Readings in the Philosophy of Social Science Michael Martin, Lee C. McIntyre, 1994 the first comprehensive anthology in the philosophy of social science to appear since the late 1960s

Critical Theory and Methodology Raymond A. Morrow, Raymond Allen Morrow, David D. Brown, 1994-06-24 Critical Theory traces its roots from Marxism through the renowned Frankfurt School to a wide array of national and cultural traditions. Raymond Morrow's book traces the history and outlines the major tenets of critical theory for an undergraduate audience. He exemplifies the theory through an analysis of two leading social theorists Jürgen Habermas and Anthony Giddens. Unique to this volume is the emphasis on the link between Critical Theory and empirical research and social science methodology often thought to be incompatible.

The Art of Critical Pedagogy Jeffrey Michael Reyes Duncan-Andrade, Ernest Morrell, 2008 This book furthers the discussion concerning critical pedagogy and its practical applications for urban contexts. It addresses two looming yet under explored questions that have emerged with the ascendancy of critical pedagogy in the educational discourse: 1. What does critical pedagogy look like in work with urban youth and 2. How can a systematic investigation of critical work enacted in urban contexts simultaneously draw upon and push the core tenets of critical pedagogy. Addressing the tensions inherent in enacting critical pedagogy between working to disrupt and to successfully navigate oppressive institutionalized structures and between the practice of critical pedagogy and the current standards driven climate. The Art of Critical Pedagogy seeks to generate authentic internal and external dialogues among educators in search of texts that offer guidance for teaching for a more socially just world.

Capitalist Society Richard Quinney, 1994 A History of Literacy Education Robert J. Tierney, P. David Pearson, 2021 In this volume two notable scholars trace the monumental shifts in theory, research and practice related to reading education and literacy with particular attention to what they consider the central goal of literacy: making meaning. Each section describes a specific epoch including a brief snapshot of how the reader of that period is envisioned and characterized by researchers and teachers as well as a deep discussion of the ideas and contextual events of that era. These developmental waves are organized in rough historical sequence by a series of shifts in underlying theoretical and scholarly lenses from the behavioral to the psycholinguistic to the cognitive to the sociocultural to the critical to the multimodal to the global. The book closes with a discussion of the various research frames and methodological approaches that paralleled these developments. Throughout there is a profound recognition that all research and practice are ultimately directed toward how students make meaning from sound to letter to word to ideas and images. Book Features Animates some of the revolutionary developments related to reading education and literacy in modern times Each development is accompanied by a discussion of the aspirational reader that sets the stage for contemplating these shifts and their significance Traces the research and theoretical developments to illustrate the origins of the shifts and their influences Supported by a website with video lectures and conversations tied to the various waves of development

Methodological issues in accounting research Zahirul Hoque, 2018-03-26 What is my theory How do I choose a theory Why and how should I employ a particular method for collecting the empirical data These basic questions concern everyone involved in research A research study can be a voyage of discovering or choice of theoretical perspective as well as gathering empirics or facts on a problem or situation This book provides a good guideline as to why and how to choose a particular theory or method to study an organisational phenomenon such as accounting All the chapters provide both retrospective and contemporary views by scholars in the field Each chapter documents the latest developments and research in accounting and control systems and provides valuable insights into methodological perspectives in accounting research This second edition has also introduced a number of new chapters covering strategy management control as practice grounded theory approach institutional logic and rhetoric social interaction theory actor network theory and practice theory The book is primarily intended for research students and academic researchers It can also be used for undergraduate Honours course as well as postgraduate accounting and business methodology courses Research organisations and consulting firms in accounting and business fields may also find this book useful The principal aims of this second edition are 1 to update the chapters previously published in 2006 and 2 to introduce new chapters documenting recent developments in accounting research
