather than as chronicles of failure Contending that Orwell's novels have been undervalued as works of art she offers extensive textual analysis to reveal an author who is in far more control of his prose than has been appreciated Persuasively demonstrating that Orwell s novels of the 1930s such as A Clergyman's Daughter and Keep the Aspidistra Flying are no less important as literature than Animal Farm and Nineteen Eighty Four Saunders argues they have been victims of a critical tradition whose practitioners have misunderstood Orwell's narrative style failed to appreciate Orwell's political stance and were predisposed to find little merit in Orwell's novels Saunders devotes significant attention to George Gissing's influence on Orwell particularly with regard to his representations of women She also examines Orwell's socialism in the context of the political climate of the 1930s finding that Orwell in his successful negotiation of the fine balance between art and propaganda had much more in common with Charlie Chaplin than with writers like Stephen Spender or W H Auden As a result of Saunders s detailed and accessible analysis which illuminates how Orwell harmonized allegory with documentary polyphonic voice with monophonic and elegy with comedy Orwell's contributions to the genre of political fiction are finally recognized Writers of the Old School Rosemary M. Colt, Janice Rossen, 1992-06-18 This charts the emergence of British writers who assimilated the experimentation of the modernists in a realist tradition also crafting their own distinctive literary voice The essays in this volume cover a broad range of authors including George Orwell and Evelyn Waugh Medieval Texts in Context Graham D. Caie, Denis Renevey, 2008-04-01 This collection of essays by leading experts in manuscript studies sheds new light on ways to approach medieval texts in their manuscript context Each contribution provides groundbreaking insight into the field of medieval textual culture demonstrating the various interconnections between medieval material and literary traditions The contributors work aids reconstruction of the period's writing practices as contextual factors surrounding the texts provide clues to the manuscript experience Topics such as scribal practice and textual providence glosses rubrics page lay out and even page ruling are addressed in a manner illustrative and suggestive of textual practice of the time while the volume further considers the interface between the manuscript and early textual communities Looking at medieval inventories of books no longer extant and addressing questions such as ownership reading practices and textual production Medieval Texts in Context addresses the fundamental interpretative issue of how scribe editors worked with an eye to their intended audience An understanding of the world inhabited by the scribal community is made use of to illuminate the rationale behind the manufacture of devotional texts The combination of approaches to the medieval vernacular manuscript presented in this volume is unique marking a major innovative contribution to manuscript studies The Modern Movement Chris Baldick, 2004 A major new survey of literature in England during the first half of the twentieth century Chris Baldick places modernist with non modernist writings high art with low entertainment The Modern Movement ranges broadly covering psychological novels war poems detective stories satires children's books and other literary forms evolving in response to the new anxieties and exhilarations of twentieth century life Divine Decadence Linda Mizejewski, 2014-07-14 As femme fatale cabaret siren and icon of Camp the Christopher Isherwood character Sally Bowles has become this century s darling of divine decadence a measure of how much we are attracted by the fiction of the shocking British American vamp in Weimar Berlin Originally a character in a short story by Isherwood published in 1939 Sally has appeared over the years in John Van Druten s stage play I Am a Camera Henry Cornelius s film of the same name and Joe Masteroff s stage musical and Bob Fosse s Academy Award winning musical film both entitled Cabaret Linda Mizejewski shows how each successive repetition of the tale of the showgirl and the male writer scholar has linked the young man's fascination with Sally more closely to the fascination of fascism In every version political difference is read as sexual difference fascism is disavowed as secretly female or homosexual and the hero eventually renounces both Sally and the corruption of the coming regime Mizejewski argues however that the historical and political aspects of this story are too specific and too frightening to explain in purely psychoanalytic terms Instead Divine Decadence examines how each text engages particular cultural issues and anxieties of its era from postwar Momism to the Vietnam War Sally Bowles as the symbol of wild Weimar or Nazi eroticism represents history from within the grid of many other controversial discourses including changing theories of fascism the story of Camp vicissitudes of male homosexual representations and discourses and the relationships of these issues to images of female sexuality To Mizejewski the Sally Bowles adaptations end up duplicating the fascist politics they strain to condemn reproducing the homophobia misogyny fascination for spectacle and emphasis of sexual difference that characterized German fascism Originally published in 1992 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to
