Renqvist Torsten:

The Great Migrator Hiroko Ikegami, Robert Rauschenberg, 2010 Unlike other writers who have viewed the export of American art during the 1950s and 1960s as another form of Cold War propagandizing and famous American artists as cultural imperialists Ikegami sees the global rise of American art as a cross cultural phenomenon in which each art community Rauschenberg visited was searching in different ways for cultural and artistic identity in the midst of Americanization Rauschenberg's travels and collaborations established a new kind of transnational network for the postwar art world prefiguring the globalization of art before the era of globalization Torsten Renqvist. [With Reproductions and a Portrait.]. Allan Ellenius, Torsten RENQVIST, 1964 Catalog of the Library of the Museum of Modern Art: Rej Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Nurmi, 1964-01-01 A Blake Bibliography was first published in 1964 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions The aim of this book is to list every reference to William Blake published between 1757 and 1863 and every criticism and edition of his works from the beginning to the present Partly because of the deluge of scholarship in the last forty years it includes perhaps twice as many titles as Sir Geoffrey Keynes's great bibliography of 1921 An introductory essay on the history of Blake scholarship puts the most significant works into perspective indicates the best work that has been done and points to some neglected areas In addition all the most important references and many of the less significant ones are briefly annotated as to subject and value Because many of the works are difficult to locate specimen copies of all works published before 1831 have been traced to specific libraries Each of Blake's manuscripts is also traced to its present owner Two areas which have received relatively novel attention are early references to Blake before 1863 and important sale and exhibition catalogues of his works In both areas there are significant number of important entries which have not been noticed before by Blake scholars The section on Blake's engravings for commercial works receives especially detailed treatment A few of the titles listed here have not been described previously in connection with Blake Documentation of Nordic Art / Documentation de l'art des pays nordiques Charlotte Hanner, 2013-02-07 The International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions IFLA is the leading international body representing the interests of library and information services and their users It is the global voice of the information profession The series IFLA Publications deals with many of the means through which libraries information
