Human Trafficking and Prostitution Among Women and Girls of Edo State, Nigeria Possibility of Rehabilitation Through Education and Prevention Mary Dorothy

Ezeh, 2017-06-06 Even though this study was primarily on human trafficking and prostitution among Edo women and girls of Edo state in Nigeria human trafficking however is a widespread visible phenomenon in the world today It is a global problem A report from United Nations Office on Drug and Crime in 2014 says that human trafficking involves over three million people in the world bringing their slaveholders an annual profit of 32 billion dollars According to the same report there is no place in the world where children women and men are safe from human trafficking In the background the stark reality of poverty unemployment social marginalization political crises wars interethnic conflicts and the militarization of entire territories has increased the massive displacements of the population fuelling the illegal sex trade linked to them Many youngsters who desire to improve their living conditions and those of their families fleeing their homes often become prey to criminal organizations who take advantage of them exploit them and dehumanize them Little do they know when they are leaving their homes to go to overseas what is waiting for them is often something altogether different namely intimidation blackmail violence nightmare and slavery that strip them of all dignity and respect To make matters worse most of the victims and their families not only lose credibility but are also ostracized by their local communities when what happened comes to light Therefore the victims of this painful chain are not only young girls and boys but also families Unfortunately some parents especially mothers have also been perpetrators of this deplorable crime They push their daughters into the arms of their torturers lulled by the dream of a brighter future To stop and to prevent the reoccurrence of this criminal network of complicity which has been more or less voluntary conscious and unconscious a joint commitment by all governments organizations local communities and individuals is necessary Everyone needs to remember and never forget that every human being every person has been created and procreated in the image and likeness of God and is a subject of essential rights which should never be violated but rather should be respected and upheld by everyone in every time and place      Sex Trafficking, Human Rights, and Social Justice Tiantian Zheng, 2010-09-13 This volume explores the life experiences agency and human rights of trafficked women in order to shed light on the complicated processes in which anti trafficking human rights and social justice are intersected      Sex Trafficking Marie Segrave, Sharon Pickering, 2012-12-06 Trafficking in persons particularly the trafficking of women into sexual servitude sex trafficking has generated much attention over the past decade This book provides a critical examination of the international and national frameworks developed to respond to this issue focused both on the design of policy responses and their implementation Uniquely it brings together and brings to life the voices of policymakers non government agencies and trafficked women The analysis is grounded in rich empirical work and research in Europe Asia Australia and North America This book examines how sex trafficking has been mobilized within anti trafficking policies across the globe and offers a close examination of the dominant international framework drawing upon a rich and diverse set of case studies Australia Serbia and Thailand This analysis draws upon over 100 interviews with trafficking experts across the three nations including policymakers police immigration authorities socialworkers lawyers UN agencies local and international NGOs activists Critically it also draws upon the voices of women who have been trafficked      Trafficking in Persons Report 2017 Office of the Undersecretary for Civilian Security, Democracy, and Human Ri, 2017-08-18 The 2017 Trafficking in Persons Report highlights the successes achieved and the remaining challenges before us on this important issue The primary focus is to showcase the responsibility of governments to criminalize human trafficking and hold offenders accountable This year's report theme is increasing criminal accountability of human traffickers and addressing challenges in prosecution an essential component of 3P paradigm of prosecution protection and prevention It provides an overview of the type of human trafficking offenses that are taking place around the world in violation of human rights The text includes side bars of situational human trafficking experiences to allow the reader to understand the different types that occur throughout the world High school students and above may find this report helpful for research and writing essays about human rights and law enforcement of human trafficking American citizens policy analysts and decision makers law enforcement personnel and human rights policy activists and advocates and world leaders may refer to this report as a reference on these crimes Related products Explore our Human Rights resources collection and other products produced by the U S State Department      Gender and Human Rights in the Commonwealth Commonwealth Secretariat, 2004 This book brings together the papers commissioned for a Pan Commonwealth Expert Group Meeting on Gender and Human Rights which took place at the Commonwealth Secretariat in London in February 2004 These papers together with other key background papers represent much of the analysis and experience from Commonwealth member countries that informed the development of the Human Rights section of the new Commonwealth Plan of Action for Gender Equality 2005 2015 The papers address a wide range of Gender and Human Rights issues including the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women CEDAW gender based violence culture and the law

Human Trafficking in Europe Gillian Wylie, Penelope McRedmond,2010-06-30 This book focuses on human trafficking in Europe for labour and sexual exploitation It includes empirical work on trafficking throughout Europe identifying underlying causes in globalization migration policies and gender inequality It questions whether European responses from policy makers or civil society are adequate Prohibition of Sexual Exploitation of Children Constituting Obligation Erga Omnes Farhad Malekian,Kerstin Nordlöf,2014-10-02 Whilst the value of human integrity within the laws of individual states and the documents of international human rights is being increasingly consolidated and will become sooner or later the primary concern of the law severe breaches of this value are indeed still widespread In particular the sexual exploitation of children constitutes one of the most serious questions of national regional transnational and international law According to international records every fifteen seconds a child is raped in Africa alone Almost half of the cases heard by the ICTY concern the sexual exploitation of women and children during armed conflict More or less similar conclusions may be reached regarding the ICTR or the SCSL In Rwanda alone 500 000 females were raped Almost 200 000 females and children have been the victims of cruel forms of sexual violence during the conflicts in Congo Sexual abuse of children by priests cannot any longer be concealed in Australia Belgium Canada Germany France Ireland Mexico the United Kingdom and the United States although it is ignored in most Islamic countries The sexual exploitation of children is also widely practised in many other countries Regrettably 79% of all world trafficking is for sexual exploitation The principal subject matter of this book is the legal etymology of sexual exploitation governing minors The aim is to identify and analyse jus cogens and obligation erga omnes in relation to the sexual exploitation of children and to evaluate the international responsibility of states in relation to the elimination or prevention of the crime and the prosecution and punishment of offenders Caribbean Anti-Trafficking Law and Practice Jason Haynes, 2019-07-11 This monograph investigates the International European and Commonwealth Caribbean approaches to human trafficking from an Analytical Eclectic perspective It presents a compelling empirically based argument that although there is currently a panoply of measures aimed at preventing human trafficking prosecuting offenders and protecting trafficked victims in both Europe and the Commonwealth Caribbean these measures have in practice been fraught with a number of challenges whether of a normative institutional or individual nature The continued existence of these challenges strongly suggests that there exists a disconnect between anti trafficking law and practice which is not peculiar to small island developing States since they also extend to developed States including the United Kingdom Although these challenges are not insurmountable this monograph advances the argument that sustained social economic political and legal commitments are both necessary and desirable and that without such commitments only pyrrhic victories would be won in the fight to eradicate the scourge of the twenty first century Given the importance of the issue of human trafficking and its inescapable impact on victims families communities nations regions and the international community as a whole this monograph will serve as an important resource for policy makers scholars students and practitioners actively working in this increasingly dynamic area of law Human Trafficking John Winterdyk, Benjamin Perrin, Philip Reichel, 2011-12-05 Human trafficking is a crime that undermines fundamental human rights and a broader sense of global order It is an atrocity that transcends borders with some regions known as exporters of trafficking victims and others recognized as destination countries Edited by three global experts and composed of the work of an esteemed panel of contributors
