Readings in Urban Analysis Robert W. Lake, 2017-07-05 This important work brings together a range of perspectives in contemporary urban analysis The field of urban analysis is characterized by the multiplicity of approaches philosophies and methodologies employed in the examination of urban structure and urban problems This fragmentation of perspectives is not simply a reflection of the multifaceted and complex nature of the city as subject matter Nor is it a function of the variety of disciplines such as geography planning economics history and sociology Cross cutting all of these issues and allegiances has been the emergence in recent years of a debate on fundamental issues of philosophy ideology and basic assumptions underlying the analysis of urban form and structure The notion of urban analysis Robert W Lake discusses focuses on the spatial structure of the city its causes and its consequences At issue is the city as a spatial fact a built environment with explicit characteristics and spatial dimensions a spatial distribution of population and land uses a nexus of locational decisions an interconnected system of locational advantages and disadvantages amenities and dis amenities Beginning with landmark articles in neo classical and ecological theory the reader covers the latest departures and developments Separate sections cover political approaches to locational conflict institutional influences on urban form and recent Marxist approaches to urban analysis Among the topics included are community strategies in locational conflict the political economy of place the role of government and the courts institutional influences in the housing market and the relationship between urban form and capitalist development This is a valuable introductory text for courses in urban planning urban geography and urban sociology

A Reflexive Reading of Urban Space Mona A. Abdelwahab, 2018-02-13 Providing a critique of the concepts attached to the representation of urban space this ground breaking book formulates a new theory of space which understands the dynamic interrelations between physical and social spaces while tracing the wider urban context It offers a new tool to approach the reading of these interrelations through reflexive reading strategies that identify singular reading fragments of the different spaces through multiple reader time space relations The strategies proposed in the volume seek to develop an integrative reading of urban space through recognition of the singular influenced by discourse institution etc and temporal influenced by reading perspective in space and time thereby providing a relational perspective that goes beyond the paradox of place in between social and physical space identifying each in terms of relationships oscillating between the conceptual the physical and social content and the context In conclusion the book suggests that space place can be read through sequential fragments of people place context mind and author reader Operating at different scales between conceptual space and reality the sequential reading helps the recognition of multiplicity and the dynamics of place as a transformational process without hierarchy or classification
