Readings In African Humanities African Cultural Development:

African Cultural Development Ogbu Kalu,1978 African Cultural Development Ogbu U. Kalu,1978 Reading in African Humanities Ogbu Uke Kalu,2002 African Theocology Ebenezer Yaw Blasus,2020-02-27 There is probably no set of issues of greater importance in the contemporary world than those that are to do with the Earth on which we live and depend. The more alienated we become from it the more we contribute to our own destruction. Christianity's complicity in this destruction is well documented and hotly debated. Africa can ill afford to fall into the same trap that Western Christianity has in this regard. One senses the urgency of these concerns in Blasus's African Theocology. Studies in African Religious Creation Care. Extremely well informed in the field, Blasus not only draws on the three major religions in Africa: Christianity, Islam, and African traditional religion, but demonstrates familiarity with the most important recent contributions in the field from Western scholarship. With its emphasis on pedagogics, African Theocology will play a seminal role in the construction of curricula for an African Christian theology of the environment and is sure to be an essential contribution to all libraries in institutions of higher learning.

African Psychology Augustine Nwoye,2022 One of the most unprecedented developments in the history of the scientific study of psychology in postcolonial Africa is the recent welcome inclusion of the study of African psychology within the psychology degree curriculum of some foreword thinking African universities. In each of those universities such as the University of KwaZulu Natal in South Africa and Kenyatta University in Nairobi, Kenya, East Africa, there now exists a gradual entrenchment of the African derived psychology in the curricular provisions of their psychology degree programmes. With particular reference to the University of KwaZulu Natal in South Africa, for instance, a number of African psychology based modules have recently been developed, approved, and incorporated into the list of modules for psychology degree students at the undergraduate Honours and the Master's degree levels. See University of KwaZulu Natal College of Humanities Handbook 2018.

African Cinema: Manifesto and Practice for Cultural Decolonization Michael T. Martin, Gaston Jean-Marie Kaboré,2023-08-08 Challenging established views and assumptions about traditions and practices of filmmaking in the African diaspora, this three volume set offers readers a researched critique on black film. Volume One of this landmark series on African cinema draws together foundational scholarship on its history and evolution. Beginning with the ideological project of colonial film to legitimize the economic exploitation and cultural hegemony of the African continent during imperial rule to its counter historical formation and theorization. It comprises essays by film scholars and filmmakers alike among them Roy Armes, Med Hondo, Frid Boughedir, Haile Gerima, Oliver Barlet, Teshome Gabriel, and David Murphy, including three distinct dossiers: a timeline of key dates in the history of African cinema, a comprehensive chronicle and account of the contributions by African women in cinema, and a homage and overview of Ousmane Sembène, the Father of African cinema.

African Philosophy and the Hermeneutics of Culture Theophilus Okere,2005 The Series Studies in African Philosophy is a forum for the publication and wider dissemination of researches and reflections of value on all aspects of African philosophy While recognising the special advantage of interdisciplinary approach in modern scholarship it retains a special predilection for works that have special African philosophic import Although Theophilus Okere s book African Philosophy has made remarkable impact on African philosophical scholarship many may not be aware of the way he tried to apply his preferred method to other areas of the philosophical investigation in Africa and to overcome the risk of relativism through the promotion of intercultural dialogue in philosophy The essays published in this volume bear testimony to the multivalent character of Okere s contribution to African philosophy Most of the essays are about Okere s hermeneutics of culture Some of the authors examine the method in itself while others focus attention on its application to specific philosophical themes Book jacket

Handbook of African Philosophy Elvis Imafidon,Mpho Tshivhase,Björn Freter,2023-09-30 This Handbook provides in one volume rich comprehensive and rigorous coverage of specific subject areas and thematic concerns in the ever evolving academic discipline of African philosophy This Handbook is unique in its focus on central and emerging areas within African philosophy such as Afro communitarian philosophy ethics epistemology social and political philosophy existentialism philosophy of religion gender philosophy philosophy of education phenomenology transhumanism African philosophy futures and philosophy of the non human The thirty two chapters in this Handbook explore the rich textual and non textual forms of philosophical knowledge in Africa and adequately represent the broad and diverse scope of African philosophy showing the richness and depth of the philosophical tradition This reference work is indispensable to students and researchers in African philosophy comparative philosophy and world philosophies

African Humanities J. Okoro Ijoma,1992 Readings in African Popular Culture Karin Barber,1997 This is an extraordinarily rich collection full of informative detail and excellent interpretative analysis There is not a single piece that fails to fascinate Leeds African Studies Bulletin an impressive collection of inspiring and thought provoking essays Media Development This is a book that should find its way into many syllabuses and onto the bookshelves of Africanist scholars in many disciplines Its publication marks a key turning point in scholarship on the cultures of contemporary Africa Africa Today This book surveys the popular culture of contemporary Africa including popular literature oral narrative and poetry dance drama music and visual art with special emphasis on the verbal arts The essays cover six main areas views of the field oral tradition revisited social history social criticism and interpretation women in popular culture little genres of everyday life the local and the global

Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse Nwachukwu Frank Ukadike,2014-02-27 Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse utilizes an interdisciplinary approach to lay bare the diversity and essence of African cinema discourse It is an anthology of historical reflections critical essays and interviews by film critics historians theorists and filmmakers that signifies a dialogue and engagement apropos the ideology and cultural politics of film production in Africa The contributors are extremely concerned not only with the history of African cinema but with its future and its potential This book then is not limited to the expansion of the discourse on African cinema but tries to approach the definition of the critical

canon within the exigencies and manifestations of art and African sociopolitical practices The authors view these practices as an investment in a cultural imperative stemming from the quest to delineate how critical methodologies are derived from and shape contemporary historical and cultural practices Hence the contributions are less about the usual constrictive method of analysis and more about illustrating manifestations of an interrogative critical methodology that is certainly an offspring of an indigenous African critical cum cinematic culture and paradigms Handbook of Black Studies Molefi Kete Asante, Maulana Karenga, 2006 Publisher Description Indigenous Language for Development Communication in the Global South Tshepang Bright Molale, Abiodun Salawu, Mohammad Sahid Ullah, Enrique Uribe-Jongbloed, 2022-11-23 Indigenous Language for Development Communication in the Global South brings together voices from the margins in underrepresented regions of the Global South within the context of scholarship focusing on indigenous languages and development communication Contributors present cases as a starting point for further research and discussions about indigenous language and development communication in Latin America Africa and Asia Scholars of communication sociology linguistics and development studies will find this book of particular interest African Indigenous Religious Traditions in Local and Global Contexts Ogungbile, David O., 2015-09-23 This volume honours one of the great scholars of our era Professor Jacob Olupona Although he has conducted significant portions of his career outside of Nigeria he has not separated himself from his colleagues or from interests in religions in Nigeria and elsewhere in Africa His publications and presentations offer the international scholarly community important critical insights into a range of religious activities life ways and ideas originating in Africans and the African Diaspora In spite of the diversity in the thoughts and opinions expressed and equally of the range of disciplines and topics contained in the book one can say that the contributors have developed a shared concern about the role of African Indigenous Religious Traditions in the processes of development and the context within which it development had or is taking place The book guides us to a deep understanding and appreciation of how Africans in their varied situations grapple with existential problems through philosophical ruminations complex ritual processes cultivated memory and organized coping strategies Daily Life in Colonial Africa Toyin Falola, 2024-07-11 Discover how European colonization across the many regions in Africa dramatically altered the continent and the daily lived experiences of its peoples Daily Life in Colonial Africa explores nine facets of daily life in the European colonized African continent such as domestic economic political and religious life Examples of everyday people farmers forced to switch to cash crops people of faith melding native traditions and European Christian doctrine on beliefs about the afterlife storytellers using allegory to discreetly challenge colonial rule show how colonialization impacted every aspect of life for Africa s indigenous people as well as how they adapted to new ways of life while maintaining their cultural roots Alongside the main text helpful additional resources such as a timeline of the colonization of Africa and a glossary of terms provide useful context for understanding what life in this period of history was truly like for the many different people and groups affected by Africa's colonization Essays on the Land, Ecotheology, and Traditions in Africa Benjamin Abotchie Ntreh, Mark S. Aidoo, Daniel Nii Aboagye Aryeh, 2019-08-21 The book explores how African Christians in Ghana can think eco-theologically about the nexus of mining waste pollution water pollution and land degradation In 2017 the government of Ghana banned illegal mining and declared war against any activity that does not complement environmental protection and conservation of natural resources The Christian church needs academic resources to support the campaign against the destruction of the land water bodies and environment The papers presented generate theological imaginations in shaping the political campaign against the destruction of the land and the environment Reflection on areas related to the theme includes The Concept of Land in the Bible The Christian Church and the Galamsey Menace in West Africa The Fulani Cattle Headsmen and Care for the Land The Bible and the Environment Towards an Agenda for Eco-theology in African Theological Institutions Stewardship of the Land The Menace of Mining in Ghana Destruction of Water Bodies in Ghana and The Menace of Plastic Waste in Ghana This volume will serve as a textbook for theological students the church and other governmental agencies

African Christian Theologies and the Impact of the Reformation Heinrich Bedford-Strohm, Tharcisse Gatwa, Traugott Jähnichen, Elisée Musemakweli, 2017 One of the strongest heritages of the Reformation for Christianity was to return to the central role given to the Bible translated in local dialects Christianity expanded thanks to the translation of the Bible in vernacular languages worldwide Most importantly the people who had been victims of prejudices of race supremacy could now have access to God in their own language culture and idioms without intermediaries It is largely thanks to Bible translations that the majority of those churches in Africa born of European mission activities continued to develop positively after the end of the colonial age and that independent African churches emerged Series Theology in the Public Square Theologie in der Öffentlichkeit Vol 10 Subject African Studies Christian Studies Ben Enwonwu Sylvester Okwunodu Ogbachie, 2008 An intellectual biography of a modern African artist and his immense contribution to twentieth century art history The Limits of a Divided Nation with Perspectives from the Bible Michael Ufok Udoekpo, 2020-01-31 Michael Udoekpo's work brilliantly and pastorally discusses the issues of conflict friction and disunity in the world and in Nigeria in particular from biblical historical and sociocultural perspectives These issues he stresses are endemic in various fabrics of the Nigerian society traceable to the family as the foundation of any given society They are also found in religious political and media groups Contributing factors Udoekpo argues are materialism infidelity relativism and fundamentalism Others are ethnocentrism anthropocentrism ignorance bribery and corruption with other forms of injustices Drawing from the Bible Udoekpo proposes prayer proper education truth telling restoration of family values interreligious and cultural dialogue ecumenism enforcement of rule of law faith and absolute trust in God as antidotes to conflict violence friction and disunity in our contemporary society African Culture & Civilization Simon Ademola Ajayi, 2005 From interdisciplinary and continental perspectives this volume explores elements of African culture and ideas indigenous and modern and how they have evolved through the ages It considers areas such as education cross culturalism the relationship between African Arabic and Egyptian civilizations traditions of philosophy music the performing arts and literature language gender and the impact of colonialism and pan Africanism
