Renegotiations In International Business Transactions:

Renegotiations in International Business Transactions William A. Stoeever, 1981 Arbitration and Renegotiation of International Investment Agreements: A Study with Particular Reference to Means of Conflict Avoidance Under Natural Resources Investment Agreements Wolfgang Peter, Jean-Quentin de Kuyper, Bénédicte de Candolle, 1995-06-08 This book is a second revised edition of the original 1986 publication Since then the issue of contract change has increasingly challenged the business community and legal practitioners The world wide recession may well have accelerated the need to secure contractual relationships by reasonable flexibility Successful foreign investment a relentless challenge is subject to many unpredictable errors Of all these variables however successful investment is most dependent on the investor host country relationship which is the object of the present study In particular the pressure by host countries for contract change and its counterpart the investor's defence of contract stability The book is essentially a reference handbook for legal practitioners It analyzes a variety of increasingly important questions concerning international investment agreements that come under pressure for change by one of the contracting parties either a transnational corporation or a host country government The seven case studies and the analytical chapters which follow are based on the author's research and the assistance of corporate and government officials experts from the United Nations and other organizations and members of academic research institutes The Three Laws of International Investment Jeswald W. Salacuse, 2013-02-14 There are three legal frameworks applicable to international investments the laws of the host state and the investor's country the contract between the host state and the investor and the rules of international investment law This book assesses how these three bodies of law interact in investment agreements and dispute arbitration Stabilization and Renegotiation Clauses in State Contracts, National Law and Investment Treaties Abdallah Ali, 2024-02-12 How do host states and foreign investors balance the need for legal stability and regulatory flexibility in the complex world of international investment against the backdrop of an ever evolving global economy This book uncovers unique insights into the delicate balance between legal stability and flexibility Through in depth analysis and real world case studies Dr Abdallah Ali unveils the secrets behind stabilization and renegotiation clauses demystifying their impact on investors governments and global trade With rare access to historical data and illuminating examples this work is an invaluable resource for legal practitioners policymakers and investors navigating the complexities of international investment terrain Principles of International Investment Law Rudolf Dolzer, Ursula Kriebaum, Christoph Schreuer, 2022 This book provides an ideal introduction to the fundamentals of international investment law and dispute settlement for students scholars and practitioners It combines a systematic analytical study of the texts and principles underlying investment law with a jurisprudential analysis of the case law arising in international tribunals Handbook for International Management Research Betty Jane Punnett, Oded Shenkar, 2004 A completely updated edition of the definitive guide for researchers in international management International Energy

Non-Legality in International Law Fleur Johns,2013-01-03 International lawyers typically start with the legal What is a legal as opposed to a political question How should international law adapt to the unforeseen These are the routes by which international lawyers typically reason This book begins instead with the non legal In a series of case studies Fleur Johns examines what international lawyers cast outside or against law as extra legal illegal pre legal or otherwise non legal and how this comes to shape political possibility Non legality is not merely the remainder of regulatory action It is a key structuring device of contemporary global order Constructions of non legality are pivotal to debate in areas ranging from torture to foreign investment and from climate change to natural disaster relief Understandings of non legality inform what international lawyers today do and what they refrain from doing Tracing and potentially reimagining the non legal in international legal work is accordingly both vital and pressing

The Regulation of the Global Water Services Market

Julien Chaisse,2017-01-26 Drinking water and wastewater services must be provided to many sectors of a nation s economy including its industrial commercial and residential sectors This forms the scope of the water industry s activities and it explains why the privatization of water sanitation and water services has become a huge market and a much debated issue in a number of jurisdictions Historically the water industry has been run as a public service which is owned by the local or national government however recent trends suggest that the role of the private sector is increasing The growing economic interests concerning water and wastewater services are generating a tension with the recent recognition of the human right to water and sanitation This tension between human right and economic rules is the focus of this book which reviews all the international rules that form the regulation of global water services
