Readings In Ethnic Psychology:

Readings in Ethnic Psychology Pamela Balls Organista, Kevin M. Chun, Gerardo Marín, 1998 This volume traces the modern critical and performance history of this play one of Shakespeare's most loved and most performed comedies The essay focus on such modern concerns as feminism deconstruction textual theory and queer theory Suicide Among Racial and Ethnic Minority Groups Frederick T.L. Leong, Mark M. Leach, 2010-04-15 Suicide is increasingly understood and predicted as an intersection of biological psychological cognitive and sociocultural factors We have some basic knowledge of these factors and how they interact but presently we know very little about how culture can play a role as a variable that influences suicide Suicide Among Racial and Ethnic Minority Groups will go a long way towards filling that gap by pulling together cutting edge empirical research from general cultural diversity literature and applying it to suicide assessment treatment and prevention theory and practice By looking outside of the limited cross cultural studies done within suicidal populations the contributors all established experts in both multicultural counseling and suicidology expand the available empirical literature base in order to provide a deeper look into how culture can act as an important catalyst in suicidal intentions Following theoretical overviews the text focuses on six broad ethnic groups classified in the literature African American American Indian Asian American European American Hawaiian Pacific Islander and Hispanic with a main chapter devoted to each relating each culture to suicide research highlighting specific variables within the culture that can influence suicide and presenting appropriate treatment considerations A final section of the book consists of practical applications within specific settings therapy outreach schools psychiatric services and prevention and training issues Cultures Under Siege Antonius C. G. M. Robben, Marcelo M. Suarez-Orozco, 2000-09-14 Collective violence changes the perpetrators the victims and the societies in which it occurs It targets the body the psyche and the socio cultural order How do people come to terms with these tragic events and how are cultures affected by massive outbreaks of violence This book is a groundbreaking collection of essays by anthropologists psychologists and psychoanalysts drawing on field research in many different parts of the world Profiting from an interdisciplinary dialogue the authors provide provocative at times deeply troubling insights into the darker side of humanity and they also propose new ways of understanding the terrible things that people are capable of doing to each other The Psychology of Ethnic Groups in the United States Pamela Balls Organista, Gerardo Marín, Kevin M. Chun, 2010 Providing students with a readable basic text on fundamental issues and methods that distinguish the field of ethnic psychology within mainstream psychology the authors overview the field of ethnic psychology with emphasis on the experiences of African American Asian American Pacific Islander American Indian Alaskan Native Hispanic Latino and multiethnic individuals Destructive Trends in Mental Health Rogers H. Wright, Nicholas A. Cummings, 2013-01-22 This book takes as its inspiration the assumption that the atmosphere of intellectual openness scientific inquiry aspiration towards diversity and freedom from political pressure that once flourished in the American Psychological Association has been
