Real Feelings Heaven On Earth:

Real Feelings Brother Bob,1996      The Philosophy of Human Nature Zhu, Xi,1922      The Taoist I Ching Lui I-ming,2005-05-03 The I Ching or Book of Change is considered the oldest of the Chinese classics and has throughout history commanded unsurpassed prestige and popularity Containing several layers of text and given numerous levels of interpretation it has captured continuous attention for well over two thousand years It has been considered a book of fundamental principles by philosophers politicians mystics alchemists yogins diviners sorcerers and more recently by scientists and mathematicians This first part of the present volume is the text of the I Ching proper the sixty four hexagrams plus sayings on the hexagrams and their lines with the commentary composed by Liu I ming a Taoist adept in 1796 The second part is Liu I ming s commentary on the two sections added to the I Ching by earlier commentators believed to be members of the original Confucian school these two sections are known as the Overall Images and the Mixed Hexagrams In total the book illuminates the Taoist inner teachings as practiced in the School of Complete Reality Well versed in Buddhism and Confucianism as well as Taoism Liu I ming intended his work to be read as a guide to comprehensive self realization while living an ordinary life in the world In his attempt to lift the veil of mystery from the esoteric language of the I Ching he employs the terminology of psychology sociology history myth and religion This commentary on the I Ching stands as a major contribution to the elucidation of Chinese spiritual genius      Embracing Our Complexity Catherine Hudak Klancer,2015-08-31 This book discusses what a religiously grounded authority might look like from the viewpoints of the European Catholic Thomas Aquinas 1225 1274 and the Chinese Neo Confucian Zhu Xi 1130 1200 The consideration of these two figures immensely influential in their respective traditions reflects the conviction that any responsible discourse on authority must consider different cultural perspectives Catherine Hudak Klancer notes that both Zhu Xi and Aquinas conceive wisdom as including yet surpassing human reason Both express an explicit faith in the moral order of the cosmos and the ethical potential of human beings The systematic idealistic approach common to both provides the cosmic anthropological and ethical elements needed for a comprehensive exploration of how to exercise and limit authority Ultimately Klancer writes authority requires a particular virtue hitherto latent in both scholars work and in their lives as well A person with this virtue humble authority is properly grounded in the sacred order and fully cognizant in theory and in practice of the parameters of human nature and the responsibilities attendant upon the human role      Confucianism, Buddhism, Daoism, Christianity and Chinese Culture Yijie Tang,2015-02-06 This book collects the 25 most important articles written by Professor Tang since the 1980s dealing extensively with issues of Confucianism Buddhism Daoism Christianity and Chinese culture In these articles Professor Tang proves his value as a worthy successor to the Chinese philosophical tradition while also open to the latest trends of thought both at home and abroad The late Professor Tang Yijie 1927 2014 was a prominent professor at Peking University and China s top scholar on philosophy and Chinese studies He spearheaded the Confucian Canon project which seeks to compile all known classical works on Confucianism comparable in scope and significance to the Complete Library of the Four Treasuries the largest collection of books on Chinese history which was commissioned by the Qianlong Emperor in the 18th century Throughout his life Professor Tang published scores of books and more than one hundred articles offering enlightening insights into how to deal with issues that have historically troubled and continue to trouble people in modern society Among his numerous innovations Professor Tang is especially remembered for introducing the concept of harmony in diversity In the context of the clash of civilizations championed by Samuel P Huntington Tang argued for harmony in diversity holding that this principle can offer some clues to help enable peoples nations and regions with different cultural traditions to develop together while remaining unique note represents Chinese character please refer to BCC file Supporting documents United States. Overmyer,1998-03-10 The guiding themes of Chinese religion as it is actually lived This short work explains basic ideas and practices of Chinese religions in direct and simple language with many examples and analogies for increased understanding Its basic assumption is that religion is best understood as an aspect of everyday life as something that makes sense to those who practice it even if outsiders might be puzzled at first While Overmyer s treatment focuses on traditional China before the twentieth century many of the beliefs and practices described are still alive at least in some Chinese communities While the basic concern of this book is first to understand Chinese religions in their own right it takes the additional step of exploring what modern students might learn from them

Cultural Landscapes Gabriel R. Ricci,2018-02-06 A dualism between man and nature has been a persistent feature of Western thought and spirituality from ancient times to the present The opposition of mind and body consciousness and world has tended to obscure the ways in which humans are ecologically part of interconnected systems some of which are obvious while others operate in hidden but life sustaining ways Cultural Landscapes explores the physical ways in which we are intimately linked to the land and the intellectual and aesthetic connections human consciousness has with the landscape Following the editor's introductory essay the lead article by Jame Schaeffer Quest for the Common Good A Collaborative Public Theology for a Life Sustaining Climate assesses the lightning rod issue of global warming in the context of a public and ecumenical theology and sets the tone for this normative assessment of our relationship with nature Likewise David Kenley's essay Three Gorges be Dammed The Philosophical Roots of Environmentalism in China reveals the traditional philosophical and cultural values that can sustain a vital environmentalism in the East David Brown's historical insights into the use of the American landscape to define historical writing complement Patricia Likos Ricci's historical treatment of nineteenth century landscape painting and the first call to preserve wilderness in the United States Matt Willen An Feochszn and David Martinez What Worlds are Made of The Lakota Sense of Place both demonstrate how space is transformed into place through song and mythic tales On a metaphysical note Andreas Philippopoulos Mihalopolos essay On the Line of the Horizon Anxiety in de Chirico's Metaphysical Spaces provides the reader with psychological and existential insights into the disorienting paintings of de Chirico and Gabriel Ricci's concluding essay tours the landscape that underpins Heidegger's ontological speculations The contributions to this volume are posited on the belief that culture society and human history are ultimately rooted in the natural world This integration may explain why humanity has always looked to nature for moral and ethical guidelines Gabriel R Ricci is associate professor of humanities and the chair of the Department of History at Elizabethtown College in Pennsylvania He is the author of Time Consciousness The Philosophical Uses of History published by Transaction
