Riley, 1992 Readings in Global History Anthony Snyder, Sherri West, 2001-07-30 The Global Experience: Readings in world history since 1500 Philip F. Riley, 1992 Readings in Global History Anthony Snyder, Sherri West, 2006-12-20 The Global Experience Stuart B. Schwartz, 1997 The Global Experience provides students with up to date global and high interest readings with a social history focus Offering a global perspective of world history this collection provides a concise easy to read selection of documents and secondary readings Reading the Global Sanjay Krishnan, 2007 The global is an instituted perspective not just an empirical process Adopted initially by the British in order to make sense of their polyglot territorial empire the global perspective served to make heterogeneous spaces and nonwhite subjects legible and in effect produced the regions it sought merely to describe The global was the dominant perspective from which the world was produced for representation and control It also set the terms within which subjectivity and history came to be imagined by colonizers and modern anticolonial nationalists In this book Sanjay Krishnan demonstrates how ideas of the global took root in eighteenth and nineteenth century descriptions of Southeast Asia Krishnan turns to the works of Adam Smith Thomas De Quincey Abdullah bin Abdul Kadir and Joseph Conrad four authors who discuss the Malay Archipelago during the rise and consolidation of the British Empire These works offer some of the most explicit and sophisticated discussions of the world as a single interconnected entity inducting their readers into comprehensive and objective descriptions of the world The perspective organizing these authors conception of the global the frame or code through which the world came into view is indebted to the material and discursive possibilities set in motion by European conquest The global therefore is not just a peculiar mode of thematization it is aligned to a conception of historical development unique to European colonial capitalism Krishnan troubles this dominant perspective Drawing on the poststructuralist and postcolonial approaches of Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault and Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak and challenging the recent historiography of empire and economic histories of globalization he elaborates a bold new approach to the humanities in the age of globalization

The Global Experience: Readings in world history to 1550 Philip F. Riley,2002 The Bibliographical Guide to the Global History of Philosophy , Readings in Global History Snyder-West,2003-01-27 The Origins of Tomorrow Lester H. Brune,1969 Origins of Tomorrow: Readings in Global History, Global History to the Sixteenth Century ,1973 Exchanges Trevor R. Getz,Richard Joseph Hoffman,Jarbel Rodriguez,2008 This impressive collection of readings illustrates that the history of the world is as much about the relationships among societies as it is about transformations and continuities within societies Exchanges A Global History Reader is designed as an introduction to the discipline of world history Unlike other source collections Exchanges helps students look beyond strictly delineated regionalism and chronological structures to understand history as a product of ongoing debate Structured around a series of interconnected themes and debates and pairing both primary and secondary sources Exchanges challenges both students and teachers to rethink history
